Ottawa, June 20, 1908.

Sir,-

Referring to your land return for May last, with which you forwarded a payment on account of Lot 14, Con. 3, Neebing, in the name of Gordon Clark, I have to inform you that, upon reference to the records of the Department, it is found that this lot stands in the name of George W. Clark, by assignment from J. M. Monro, the original purchaser. It will, therefore, be necessary to furnish an assignment from George W. Clark to Gordon Clark, before this payment can be credited, or a written statement by Gordon Clark that he has paid the money on behalf of George W. Clark.

Your obedient servant,

for Secretary.

Neil Mc Dougall, Esq.,

Indian Agent.
