

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 56
No. 8

TORONTO, FEBRUARY 25, 1916

ESTABLISHED
1867

Our Second War Budget, From Many Angles

	Page.		Page.
Criticisms of the budget summarized.....	16	Paid-up capital basis of tax.....	20
Text of business tax resolution.....	18	Bankers and the budget.....	22
Why the farmers are exempt.....	18	Retroactive feature of taxation.....	22
Fifty-thousand-dollar companies.....	20	Government's debenture stock issues.....	24

London, Financial Centre

Professor Jastrow, of Berlin University, says that London's fate as an international centre is sealed. Some of the things which the professor overlooked. What New York must do to take first place in finance. Page 32

Women and Business

Based on the general experience that the average woman is not versed in business and investment principles, life insurance payments in the monthly income rather than the lump sum form are gaining in popularity. Page 34

Loans to Farmers

Amendment to bank act introduced. It will permit loans upon security of live stock. Sir Wilfrid Laurier predicts banks intended especially for needs of farmers. Page 5

Sun Reinsures Prudential

The court having ordered the reinsurance of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, of Winnipeg, with a well-established company, the Sun Life has agreed to reinsure. Approval of the insurance department obtained. Page 26

Fire Insurance

Western Assurance Company comes to the rescue of several small concerns, Page 30. Discussion of the fire risk in grain elevators, Page 38. The Monetary Times' weekly record of fire losses throughout Canada. Page 12

In the Bond Market

What will be the interest rate on the Dominion government's new "baby" bonds? Page 24. City of Edmonton finance, weekly register of municipal activities. Page 7

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 40, 42, 44, 46, 48.
DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 41.
DEBENTURES FOR SALE—Page 41.
ANNUAL REPORTS—Pages 25-39.
EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents.