For instruction in medicine, the following schools exist:—

THE TORONTO SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, affiliated to the University of Toronto; the TRINITY MEDICAL SCHOOL, affiliated to the University of Toronto, and also to that of Trinity College; the ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS at Kingston; there is besides a Veterinary College in Toronto.

VI. Institutions partly Educational or Reformatory.

In addition to the institutions properly educational, there are others whose objects are of some such character, and which are striving for the amelioration and reformation of those classes which come within the scope of their operation. Of these may be noticed those directly maintained out of Provincial funds, and controlled by a department of the Government. In the PROVINCIAL REFORMATORY, Penetanguishene, there are 263 boys, who have been committed to it on being tried for criminal offences. Part of their time is given to instruction and part to training in various industries, and the general results of the treatment have proved favourable.

The CENTRAL PRISON was established by the Province in 1873 for the purpose of reforming ordinary offenders whose sentences were of limited duration. The prison has been constructed at an expense of about $420,000, and is probably one of the best prisons, in all respects, to be found on the continent. The short experience of its effects shows that the influences are of a beneficial and reforming character. Offenders consigned to it are free from the contaminating associations to be found in the ordinary gaols of the Province, and being instructed in various trades, leave the prison better fitted for earning an honest living in the future.

The Public Schools are unable to reach the class of neglected children which are to be found in cities and the larger towns, and Boys and Girls' Homes have been established by individuals and societies to meet this want. They care for, educate and train a
