LIBRARY.

The Library contains about 7,000 volumes. Part of these, consisting of books of reference and such books as the professors put aside from time to time for their classes for purposes of reference, may be used only in the Library itself, but not removed; the rest may be taken out by students and read in their rooms or homes. The Library contains a good collection of modern books, and is well supplied with books useful to students in all branches of study. It is also furnished with the leading periodicals, such as The Contemporary Review, The Nineteenth Century, The Fortnightly, The
