PLEASED WITH SELECTION NEW MINISTERS SHOW ABILITY

Premier Drury Expresses Satisfaction With His Cabinet.-Wants a Good Gymnasium.-Mills Without Portfolio Until Next Session.

CARMICHAEL GOES TO HYDRO NEXT WEEK

Toronto, Nov. 17.—'I am beginning to feel pleased at selection of my ministers," stated Premier Drury to-day. "I have always felt that the abilities of the agricultural men were underestimated by the people of the cities. I believe the various departments are headed by able men. I made rigid investigation of their abilities, record and reputation before I invited them into the Cabinet.

"But I am not going to allow them to go to seed in these new positions. I am on the lookout for a good gymnasium where they can spend a little time in exercising that will keep them fit. By so doing I am hoping to relieve some of the strain of office that is bound to be felt by the ministers as they continue their duties."

The Premier stated that Col. D. Carmichael, minister without portfolio will not take his place on the hydro a
