Local Happenings.

The Mothers' Meeting to have been held Jan. 7th has been postponed on account of the Week of Prayer.

THE ACADIAN begs to acknowledge the receipt of wedding favors from Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey C. Denton.

To Rent.—Furnished house on Gasperau Ave. Possession at once. Apply to C. H. BORDEN, Wolfville.

The pulpit of the Methodist church was occupied on Sunday last by Rev. Joseph Sellar, of Canning, who exchanged with the pastor on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Hibbert will be at home to their friends, on the afternoons of Jan. 7th and 8th and evening of 8th, at their home at Port Williams.

A very pretty calendar issued by the Great West Life Insurance Co., has been handed to THE ACADIAN by Mr. A. M. Wheaton, the local representative. It is a gem of art.

Mrs. Archibald and Miss Rosamond Archibald, who have been boarding in town some weeks past, have taken the jangle place and will reside there for the remainder of the winter.

Miss Rosamond M. Archibald, M. A., Smith College, will tutor in all elementary and college preparatory branches. O'g 3m.

A report having been circulated that Rev. J. D. Spidell, Baptist minister, of Kentville, was obliged to resign his charge on account of ill-feeling through his having taken an interested part in the recent election in the cause of moral reform, a resolution was passed at the last prayer-meeting service commending his efforts in the recent electoral contest and assuring him of the support of his church.

The death of Mr. Freeman Huntley, a life resident of Avonport, took place suddenly at his home there on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 27th. Mr. Huntley died while on his way from the house to the barn, where he was going to milk the cows and do the chores. He was about 84 years of age and leaves a wife and family to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The managers of Evangeline rink put forth a very creditable effort on Christmas which was much appreciated by patrons of the rink. There was good attendance of skaters in the evening, when the rink was very prettily trimmed with flags and Chinese lanterns, etc. A large Christmas tree in the centre of the ice, covered with wreaths of candles, furnished the light for the early part of the evening. This novelty was much appreciated by the young people present. The ice was in good condition, and a very pleasant time was had.

December Weddings.

HIBBERT—CHASE. On Tuesday morning at 8.30 o'clock an interesting and important event took place at Port Williams, when Mary Logan, the third daughter of Bedford Chase, Esq., was united in marriage to Kenneth Travers Hibbert, of Port Williams. The Rev. David Wright, of St. Andrew's church, Wolfville, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Turner and the Rev. Gen. McMillan, of Kentville.

After the ceremony, the wedding breakfast was served and then the wedded couple, amid a shower of confetti, left in order to board the morning express at Kentville. There was quite a large number of guests, but nearly all were relations of the bride and groom. Mr. Calkin, of Kentville, was present. He had been present and drove the bride party when the bride's father and mother were married 25 years ago. The wedding presents were many and costly. THE ACADIAN extends congratulations.

DENTON—HEALERS.

A very pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Heales, State street, when their daughter, Miss Estelle May, was united in marriage to Mr. Kelsey Chipman Denton, of Little River, Digby county. The parlor, beautifully trimmed and decorated for the occasion, presented a very pretty appearance. A large number of invited guests were present. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. E. D. Webster, pastor of the Baptist church. The bride was attired in a costume of white tulle and satin, with train, bridal veil and orange blossoms, and looked very charming. She was attended by her little niece, Miss Oswaldine Heales, as flower girl. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Alice Heales, cousin of the bride. A beautiful display of handsome and costly gifts, attested to the popularity of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Denton left on the afternoon express for Truro, en route for their future home in New Glasgow, where Mr. Denton, occupies the position of principal in the public school. THE ACADIAN and a host of other friends tender congratulations.

The Christmas concert given by the United Baptist Sunday-school on Wednesday evening, the 23rd, was interesting and entertaining. The programme consisted of choruses, recitations, motion exercises, dialogues and a short address by Rev. Dr. Crowell. A vocal solo by Mrs. Arthur Burgess and a reading by Mrs. Emerson Sigmond added much to the pleasure of the evening. The success of the concert was largely due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. (Dr.) Crowell.

Among those-home for the holidays are Misses Nellie Sheffield from Truro, Annie Strong from Massachusetts, Jennie Redden from Quebec, Bessie Redden from Sackville, and Messrs. George Coffin and Kenneth Hennigar from Liverpool, Rupert Rand from Amherst, Seth and Harvey Crowell from Halifax, Pitt Patter from Acadia College, Robie Parker from Parraboro, and Clayton Rooney from Truro.

Mr. William Rand left last week for a trip to Boston and other cities. Mr. C. A. Patrinquin, of Wolfville, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. Archibald Patrinquin, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Loran Benkhorn. Mr. Robert Spicer and his sister, Miss Pearl Spicer, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Halle Bigelow, have returned to their home in Wharston, Cumberland Co. Mr. Fred Northup and daughter, Bertha, and Miss Bessie Hennigar, left on Saturday to spend some time in the various cities of Massachusetts. Mrs. James Smith, accompanied by her little son, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Starbuck. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, of Berwick, Miss Ola Wood and Mr. Charles Porter, of Wolfville, were among the Christmas visitors of last week.

Christmas this year was celebrated by a large number of family reunions in our quiet town. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Eaton had the honor of entertaining probably the oldest guest, in the person of Mrs. Eaton's grandfather, Mr. Chibolm, who has passed his one hundred and second birthday. He was accompanied by his son, Robert, of Wolfville, Mrs. Chibolm and children.

A very pleasing Christmas concert was given by the Methodist Sunday-school in Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday evening. The first part of the programme consisted of a 'saluting of the national colors' and the 'unfurling of the Christian flag,' which is now the flag chosen by the World's Sunday-schools. The second part consisted of vocal solos, duets, choruses, dialogues, recitations, motion songs, violin trios and quartets. The whole programme was well carried out and reflected much credit, not only on the children, but the teachers, Supt. James Hennigar and Mr. N. W. Eaton, who directed the music. A very unique feature of the evening was the exhibition of the Canadian army signal code by Master Brent No thup, who brought his clever performance to a close by wishing the audience by the code a happy new year. The proceeds amounted to over twenty six dollars.

A Masonic service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning. The impressive and scholarly address was given by Rev. E. B. Moore, of Wolfville, to the assembled Masons and a large congregation. Music was furnished by a ladies' quartet and Misses Jennie and Bessie Redden on the violin. The Cuning-Band headed the procession of Masons to and from the church, discoursing sacred music.

Mr. Perley Sellar, of Mt. Allison College, is the guest of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Sellar.

Mr. William Rand left last week for a trip to Boston and other cities.

Mr. C. A. Patrinquin, of Wolfville, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. Archibald Patrinquin, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Loran Benkhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Cunningham, of Antigonish, were visiting in town this week, at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. Robinson.

Mr. Edgar Archibald, of the Agricultural College staff, Truro, spent Christmas at his home in Wolfville, returning to his work on Tuesday morning.

Miss Jean Chase, of Port Williams, who has been attending Mt. Allison Ladies' College, is spending the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase.

Mr. H. H. Geldart, of the class of '07 at Acadia, is visiting in town, at the home of Mr. Walter Mitchell.

Mr. Geldart is now chaplain in a House of Correction at Rutland, Vt.

Mr. N. S. Sanford, editor of the Springhill Standard, with Mrs. Sanford and little daughter, were the guests of Mr. Sanford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Selfridge, for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Stevens returned from their trip to New England on Christmas Eve. During their absence Mr. Stevens purchased a property at Haverhill, Mass., where they expect to go to reside in the near future. Their many friends will regret very much to lose them.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Roy, daughter of Mr. William Roy, of New Minas, and Mr. Howard Forsyth, of Greenwich, is announced, to take place on Jan. 6th at 7.30 p. m. Mr. Forsyth has created a very pretty residence during the past summer preparatory to the event.

Mr. W. B. Foster, of Acadia, is now editor and manager of the Lunenburg Daily news. Mr. Foster as a student took deep interest in newspaperdom. He is a clever writer and will no doubt become a successful journalist. THE ACADIAN wishes him well.

Rev. Lemuel Ackland was ordained associate pastor of the First Baptist church at Amherst on Wednesday last. Mr. Ackland is well known in Wolfville having been a member of the graduating class at Acadia last spring. He is a man of sterling and high qualifications for the position he has been called upon to fill.

Newtonville Notes.

Sleighing is good, our people are improving it.

Mrs. H. W. Brown, of Hillston, recently spent a few days with old friends and neighbors here.

Miss Etile M. Nowlin, teacher at South Tremont, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Nowlin.

Mrs. Edward Caldwell, of New Minas, spent a short time this week visiting friends here.

Mr. Lewis H. Caldwell, of the Normal School, Truro, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Caldwell.

Miss Eva M. Smith, teacher of the public school here, is spending Christmas holidays with her friends in Upper Pictou. The last day of school she gave her pupils a treat of different kinds of candies, and a beautiful Xmas post card to each thus making the little ones happy. A spelling match in which all took part was an interesting feature in the performance.

We are very sorry to lose our pastor, Dr. J. W. Brown, but we wish him success in his new work as Field Secretary for the Sunday-school Association.

Mrs. G. Borden Eldridge, of Yarmouth, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dornan.

At the meeting of the Wolfville Division on Monday evening last the members were favored with an interesting account of temperance work done in Muscatine, Iowa, by the late Rev. Judson Kempton, given by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Kempton.

NAPOLEON SAID

'An army marches on its stomach.' By that he meant that half-starved men are not strong enough to march. And you know that. Half-starved men and women are not strong enough to work, or to play and be happy. You should also know that indigestion means slow starvation. More than half the people who soon tire and become depressed, who feel life a burden and who go listlessly to their work, would find life a daily song if they set their digestion right with Mother Seigel's Syrup—the digestive tonic compounded of roots and herbs. Take it daily after meals and test it yourself.
