HEADACHE.

DR. E. SPOHN, a German physician of much note, having devoted his attention for some years to the cure and removal of the causes of NERVOUS AND SICK HEAD-ACHE, has the satisfaction to make known, that he has a remedy which by removing the causes cures effectually and permanently this distressing complaint. There are many families who have considered Sick Headache a constitutional incurable family complaint. Dr. S. assures them that they are mistaken, and labouring under distress which they might not only alleviate, but actually eradicate by the use of his remedy. It is the result of scientific research, and is entirely of a different character from advertised patent medicine, and is not unpleasant to the taste. To be had of L. I. SIMS.

BEGG & URQUHART.

Miscellaneous.

SHAKESPEARE AND THE BIBLE.—There have been few men who have read the Bible with as much attention as it was read by the Great Bard. Some of his best thoughts are copied from the Sacred Volume—the following for example:—

Bible.—The apostle says, "But, though I be rude in speech."—2 Cor. ii. 6.

Cithela.—"Rude am I in speech." Bible.—"Consume thine eyes and to grieve thine heart."—I Sam. ii. 33.

Macheth.—"Consume his eyes and grieve his heart."
Bible.—"Thou has brought me into the dust of death."—Ps.

Macheth.—"Lighted fools the way to dusty death."
Bible.—"Look not upon me because I am black—because the sun has looked upon me."
—Song Sol. i. 6.

Merchant of Venice.—"Mislike me not for my complexion—the shadowy livery of the burnished sun." Bible.—"I smote him: caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him."—I Sam. xvii. 35.

Bible.—"I took by the throat the circumcized dog, and smote him." Bible.—"Opened Job his mouth and cursed his day; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of months."—Job.

Macheth.—"May this accursed hour stand aye accurs'd in the calendar." Bible.—"What is a man that thou art mindful of him? Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels. Thou crownest him with glory and honor, and didst set him over the works of thy hands."—Ps. viii. 4; Heb.
ii. 6.

Hamlet.—"What a piece of work is man;
—How noble in reason—how infinite in faculties: in form and moving low express and admirable; in action how like an angel; in apprehension how like a god. The beauty of the world—the paragon of animis." Bible.—"Nicanor lay dead in his harness."
—Macc. xviii. 12.

Macheth.—"We'll die with harness on our backs."
THREE TIMES THREE, "ALL'S WELL." In the announcement of births this week we find the following:—"In Londonderry, the lady of J. Kennedy, Esq., officer of Excise, of three children, two boys and a girl, all well."—"In Canton, Glasgow, Mrs. Murray, of two sons and a daughter, all well."—"At Sowerby, near Bridlington, Yorkshire, the wife of Mr.
S. Mason, of three daughters, all doing well."
The happy husbands intend meeting to celebrate their good fortune, by drinking the healths of their consorts, with three times three, and singing as a trio "All's Well."— Cork Standard, June 24.

NON-COMMITTAL.—"Whostruck Jim Patherson? whostruck Jim Paterson?" demanded a woe voter from the land of turf and glory, elbowing himself through the crowd assembled at the poll, and intimating a bloody nose and black eyes to any one who dared to use the first person singular number in his reply —"only show me the man who knocked down Jim Paterson?"—and his little red hands resolved themselves into fists, and his little voice struggled up from his belly in an attempt to be deep—"only show me the man that knocked down Jim Paterson." "I knocked him down," said a voter stepping from the crowd, "and what have you to say about it?"
"By my soul, and ye did it like a man," replied our Mias, bowing very courteously.

It is not every man who can afford to wear a shabby coat; and worldly wisdom dictates to her disciples, the propriety of dressing somewhat beyond their means, but of living within them; for every one sees how we dress, but none see how we live, except we chose to let them. But the truly great are, by universal suffrage, exempted from these trammels, and live or die as they please.
