New Po t Office. The fence on Prince William street that has effectually closed to view the corner where the new Post Office is being built, was opened in one place this forenoon All were surprised to see the progress the contractors had made with the work. The granite basement wall is almost cometed, and is a fine solid piece of workmanship, giving promise, if the work is finished as begun, of the building presenting a massive and handsome appearance. say the natives, "but his management of races is disgustingly peculiar." There are seven more races to be decided, if the management is able to get through with them to-day and to-morrow, which is by no means absolutely certain. Mr. Reid, in reply to the anxious question—"Will you postpone some of the races till Sunday?" said "that wouldn't do in Fredericton." The steamer Fawn on her trip up from St. John last night was considerably troubled by drifting logs. They were met in large numbers before reaching Mau gerville, and the boat often had to stop and back to get clear of them. Several jars were felt, as unseen logs were struck, and some apprehension was felt that a hole would be knocked in the boat. The bright moonlight was reassuring, and the officers were very careful. When just off the bluff, below Morrison's mill, a slight jar was felt, and the boat careened shoreward perceptibly. In a few seconds the firemen discovered water rushing in. The captain was sent for by the engineer, and immediately gave the 106 Prince William Street, order to start the pumps and head for the The boat, in coming around, rolled badly, as there was about six feet of water in her. The pumps kept it from rising, but failed to lower it in the least. The boat jumped Morrison's boom with-

The water neither rose nor fell, remaining at about six feet, the stern keeping afloat, and the fires being just above water. The passengers held a meeting and signed a cument exonerating the captain and officers of the boat of all blame. They anded in the small boat, and walked to town-two miles. After vainly seeking Young, Dorion and others hold promia resting place in the hotels some of them went back to the Fawn and went to bed-Capt. At half past eleven Mr. Reed got today's programme arranged to his satisfaction, namely: The finish of the two forty seven trot. The $150 handicap for running horses

Entered-Jennie, Factory Girl, Ginger and The $100 handicap for beaten horses. Entered-Climax, Ginger, and Vesuvious, and the sweepstakes trot.

He announced this programme to the waiting drivers in the park. Bell, Andy's driver, immediately said: "I will drive my horse in no race until after the two thirty-two, for which he has been entered. I will only do what is right. I did not come here to be swindled or bought. There is not money enough in the cor cern to buy me to trot my horse withou is right after the two-thirty is over. I won't say what I'll do till then. I don't trot Andy for second money in any race. I never 'pulled' a horse nor ever will. I trot it will be for first money."

Mr. Reid went off looking extremel uzzled and annoyed. The other drivers vere down on Bell calling him autocratic Golding and McLeod said they were villing to come for second place in the wo-thirty-two, and thought Bell should terms, if he did not go in they wanted to. There was a general feeling of dis: p tment, and the prevailing opinion is hat Andy will not be allowed to go against Hopeful. I asked Bell and he said he would do what was right. He gave several reasons why Andy should not trot against Hopeful, and there seems | Photograph Rooms no prospect of his doing so. I asked Reid if he would have the two-thirty-two race if Bell refused to enter for the other and he answered "No." The two thirty-two race was got up for Andy and they have acted blamed mean about it. He does not go for the sweep stakes, that race will not be started with him in it. The four year old trot is down to fol-

ed for it. To-morrow there will be a two-forty rot with six horses, for 150 dellars. The Gipsy Queen close behind broke badly Both lost ground; they settled down a few rods from the finish and Gipsy trotted squarely past Nellie and gained second place. Lady Sussex was a bad fourth. Gipsy's driver attributed his last freak to the shouting of Hill, Nellie's driver, and Hill wanted to lick him on the spot. The Judges told Hill to shout no more. The Queen was now left out of the pools, and Gipsy became a hot favorite for second money. A start was first turn Queen broke, and Nelly shot ahead into her place. Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this Extract of Sarsaparilla. It is found a great promoter of health, when take in the spring, to expel the humors that rankle in the system at this season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood they must be surstimed. corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is food, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, tor cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
