I saw Judge McLean Yesterday who is ready at any moment to convey to Mr Gadsby the four Acres claimed by the latter & with regard to the matter between him & Perry (who is his Father in Law) they must arrange it themselves. I return the paper herewith. — the weather here is Exceedingly cold & blustering — Mr Merritt resigned yesterday on the retrenchment question Very faithfully Yours
J. G. Charles
