

The Passing of a Great Singer

ENRICO CARUSO, the man is no more, but his Utmost Artistic Achievement becomes the Heritage of All Ages.

Enrico Caruso, the famous Metropolitan tenor, died in Naples on August 2, after an illness which lasted several months. His thousands of admirers of every nationality grieve that the man himself has gone back to the everlasting dust from which we spring, but there is comfort in the thought that his utmost achievement will live throughout the succeeding generations.

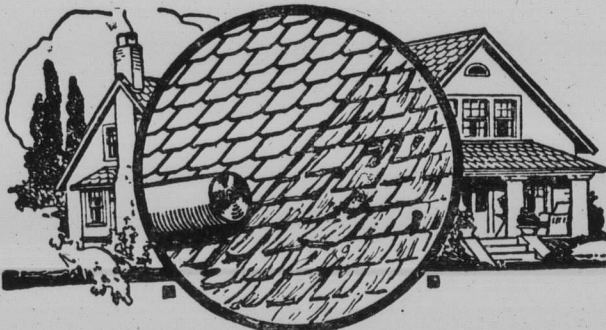

Below are listed a few of his selections made for the Victor company. Every owner of a Victrola should have one or more of these records in his collection.

A convict says he was sent to prison for being dishonest, and yet he is compelled every day to cut out pieces of pasteboard, which are put between the soles of the cheap shoes made there, and palmed off on the innocent public as leather.

One of the peculiarities of the newspaper business is the fact that delinquent subscribers appear to regard the sending out of subscription accounts as simply a mild form of recreation in which the printer indulges when he has nothing else to do.

Drunkenness increased by over 65 per cent in England during last year according to official licensing statistics. The reason after the war period of sobriety was shown by 95,763 convictions compared with 57,948 in 1919. There were only 29,075 convictions in 1918. The convictions of women were 36 per cent more than in 1919, and more than double the total of 1918.

We were a little surprised the other day to find fifty dollars on the road beside a fence at the corner of a prominent farmer's house, and more so to find that it had lain for several weeks unmolested and was beginning to look much worse for exposure. The money was in the shape of a corn bag, which will have to be replaced before another season is cared for better. If we have money that is lost every year, we ought to be running a newspaper.

MILDMAY FALL SHOW SEPTEMBER 19 and 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Voigt leave on Friday to spend a week or ten days with relatives at Detroit.

Maybe the best way to keep a wife from continually nagging her husband for money is to give her some occasionally.

Kincardine ratepayers complained about a 48 mill tax rate last year and elected a new council to bring down the rate. But this year the rate will be 51 mills.

Mr. George Reichen was fined $20 and costs at Hanover last week for two big casks in his cellar containing ninety gallons of liquor, valued at twelve hundred dollars was confiscated. Mr. Reichen will appeal the Magistrate's decision.

A tax rate of 56 mills for this year was struck by the Walkerton council at a special meeting held last week. As last year's rate was 41½ mills, this is an increase of 14½ mills, the highest tax rate in recent history of the town. In the face of the increased estimates brought down this was the lowest possible rate.

After several years service in the Registrar General's branch of the Civil Service in Toronto, Lieut.-Col. A. E. Belcher who is well known in Bruce County has resigned his position and will return to his old home town, Southampton. The Colonel's many old friends will welcome him back to the scenes of his earlier political and municipal controversies.

UNION STOCK MARKETS TORONTO

Receipts of cattle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 3883, which was some 200 head in excess of those on the previous Monday. Quality generally speaking, showed an improvement, with the result that although there was no great change in prices, trade was more active and the undertone of the market was healthier. Offerings of heavy steers were more plentiful, and exporters of live and dressed meats bought fairly freely. Exporters of live cattle bought some 130 head, while local packers absorbed most of the remainder. Top sales were made at $8 per cwt. for a few lots, among which was one load of 19 head averaging over 1800 lbs. Other good sales were made at $7 to $7.35 per cwt. Choice cows were strong at $5 to $5.50, other quotations being about steady. Choice butcher steers sold at $6 to $6.50.

As has been the case on previous markets, recently, choice veal calves were not offered in large quantity, with the result that prices were stronger at $9.50 to $11 per cwt. which is an advance of about $1 per cwt. over last week. Common rough calves were not wanted and were slow of sale.

The run of lambs was heavy and the market tended easier with buyers offering $8 for choice. Sales however were made at $8.50 to $8.75 or about 25c lower than last week. The heavy receipts of lambs was a feature which is expected at this season of the year, and the decline was the natural result of the heavy offerings.

In the hog division packers persisted in not bidding higher than $10.50 fed and watered for selects, refusing to pay more. There were several outsiders operating in the market, however, and these took nearly all the offerings at $11 per cwt., fed and watered. Local packers did not seem to be overly anxious to raise their price as they claim the sale of pork at the moment is not sufficient to justify them paying prices above those offered.

The motorist with glaring headlights is a menace to safety on the road at night.

SALES TAX REMOVED

The minister of customs and excise, Hon. R. W. Wiggmore, has issued the following ruling with regard to the sales tax for job printers. Job printers or newspaper publishers who also do job printing may be classed as retailers when selling exclusively by retail goods made to order of each individual customer. Goods made for stock or sold to customers for resale are held to be subject to the sales tax. Business houses covered by the first paragraph will not be required to secure sales tax licenses nor collect sales tax.
