

pondence of the Club; receive all membership fees, but pay no bills without sanction of Executive Committee. His books shall be open for examination at any meeting by any paid-up member. He shall deposit all money of the Club in a bank and pay all bills with checks.

7. The duties of the Executive Committee shall be to keep the courts in condition; be responsible for the general upkeep of the Club; open the courts at the beginning and close them at the end of each season, and if necessary at any time for repairs; it shall have power to establish a waiting list with limited privileges; elect honorary members, and receive and pass upon applications for membership after the limit of fifty has been reached. Three members present at any meeting of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum, and the absence of a member of the Executive Committee from two consecutive meetings without