WINDSOR PRISONERS CAPTURED NEAR BLOMIDON

WINDSOR, June 5—Andrew Lake, of Brookville, Hants County, the prisoner who broke jail here last week, was apprehended yesterday morning by chief Constable J. R. Mosher and Sheriff Curry and brought to Windsor, shackled and put in close confinement.

Lake had been sent up for trial in the supreme court last January for killing a sheep belonging to Major Smith, of Gosport.

He had escaped from the Windsor jail a few days before the court convened. He went down the river in a small boat and was thought to have gotten away on a vessel to the United States, as he is a sailor.

Last Saturday Constable Mosher got wind of the prisoner at his own home, and thinking he would try to escape from there by boat, came to Windsor on Sunday morning early, and accompanied by Sheriff Curry, hired a motor boat belonging to Rafter, Bros., who escorted the officers down the river and into the Minas Basin. The sheriff was armed with a Winchester rifle and Mosher with a revolver.

They sighted their quarry near Blomidon in an open sail boat trying to make land.

The wind was light, so the fast motor boat, under the skillful guidance of the Rafter's, soon overhauled the "windjammer." Lake was ordered by Sheriff Curry to "throw up his hands," and notwithstanding the fact that he would not be taken alive, meekly surrendered. He was handcuffed and shackled, and motored back to Windsor.

MILLVILLE AND VICINITY

June 5th

Mrs. Robert Joudrey of Greenwood is very ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ewing.

Mrs. H. M. Parker has been suffering from sciatic rheumatism but has recovered sufficiently to be able to get around.

Mrs. Enoch Charlton is able to be around the house again.

Mrs. Oulhit T. McNeill and little son were in Grand Pre for a few days last week, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hodgerson.

Mrs. A. A. McNeill received a letter a short time ago from her daughter, Blanche, who has been stationed at Malta since December last, saying she expected to be taken from there before long but, as usual with military affairs, she had no idea where they were to be sent. We wish her a safe trip. The "Asturias" which took them to Malta was torpedoed on March 14, as it was making its return voyage from England. A number of medical officers were lost and one nursing sister.

BERNARD HORSFALL MAKES THE SUPREME SACRIFICE

Word has been received by Mrs. Caleb Rockwell, Upper Dyke, from Mr. A. Horsfall of Oldham, England, that his son Bernard Horsfall had been killed in action on April 20th, 1917. Private B. Horsfall came over from England about four years ago and engaged in farming with Mr. Badham. He was a splendid type of a Christian lad—attended the Bible Class of St. James' Sunday School, Kentville, and was a regular attendant of and subscriber to the church. He enlisted in the 40th Battalion and on arrival in England was attached to the 25th Battalion.

The Rector of St. James' Church made suitable reference to the death of this gallant soldier at the morning service on Sunday last.

A. will be in Kentville next Sunday, June 10th and will lecture in Sealy's Hall at 8 p.m. Subject: "The desire of all Nations Coming Soon." The Bible clearly teaches that this present order of things is passing away and a new order is coming in. The great writers of our day say that the people will never go back to the conditions that existed before the war. Come and hear what the new order of things will be, and how it will become the "desire of all Nations" Seats free. No collection.
