A CALGARY MIRACLE.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CASE EVER RECORDED IN THE NORTHWEST.

Miss Lela Cullen is Rescued From What Her Physicians and Friends Thought to be Her Deathbed.

Winipeg Tribune.

Calgary, N. W. T. Oct. 20, 1892—For some time past the residents of this town have been deeply interested in the case of Miss Lela Cullen, a young lady, who had so nearly approached the portals of the great unknown, that her friends despaired of her recovery, and who has now fully, indeed almost miraculously, regained her health and strength. Having read on various occasions in The Tribune the particulars of what appeared to be miraculous cures, your correspondent determined to investigate the case of Miss Cullen, and now sends you the particulars fully believing that you will be justified in giving them the widest publication.

When your correspondent visited the residence of Mrs. Cullen, the mother of the young lady, he was courteously received, and in reply to his enquiries as to whether she would be willing to give the facts of her daughter's wonderful recovery, for publication for the benefit of other sufferers, Mrs. Cullen readily assented. 'My daughter's first illness,' said Mrs. Cullen, 'was in June 1890, when she was taken with the measles. At that time she was seventeen years of age, tall, fine looking, and exceedingly healthy, weighing about 140 pounds. All the family took the measles, and all got over them without trouble, except Lela. Her case from the first baffled all the ordinary remedies used for that disease, and as the measles did not come out, a physician was called in. He administered remedies, but with no better results, and her case seemed to baffle the physician's skill. After a few weeks my daughter began to improve somewhat, but did not regain her former strength, and six weeks after she was first taken ill, her face, neck, and limbs broke out in blotches. The doctor was again called in, and said it was the measles getting out of her system, and that she would soon be all right again. The doctor's statement was not verified however, for not only did my daughter not improve, but she gradually grew worse. Soon after she began to swell, first the feet, then the limbs, breast and face began puffed up. Another doctor was called in and he pronounced her trouble dropsy, resulting from the measles. The doctor attended her all winter, and although he seemed to do all in his power for her, she gradually became weaker, and weaker. She did not eat, and tonics failed to improve her appetite, and she gradually grew weaker, she lost her courage, felt that hope of life was fast slipping away. In the spring, the doctor's medicine having done her no good, was discontinued, and instead he gave her preparations of beef, iron and wine, hypophosphites, eggs, cream, etc. In fact, stimulants of this kind had to be constantly forced upon her to keep her alive and I gave up all hope of her recovery, and in my misery waited for her death. She was now so weak that she could not walk across the floor, and in order to rest her we would lift her into a chair, where she would sit for a short while when we would again place her in bed. She was slowly but surely dying before our eyes, and nothing we could do for her was of avail. She was still puffed up, and nothing the doctor's could do would reduce the swelling. Her limbs would no longer support her and she could only sit up a very short time each day. In this condition she lingered on until August, 1891, some fifteen months after she was first taken ill, and while we were sorrowfully awaiting what seemed the inevitable end, a ray of hope came. I read in a newspaper of a remarkable cure from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and while I feared that I had heard of this wonderful medicine too late, I hoped almost against hope and sent to the headquarters of the company, at Brockville, Ont., for a supply. At this time, Lela was not able to be moved from bed; her weight was reduced to 90 pounds, and her lips were blue. You will thus see how little hope there appeared for her when she began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After she had taken the first box, although there was no visible improvement, she thought they were doing her good, and her spirits began to rise. At the end of the second box I could notice the improvement, and Lela was very hopeful, and felt life was returning to her again. After she had been taking Dr. William's Pink Pills four month, she was able to get up, and by October she was so well that she could superintend work about the house. She still continued taking the Pills, and rapidly recovered all her old time health, strength and spirits. I cannot tell you,' continued Mrs. Cullen 'how deeply grateful I am for the wonderful medicine that saved my daughter's life. You may be sure that from me and mine will always warmly recommend it, as we have every reason to do.'

WHAT A PROMINENT DRUGGIST SAYS.

Your correspondent then called upon Mr. J. G. Templeton, the well-known druggist on Stephen avenue. In reply to an enquiry as to what he could tell me about Dr. Williams Pink Pills, Mr. Templeton replied: 'What can I tell you about Pink Pills? Well I can tell you, they are the most wonderful medicine I ever handled, I had experience with them in Ontario before coming out here, and in all my experience as a druggist, I never knew any medicine have such a wonderful demand, or give such great satisfaction. My experience here has been like my experience in Ontario, all who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speak in their praise, and if I were to tell you how many boxes I am selling here daily, you would be readily excused for being somewhat incredulous. If I am asked to recommend a medicine, I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and my confidence in them has never been misplaced. I have already said the demand for Pink Pills is astonishing, and they invariably give the best satisfaction. I know this to be so from the statements of customers. I have sold here and in Ontario, thousands of boxes, and have no hesitation in recommending them as a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after-effects of la grippe, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, over-work or excesses of any nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

EXECUTION OF CREAM.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Thomas Neil, the murderer of Matilda Clover and several other girls, who paid the penalty of his crime at 9 o'clock this morning, left no written confession.

The corridor of Newgate is perhaps, the most ghastly spot in the world. Under the flagging of this corridor have been buried the bodies of a long succession of notable and obscure criminals. Initials or numbers cut in the walls indicate the more recent sepultures. Earlier inscriptions have been defaced by time and the grime. Probably no criminal was ever executed in London who had a less pitying mob awaiting his extinctions. Neill died amid general execrations. When the black flag was run up on the flagstaff, just as the church clock ceased chiming nine, groans and half-suppressed howls along the ranks of the people who had assembled testified to the state of feeling.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Lawyer A. S. Trude, who 11 years ago acted as attorney for Thomas Neill Cream, the prisoner who was hanged in London Tuesday, related the story of Cream and his crimes. He stated that Cream's escape from Joliet was made by the free use of money. Cream's father managed to collect $5,000 to aid in his son's release, and this was placed in the hands of a well-known politician, who made good use of it. The result was first a commutation and then a release altogether. The crime for which he was sentenced was the murder of Mary Faulkner in Chicago in 1881. At that time Cream was a practising physician on the South side, and during the trial every doctor in the city was against him.

Mr. Trude thinks there was something in the man's nature that qualified his guilt. In regard to this he said: 'The man was possessed of two manias. One was to acquire all possible knowledge of anatomy and surgery. For that he studied medicine and obtained diplomas as a doctor in Germany, France, England, Canada and America. His knowledge on these points was consequently great, and he used it, through me, most effectually to confound the doctor's at the trial. His other mania was a desire to get rid of women who were in a condition in which they were a menace to society. It was the same mania as that of which 'Jack the Ripper,' whoever he may be, is possessed. I studied the man carefully and came to that conclusion myself. Dr. Biuthardt was at one with me on that point, and Judge Gary himself considered Dr. Cream a physchological wonder.

After the trial was over Cream came to see me several times and talked incessantly about these two things human anatomy and his desire to rid the earth of those unfortunate beings. He was a most charming talker, and if he let loose on his pet theories regarding the human structure he would hold his listeners by the hour. That he was mad I have not the least doubt, but his mania was one which it is difficult to classify. There are a dozen people in Chicago who would testify to his homicidal mania myself included. I wonder that more use of the plea of insanity was not mad in his trial in London.

THE BORDEN CASE.

TAUTON, Mass., Nov. 17.—Eavesdroppers have no chance at getting a crumb from the grand jury room where the Borden case is under examination. A deputy sheriff and a stalwart 'policeman guard the door, and people are kept at a proper distance. When witnesses arrive at the court house they are quickly secluded from interviewers, or if one succeeds in eluding the watchful eye of an officer for a moment and talks with an innocent stranger, the thread of conversation is snapped short when the eye of the warden takes in the situation. It is given out that it will take all this week and a portion of next before a report is made to the court. There are hints, however, that there is a lot of new evidence that will clinch the matter of an indictment, and that much of it will come from experts who did not show their hand at the preliminary examination.

THE HALIFAX CONFERENCE.

HALIFAX, Nov 15.—After being a week in session the conference between the members of the Canadian and Newfoundland Governments came to an end to night, when the report of the proceedings and agreements reached was formally signed. The conference issued the following official statement.

The conference on questions pending between Newfoundland and Canada terminated at 6 o'clock today. The proceedings throughout were of a harmonious character and it is hoped and expected by the delegates that good results will follow the interchange of views and the friendly discussions which have taken place. It has been deemed best that the proceedings shall not be given to the public until they shall have been laid before the Governments of the countries, and until the governments approve of their being made known.

From unofficial sources your correspondent learns that the conference agreed upon a united line of action to be pursued in regard to continuing the modus vivendi license and the supply of bait to United States vessels. The influence of the Dominion Government is to be used in urging the Imperial Government to effect an early settlement with France in regard to his territory and fishing rights on the west coast of Newfoundland.

The question of consideration was the last one considered. Sir William Whiteway and Mr. Bond favor confederation and regard it purely as a question of terms. Mr. Harvey is irrevocably opposed to Union with Canada. A basis of terms of union was agreed upon which the Newfoundland delegates will submit to their Government, and, if accepted by them, the question will be submitted to a plebiscite of the people. The Newfoundlanders want a per capita allowence equal to their proportion of the dominion debt, which would be equal to $9,000,000 and wants the Dominion to undertake the completion of the railway across the island to Hale's bay.

FREE CRAYON PORTRAITS & FRAMES

To all our Subscribers for 1892.

We, the publishers of "North American Homes," in order to increase the circulation of our journal throughout the United States and Canada, will spend this year over one hundred thousand dollars among our new subscribers in the form of an artistic Crayon Portrait and a handsome frame (as per cut below), to be given free of charge for every new subscriber to "North American Homes." Our family journal is a monthly publication consisting of 16 pages, filled with the best literature of the day, by some of the best authors, and is worthy of the great expense we are doing for it. Eight years ago the New York World had only about 15,000 daily circulation; to-day it has over 350,000. This was obtained by judicious advertisement and a lavish expenditure of money. What the proprietor of the N. Y. World has accomplished we feel confident of doing ourselves. We have a large capital to draw upon, and the handsome premium we are giving you will certainly give us the largest circulation of any paper in the world. The money we are spending now among our subscribers will soon come back to us in increased circulation and advertisements. The Crayon Portrait we will have made for you will be executed by the largest association of artists in this city. Their work is among the finest made, and we guarantee you an artistic portrait and a perfect likeness to the original. There is nothing more useful as well as ornamental than a handsome framed Crayon Portrait of yourself or any member of your family; therefore this is a chance in a lifetime to get one already framed and ready to hang in your parlor absolutely free of charge.

READ THE FOLLOWING GRAND 30 DAYS' OFFER:

Send us $1.50, price for one year subscription to "North American Homes," and send us also a photograph, tintype or daguerreotype of yourself or any member of your family, living or dead, and we will make you from same an artistic half life size Crayon Portrait, and put the Portrait in a good substantial gilt or bronze frame (2 ½ inch moulding) absolutely free of charge; will also furnish you a genuine French glass, boxing and packing same free of expense. Cut this out and send it with your photograph at once, also your subscription which you can remit by Draft, P.
