Red Devils Split Weekend Games

By Tim Lynch

When a team is well out of playoff contention, its players are usually content to simply go through the motions for the remainder of the season. However, the UNB Red Devils proved that theory wrong last weekend as they upended the Mt. Allison Mounties 7-4 and were nipped 3-2 in overtime by the MacAdam Division-leading Moncton Blue Eagles.

In Sunday's contest, Eric Boisvert scored at 6:58 of sudden-death overtime to give the Blue Eagles their eighteenth victory of the season. Mike Sutherland paced the Red Devils' attack with a pair of goals, and goaltender Dean Frost kicked forty-one shots out of the UNB net. Head coach Rick Nickelchok was impressed with his troop's effort. "They showed a lot of character and a lot of pride. We were shorthanded against Moncton with fourteen skaters, and they played their most disciplined game of the year. It was their best outing."

Nickelchok was also pleased with his defensive unit since they limited the number of quality shots taken by the potent Blue Eagle offense.

one assist in the Red Devils' win over Mt. Allison. Both Serge Ouimette and John Gravelle netted a goal and assisted on two others. Sutherland also scored on two of the Red Devils' forty-five shots directed at the Mt. Allison goal.

The Red Devils will take their 8-14 record to Moncton tomorrow night and will play their final regular season home game against the playoff-bound Panthers of UPEI on Sunday. Game time is set for 2:00 pm at the AUC.
