The weather was rather against amusements at the end of last week and the beginning of this. Springs was indulging in its well known inclemency, and the two enterprising football and bicycle clubs have had to hile their heads. Our weather has not equalled St. John's; that is our only consolation. The Badminton club has been revired with some brickness, as it is held in the drill shed under cover. This is an R. A. and R. E. organization I am told, and all hady players are guests, not subscribers. Miss Ross takes a great interest in the game, and plays very well as does Mrs. Maycock. Miss West who is now in England, was formerly one of the most energetic of Badminton enthusiants.

A very pica-ant At Home was given by Mrs. Weatherbe on Saturday last at her house in South Street. There was just enough people to make the afternoon a success, and the usual tes party crush was delightfully wanting. This was owing to the forethought of the hostess, (who had divided her friends into two lists, to the second of which invitations have been issued for this afternoon, (Sat.) Mrs. Weatherbe, who is a very excilent hosters, was abiy assisted last Saturday by her nicce Miss Minnie Johnstone, of Stellarton.

On Monday evening the Orpheus Club had a full house for the repetition of their sacred concert. A few small changes had taken place since the first performances. Dr. Slayter singing the music formerly alloted to Mr. Gillis very well indeed; and the place ilect vacant by the Leicestershire men in the erly alloted to Mr. Gillis very well indeed; and the places left vacant by the Leicestershire men in the orchestra being very acceptably filled by bandsmen from the Liverpool regiment. On the whole this repeated concert was a tremendous success, and an improvement upon its first bearing. Mrs. Hagasty, as well as Dr. Slayter and Mrs. Taylor, samp particularly well, and the Orpheus Club gave their non-subscribing parrons an evening of thorough musical enjoyment. I am sorry to hear that the club expect subscribing patrons an evening of thorougn musical enjoyment. I am sorry to hear that the club expect to lose their clever conductor at the end of this season. It is to be hoped that Mr.-Porter will reconsider his present jutention, if this report is true. Apropos of organists, I hear that the new organist and choir master for St. Luke's cathedral is expected on the steamer now due from England.

The German Men of War which came into Halifax to coal on Saturday last made rather a small sensation. What with the saluting from and to the Citadel, and the appearance in the streets of three and fours of smart foreign officers, attention was generally attracted to the Empress Augusta and the Sea Eagle, as the ships' names go in English. A great many people boarded one or the other on Saturday afternoon; perhaps it was unnair to judge while our German visitors were coaling, but they did not seem to me as well and suarrly kept as English ships of the same order. Their officers however, were a very well set up, and good looking lot of mrn.

The City Ciub are the pioneers of ladies' club life in Halifax, and I fancy it will be a long time before their pleasant example is followed by the more conservative and older club in Hollis street. The second Thursday in every month has been set part by the City Ciub as a day when members may ask ladies in to dine, and among the ladies who accepted this novel invitation last week were Mrs. Arthur Curren and Miss Lawson.

On Tuesday evening Sir John and Miss Ross gave a small dinner at Bellevue for Miss Dundas of Sectland, who has been sepanding the winter in the West Indies, and goes to England by today's steamer.

The conversation entro by St. Andrews sough of the state M. Fraser. There was a charming little musical programme, of which Mrs. Hagarty and Mrs. Taylor were the stars, and altogether the most enjoyable of evenings was spent. A great many members of the venings was spent. A great many members of the little daughter, Alice, and their friends will be pleas

The chaperones on Tuesday evening were Mrs. I.

The bazaar given on Tuesday at the Church of England Institute in aid of the church at Grand Pre, was very successful when the state of the weather was considered. There were so many pretty things at it that it was continued on Wednesday with a very granifying result to Mrs. Weatherbe, and on her records laterated in the wilters of the little church. ed in the welfare of the little church. people interested in the wilare of the little charch. The pink tea was delightfully pretty, and quite as good as it looked. The salad bowl competition turned out to be a very clever little des for making money, due I think to Mrs. F. Jones. The salad bowl was filled with small bits of paper, folded with a quotation written upon each. The purchaser bought one, guessed the author of the quotation, and the most correct guesses and leaves it leaves to toward.

APRIL 14.—The recital given last month in Christ church in aid of the organ tund was quite a success, and was listened to with pleasure by a large and appreciative assience. Mr. Heisby was assisted by Mr. W. R. Foster, of Darmomh, and Mr. Cummings, of St. Paul's, Halifax, as soloists and by Mr. Page as violints. Mr. Fuster possesses a voice of rare sweetness. and it is always a pleasure to me to hear him sing I have only had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Helsby upon two occasions since he became organist of Christ church, but he has certainly made great progress in his art, Gowmad's "Marche Romaine" was splendidly given, as well as all his other selections. I think of all I preferred the "Marche," and Batiste's "Offertorie in A." The peopse of this church are to be congratulated upon possessing such an organ, and also upon an organist who is in perfect sympathy. A print 18-. Christ church was dressed with flowers on Easter-day I believe for the first time in its history to the great pleasure of its usual worshippers and of the large congregation that attended the morning and evening servicer. The pulpit and lectern were almost hidden by banks of flowers in pots, very beautifully arranged, and the fount was filled with Easter and calla Illies; cut flowers in vases were also placed on the chancel window, above the communion table, and the effect was very pretty. The music was good and the services bright and bearty.

Mrs. D. McNeill Parker had a large "at home" above the communion table, and the effect was very pretty. The music was good and the services bright and hearly.

Mrs. D. McNeill Parker had a large "at home" on the 11th which was largely attended and was much enjoyed by the guests. I think there were between seventy and eighty ladies present. Some very smart frocks were worn but the late season keeps the tailor-made gown largely to the fore. Mrs Parker and her daughters were assisted in their pleasant duties by Mrs. Davies, Miss Louise Black, Miss Dustan and Miss Norah McKave.

Mrs. Milsom also had a small party on Tuesday evening, for her daughter Miss Lena, who is attending school at Mount St. Vii cent, and who was at home for the Easter hoildays. The juveniles erjoyed themselves to the utmost, for Mrs. Milsom is a capital hostess, and her parties are always voted "very joily," by both big and little people.

The Misses Sadie Oland and Lily Lago are also pupils at "the Mount."

Mrs. Dowle has returned from Scotland, where she and her children have been spending the winter with 1 er people. She brought out with her a young Scotch lady, Miss Jenny Dees, who if report is be belleved, has left "home and native land," to marry a countryman of her own, a gentleman who has lived amongst us for several years. Miss Dees made her first appearance in society here, as a guest at Mrs. Parker's tea.

I hear there is a wedding definitely settled to come of upon the 26th, when Mr. Perecott Johnstone is to marry Miss Alice Hare of Bedford. I do not yet know where the wedding is to be, out I imagine that it will be either in St. Paul's Hallfax, or very quietly at the little Bedford church, owing to the serious iliness of the fair bride's father. If possible I will send an account of the wedding in my next letter.
