Harlem

The stone crusher is at work between Chamberlin's Corners and Chantry. This stretch of road is part of the direct route from Ottawa to Kingston via Smiths Falls, Chantry, Delta and the Bay.

Mr. Peter Nolan, cheese factory inspector, motored through Harlem on Monday, finishing the duties of a fairly successful season for the dairy-men.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rowsome were Sunday visitors of the latter's sister, Mrs. J. C. Earl.

A number from here attended the educational meeting at Forfar. One of them was elected president of the organization.

Our neighbor, Mr. Hull, on the Chantry road, has sold his farm and outdoor equipment to a Westport man, and he has moved to Westport himself.

Mr. Gordon Macdonald has rented the Michael O'Grady farm. Mr. O'Grady is retiring on account of ill-health.

Mr. Joseph O'Grady will occupy his Merrick farm next year.

Mr. Frank Tackaberry, of Plum Hollow, and Mr. Clint Dawson, of Jones' Falls, met with their wives at the home of a mutual friend north of Harlem last week for a social reunion.

A carload of Harlemites motored to Westport to visit at the home of Mr. W. Ripley.

Some of the Reporter readers are complaining that when the Reporter does not reach them until Monday or Tuesday that they lose the Sunday school lesson's exposition, which they consider one of the great features of the journal.

Word Picture of Muskoka Hospital

A WONDERLAND of invigorating pine-scented air, dazzling sunshine, freshly green trees, vivid blue water! No sound, but the song of birds! Set on an elevation—the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, consisting of an infirmary for bed patients, with verandahs overlooking the lake, and many long, low, open-air pavilions, surrounding wide, green lawns. Here, in hospital coats, are the patients, all wonderfully happy. White-clad nurses and doctors pass to and fro. Peace and contentment reign. Convalescents bask on sunny lawns, or lie in shaded hammocks. Broken down through overwork, worry, under-nourishment, they have nothing to do but get well. "It's God's own spot," declared one young man reverently. Proper care, rest, pure air and good food had saved his life, the Samaritan Club providing for a bed-ridden father during the son's absence. "God's own spot"—where a helping hand stretches out to those losing their grip of life! Contributions may be sent to Sir William Gage, 84 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, or to Geo. A. Reid, Treasurer, 223 College Street, Toronto.

Paint Protection vs. DECAY

Any surface that is covered with Glidden Endurance Paint is well covered and will not decay easily, for Glidden protection is good protection and saves the cost of frequent repairs.

Glidden Endurance Paint prevents decay, keeps out moisture from the wood and resists wear from changing weather conditions without scaling or cracking.

Glidden Endurance Paint stays fresh and bright for a long time, wears well and looks well—and because of its durability is the cheapest paint you can buy.

For everything about the home or farm that needs to be painted, stained, enameled, varnished or finished in any way, there is a Glidden product made especially for that purpose.

We have them. Color cards free.
