CORNER STONE LAID OF ADDISON'S NEW ANGLICAN CHURCH

A Great Event in the History of the Vil-lage—Ceremony under Auspices of the Orange Order.

Never will Addison forget the cereony of the laying of the corner stone of the new Anglican church, which took place Wednesday last, when over two thousand people gathered to witin the church life of the village. The weather, cool and bright, brought visitors from many points within a wide radius. The shower, about midday, did not dampen the spirits of the happy throng, and the dinner served by the ladies of the Anglican congregation was a great success. Supper was also served, and it is estimated that over eighteen hundred people passed tavorable judgment on the culnary art of the Addison ladies.

After the dinner in the grove, procession was formed by the Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 14, of Addison, visiting brethren and clergymen, which headed by the Lyn Band, proceeded to the church.

The ceremony was conducted by Mr. Evan H. McClean, Grand Master of the Orange Order for Outario East. After the ceremony, speeches were delivered by John Webster, M.P., A. E. Donovan, M.P.P., Warden Fergu-
