We do Half Your Washing Free of Cost

TOU must pay the washer-woman fifteen cents an hour. It is hard-earned money at that. If you do your own washing, or have the servant do it, this steaming, back-breaking, handchapping cold-catching, temper-destroying work will cost you more than 15 cents an hour in the end.

It takes eight hours hard labor to do the average family wash. Eight hours. at 15 cents, costs you $1.20 per week for washing.

This means $62.40 per year, without reckoning fuel for fires, or wear on clothes.

We will save you half of that-or No Pay.

We will send any reliable person our "1900 Junior" Washing Machine on a full month's free trial.

It runs on ball bearings like a bicycle, and it works with motor-springs.

These motor-springs do most of the hard work.

You can sit in a rocking chair and make them do the washing—think of that! We don't want a cent of your money, nor a note, nor a contract, when we ship you the Washer on trial. We even pay all of the freight out of our own pockets, so that you may the machine as much as you like before you agree to buy it.

Use it a full month at our expense. If you don't find it does better washing in half the time—send it back to the railway station, with our address on it—that's all.

We will then pay the freight back, too, without a murmur. But, if the month's test convinces you that our "1900 Junior" Washer actually does 8 hours washing in 4 hours time-does it twice as easy-far better, without wearing the clothes, breaking a button, or tearing a thread of lace, then you must write and tell us so

* * From that time on you must pay us, every week, part of what our machine saves you, say 50 cents per week till the Washer is paid for.

Each "1900 Junior" Washer lasts at least five years, yet a very few months, at 50 cents a week, makes it entirely your own, out of what it saves you on each washing.

Every year our Washer will save you about $31.20 that you would have had to spend for labor of your own, or the labor of others. In five years each machine saves its owner about $156.00. Yet the "1900 Junior" Washer won't cost you a cent, under our plan, because we let it pay for itself.

You need not take our word for that. We let you prove all we say, at our expense, before you decide to buy it on these terms.

Could we risk the freight both ways, with thousands of people, if we did not know our "1900 Junior" Washer would do all we claim for it?

It costs you only the two-cent stamp, on a letter to us, to bring this quick and easy Washer to your door, on a month's trial.

That month's free use of it will save you about $2.00. You thus risk nothing but the postage stamp to prove our claims, and we practically pay you administrations to promote the efficiency of the telephone service. The incident shows in a way the value of commercial organization, for no individuals, however influential, working single-handed could have hoped to achieve so much with a not too progressive State department. - The Miller.

CASEY AT THE BAT.

There was ease in Casey's manner as he stepped into his place,

There was pride in Casey's bearing and a smile on Casey's tace, And when responding to the cheers he lightly doffed his hat, No stranger in the crowd could doubt 'twas Casey at the bat.

Ten thousand eyes were on him as he rubbed his hands with dirt; Five thousand tongues applauded when he wiped them on his shirt; Then while the writhing pitcher ground the ball into his hip, Defiance gleamed in Casey's eye a sneer curled Casey's lip.

And now the leather-covered sphere came hurdling through the air, And Casev stood a-watching it in haughty grandeur there: Close by the sturdy batsman the ball unheeded sped-

"That ain't my style," said Casey.
"Strike one," the umpire said.

From the benches black with people, there went up a muffled roar,

Like the beating of storm waves on a stern and distant shore; "Kill him! kill the umpire!" shouted had not Casey raised his hand.

With a smile of Christian charity great Casey's visage shone, He stilled the rising tumult, he bade the game go on; He signaled to the pitcher and once more the spheroid flew, But Casey still ignored it, and the umpire said, "Strike two."

'Fraud!" cried the maddened thousands and echo answered "fraud!"

But one scornful look from Casey, and the audience was awed;

They saw his face grow stern and cold, they saw his muscles strain, And they knew that Casey would not let that ball go by again.

The sneer is gone from Casey's lip, his teeth are clinched in hate,

He pounds with cruel violence his bat upon the plate; And now the pitcher holds the ball, and now he lets it go, And now the air is shattered by the force of Casey's blow.

Oh, somewhere in this favored land the

The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light,

And somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout, But there is no joy in Boston-mighty Casey has struck out.

POOR SHOWS.

An old and homely phrase some one has said, "You cannot tell by the looks of a toad how far it will jump," thought of this as we looked over Red Deer fair a few days ago. The show was unworthy of the town. Red Deer is-but everybody knows what it isit's a bright clean town, as bright and clean as a new bank note, but the show was no good. Why? That is the problem. It is not because the surrounding country does not produce the goods. Far from it! But somewhere there is in-action, torpor, and dela, and dry bones need a shaking up. We have seen the same thing in other places. Red Deer is not the only town money gone wrong." Whing is said and done a in agricultural resources di ways make a good fair. human element in it and men of the locality movement and push the along the effort will be: up Red Deer! You are success next time!
