ANOTHER BARGE ASHORE.

SIR JULIAN PAUNCEFOTE.

weathered Cape Hurd, and maybe made Tobermoray harbor, but the finding of one of her boats on Loyal Island, at the mouth of Stokes Bay, is proof that the unfortunate craft made very little northing from the point at which the crew of her consort lost sight of her. It was almost impossible for the steamer to live through the storm in the open lake, and in all probability she went down about the time the Severn was beached.

To-day the fishing tug John Logie of Southampton picked up the body of one of the crew of the Africa off Pike Bay, about ten miles south of this place. Papers found in the pockets of the drowned man's clothing show that he is Edward Forrest of Toronto, second engineer of she Africa, and lately on the steam yacht Cleopatra of that city. The life-preserver he wore helped to keep the body afloat, but death comes soon to the man who is overboard in a storm on Lake Huron at this time of year. The point at which the body was found is some twenty miles south of the neighborhood where the Severn's tow line was let go, indicating that the Africa's people took to the life boats when they knew the vessel was foundering. One boat came ashore empty at Loyal Faland, and there is just a possibility that the other may have reached land somewhere to the north. The country is a wilderness, traversed only by a tew fishermen and Indians, so that, even though the Africa's ment down on Monday night, the people in the second boat may have landed and yet not be hard of for a day or two.

The schooner Severn, ashore six miles north of here, shows very little out of the water, and is so badly broken up that she has been abandoned as a total wreck. Capt. Sliversides of the Severn's for the string it main here till his return, or for further orders.

Mr. Wm. Kerr and Mrs. Christle, the Toronto owners of the boats, were notfied from Slokes Bay of Capt. Sliversides departure for Toronto, and half expected his arrival last night. When he did not arrive they concluded that the distance he would have to travel to reach the r ada. Accompanied by the Earl of Westmeath, who has been in Toronto before, and who is an attache at the Embassy at Washington. Sir Julian arrived in Toronto by the 8 o'clock trainfrom Montreal, and proceeded to the Queen's, making that hotel his headquarters. The Ambassador and the Earl received a few callers in the moraling and lunched at Government House with Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick. In afternoon Sir Julian was driven about the city by his Honor, while the Earl of Westmeath called upon friends whom he met while previously in Toronto. Mr. Goldwin Smith entertained the party at dinner in the evening, the other guests being Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galt, who are cousins of Sir Julian; Mr. and Mrs. Cockburn and Judge Burton. Yestradian tour and left for Niagara Falls, Sir Julian, although he has been sky years at Washington, not having previously had an opportunity of seeing the great cataract.

This is also Sir Julian's first visit to Canada, and he sfated to a representative of The Globe, who called upon him, that he had been delighted with what he had seen of it. The tour has included Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, and finally Toronto, and of all these he spokes with enthusiasm. Toronto beauty and cleanliness came in for especial words of praise from him. His visit to Canada has been regarded as possessing some political significance, and Sir Julian was at some pains to show that this is not the case. His European leave expired last S-ptember, and when he arrived in the United States the Embassy was stationed at Newport, Washington being very hot and malarial until later in the autumn. He capacity so the apparent of the opportunity of seeing Canada, and incidentally remarked that the weather here during his tour, until his visit to Toronto had been all that could be desired. Of course, being in Canada, he availed himself of the opportunity of placing himself au courant with the Canadian side of many questions with which in his capacity as Ambassador he has to tically all the Cabinet Ministers and tiscally all the Ca his leaving the United States was naturally another question which Sir Julian did not care to discuss.

Rumor has of late been busy promoting Sir Julian, the Embassies at St. Petersburg Berlin and Pauls being freely mentioned, one after the other, as destined for him. He was questioned as to this, and contradicted a statement which had been attributed to him that he expected to go to either the Russian or the German capital; both of these posts, he said, have lately been filled. As to the Paris Embassy he nothing at all, it not being vacant, It is the blue gribbon of the dight of the said, a most charming and delightful post. The position of international affairs in the far east care in for a moment's comment. Sir Julian remarking that the missionaries as British subjects should be protected, and that the outrages unquestionably emanated from the Mandarin class. Of the Armenian troubles he said he knew to thing, and was watching the hews. Armenian troubles he said he knew nothing, and was watching the hews-papers for the news from that quart-mothing, and was watching the howell papers for the news from that quarter.

Sir Julian Paunoefote, C. B., G. C. M. G., is third son of the late a Robert Paunoefote of Preston Court. Gloucestershire; was born at Munich. Is Sept. 13, 1828, and was educated at Paris, Geneva, and at Mariborough College. He has had a distinguished career in more lines of activity than one, and has seen service in masy quarters of the globe. After being called to the bar at the Inner Temple in 1852, joining the Oxford circuit and practising as a conveyancer, he was in 1855 appointed Attorney-General of Hong Kong, and in 1869 acked as Chief Justice of the Supreme Cfurt. His services to the colony won him, in 1872, the thanks of the Executive and Legislative Councils, and in 1874 he was Knighted by patent. In 1874 he was Knighted by patent. In 1873 he went to the Leeward Islands as Chief Justice, and in 1874 he became Assistant Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in 1885 need in 1885 he became Permanent Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in 1885 receiving the Grand Cross of the Order. Canadian Apples for Sydney.

Grimsby, Oct. 12.—To-day an important shipment of apples was made from this point to Sydney, N.S.W. The Board of Control of the Ontario Fruit Experiment Stations, through its Sectretary here, is making this experiment in the hope that it may be the means of opening up a good market for Ontario apples just at this season, when the markets of Australia are bare of fruit. One hundred and fifteen cases of beautiful apples, all wrapped in tissue paper and rowed carefully in the boxes, compose the lot. They go by way of Vancouver, on the November steamer, reaching Sydney about December 1, the October boat unfortunately being disabled. The varieties sent forward are Spy, Cranberry, Baldwin and Greening. Mr. J. S. Lake, agent for the Dominion at Sydney, has kindly offered to look after the shipment in the interest of the Ontario fruit-growers. Four persons were burned to death in a ostructive fire at Cincinnati Friday.
