number of good hits and defensive plays. The Blues won the game 15-7.

The Toronto Varsity Blues were very impressive. Led by veterans such as Marc Dunna and their quietly effective setter John Spicer, the Blues were mesmerizing at times. Good play by everyone on the floor showed the experience on the team, which has only three rookies. One of these rookies, Edgar Lueg, was a force at the net and played respectably on the back line. As he gains experience, look for this former

Sports Wrapup Men's Basketball

The Dalhousie Tigers men's basketball team bounced back after an opening night loss to St. Mary's to win the consolation round of the Acadia Tipoff Tournament. On Friday night the St. Mary's Huskies, with 23 points and eight rebounds from Mike Williams, trounced the Tigers, 99-68. Dal was led by George Leacock who scored 13. On Saturday, the Tigers took their frustrations out on Mount Allison, beating the Mounties 85-64, to capture the consolation final. Dalhousie was led by rookie Willem Verbeek who scored 23 points and grabbed 16 rebounds.

Women's Basketball

The Dalhousie Tigers women's basketball team kicked off their American exhibition series in style, beating the University of Southern Maine 65-47. The Tigers were led by Kathy McCormack, who had 17 points, and Sheri Thurrott with 16 points. On Saturday, the team didn't fare too well, losing 77-58 to the University of Maine at Orono. Dal was led by Lisa Briggs with 17 points.

Playoff Bound

By HEATHER KAULBACH

Dalhousie women's soccer team heads into their final weekend of play in an unfamiliar position. In the last six years, the Tigers have entered the last weekend in first place. They will enter the '86 AUSA playoffs in third position but their hopes of winning are as high as ever.

The Tigers will face St. F. X. in one semi-final on November 8 at 3:00 pm at St. Mary's. The other semi-final has Mt. A. playing Acadia. The winner of these two games will advance to the AUSA final on November 9 at 1:00 pm also at St. Mary's.

The Tigers will have to put in a good team effort if they are to repeat as AUSA champions because this season, St. F.X. has managed 2-1 and 5-2 wins over Dalhousie. They are healthy and they have been practicing very hard for the last two weeks. Key performances will be expected from Captain Lesley Cherry, Donna Lamb, and Dawn Stewart as they will be ending their university sports careers after this year.

junior national team member on future All-Star teams.

The Dalhousie Tigers had some flashes of good play but their errors showed their inexperience. Brian Johnstone played well, at times scrambling all over the court. Brian Rourke, last year's AUSA MVP, had an off day, missing several serves and playing quietly with little effect on the match.

Players of the game were Brian Johnstone of the Tigers and Steve Pollitt of Toronto.

Dalhousie lost the Air Canada Challenge, a four game series played in various locations in Nova Scotia and PEI to promote the sport of volleyball in the two provinces, 4-0. Scores were: Thursday in Montague, PEI — 15-6, 15-5, 15-11; Friday in Sackville, NS — 15-8, 15-6, 15-7; Saturday afternoon at Annapolis Royal — 15-5, 18-16, 15-7; and Saturday evening at St. Anne du Ruisseau — 15-6, 15-1, 15-10.

The Tigers season starts Nov 7 at UNB. They play their first home game Nov. 22 against Memorial.

Tigers Top Mounties

Hard working Gord Reid supplied two goals in leading the Dalhousie Tigers hockey team to a Friday night 4-1 victory over the Mount Allison Mounties.

Greg Royce opened the scoring for Dalhousie in the first period assisted by Jasmin Breton and Brian Melanson. Mount A's Dan McDougall replied to even the score at 1-1 at the end of the first.

Gord Reid's unassisted goal put the Tigers ahead in the second period. In the third period, Reid fired in his second marker from Jay Innes and Craig Morrison, followed by a goal by Breton from Paul Herron and Kevin Quartermain.

Mount Allison's goaltender Pat McLaughlin played the full 60 minutes, stopping 24 of 28 shots. Dal's Rick Reusse stopped 38 of 39 shots.

McDougall was Mount A's Coca Cola Player of the Game and for Dal it was Rick Reusse.
