her red fez, while Dot turned the crank of her music-box so vigorously that no sound of any sort came from it. People began to stare at them; one young woman bent and kissed Mab's hot cheek, saying, "You poor little angel! Have you got nobody belonging to you?"

Mab did not answer—her eyes were fast on some one coming up the steps. With one bound she broke from Dot's hold and flung herself tempestuously into Uncle Ned's arms, crying out:

"Uncle Ned! I want to go home—I won't ever be Dot's monkey any more."

"No—you shall be mine," Uncle Ned said, swinging her upon his shoulder and walking away in triumph.

Results Tell the Story.

A vast mass of direct, unimpeachable testimony proves beyond any possibility of doubt that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does perfectly and permanently cure diseases caused by impure blood. Its record of cures is unequalled and these cures have often been accomplished after all other preparations had failed.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache.

"Suffer the Little Children."

Children are the flowers of the earth; they speak of an everlasting spring in the old world's heart. They keep the hearts of their elders from being withered with the cold blasts of an unfriendly world. "Trailing clouds of glory do they come." Woe to all who rob the little ones or allow them to be robbed of the blessed privileges of childhood, or who make the pathway hard to their feet or the way to heaven obscure.

Drive out the impurities from your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla and thus avoid that tired, languid feeling and even serious illness.
