

Self would be under obligation (who these men are not) not to purchase Indian timber. And his Conclusion therefore is that the Indian timber wd be safer if he was operating at Siding Bay than it is now.

Yours faithfully
Alex McNeill

The Deputy Secy of Indian Affairs