

Mr. Sadler's Sale

Mr. Sadler's sale of Shorthorns, held on the 24th of Oct., at his place near Brooklin, Ont., was a great success. The herd, which is headed by the great and widely known bull Scottish Chief, which was bought by Mr. A. Nesbitt, of Columbus, were all sold. The auctioneers were Mr. Geo. Jackson, of Port Perry, and Mr. Jas. Bishop, of Oshawa, who did their work well. The crowd was fairly large, considering that it was only advertised in the district. Mr. H. S. Logan, of Amherst, N.S., as manager, deserves credit for the good work and the improvement which he has made in the condition of the stock since taking them in hand.

Sale of Quebec Ayrshires

The auction sale, on October 17th, of Ayrshire cattle from the herd of Hon. Wm. Owens, at his Riverside farm, at Montebello, Quebec, came off successfully. The stock was in good condition, despite the dry summer and shortage of pasture in that district. Bidders and buyers were present from Quebec, Ontario and the Eastern States. Captain Robson, as auctioneer, was at his best, and the sale was satisfactory. The highest price paid for a bull was $200, for Not Likely, of St. Anne's, a very superior animal, purchased by Robert Hunter & Sons, Maxville, Ont. The top price for a cow was $160, for Jean of Glenora, which went to N. Gauthier, of Billings' Bride, Ont., who also secured Barbara at $105. Converse & Co., of New York State, took Nora at $105. To Hunter & Sons fell Maria, at $115, and Lillian and Susan, at $100 each. W. F. Maclean, Toronto, also secured a cow at $100, and two or three young heifers at $60 to $65 each. The average for all sold, including a number of young calves, was $70.

Ontario Provincial Winter Fair

The prize list of the fair, which will be held at Guelph, December 10th to 14th, 1906, have been distributed to all exhibitors whose names are in the secretary's hands. Persons who are feeding high-class stock, but who have not exhibited at the fair, should send for a prize list.

The classification provides good prizes for the different breeds of beef and dairy cattle, sheep, swine and poultry, also for farm seeds and potatoes. The various departments of the fair and the amount of prizes for each are as follows: Live stock, $800; judging competition, $800; seeds, $300; dressed poultry, $300; live poultry, $2,000; poultry special prizes, $1,000. This makes a total of $10,000 to be distributed as prizes.

Exhibitors will note particularly that entries should be sent to the secretary before November 24th. Entry forms will be found in each prize list. Any person wishing a list will receive one free upon application to

A. P. Westervelt, Secretary, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.
