

TWO FATALLY SHOT BY BOOZY TRIO.

Man Convicted of Second Degree Murder is Not Satisfied.

Non-Unionist Shoots Striker Down in Streets of Hornell.

York, Pa., Nov. 19.—The finding of two unconscious youths in a little graveyard near Pleasantville, this county, at daybreak this morning disclosed what will probably prove a double murder.

Wanted to Hang. New York, Nov. 19.—Frank H. Warner was convicted to-night of murder in the second degree for killing Esther C. Norling on July 23rd, last.

The victims of the tragedy were William and Curvin Hoover, aged 17 and 15 years, sons of Charles Hoover, a farmer residing about three miles from the city.

Warner, who had known Miss Norling for some years, went to the store in which she was employed in Forty-second street, and shot her without warning.

The two Hoover boys had been on their way home from Pleasantville. It was testified at the inquest that they were unarmed and had not been drinking.

Hornell, Nov. 19.—James Doyle a striking machinist, was shot and seriously injured by Anton Lafar, a non-union laborer, in Lotus street before the Osborne Hotel late last night.

KING'S PHYSICIAN EXAMINES CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN.

Ordered Complete Change and Rest—May Retire Next Year.

London, Nov. 19.—Sir Thomas Barlow, physician to King Edward's household, made a lengthy examination of Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, at Downing street to-day, and an official announcement was subsequently issued to the effect that the patient's condition was satisfactory, but that in view of the approaching session of Parliament it is necessary that he should have some weeks' complete change and rest.

ble at Bristol was a signal that his political activities have overtaxed his physical energies. It would be no surprise to the friends of the Premier, who is 71 years old, if much of his parliamentary work during the coming session is delegated to his colleagues in the Cabinet, and the rumors of his possible retirement next year from the leadership of the Liberal party are revived, as in view of his onslaught on the House of Lords, it is not thought likely that he will care to accept a peerage and continue in the leadership amid the less strenuous surroundings prevailing in the hereditary House of Parliament.

SELLING VENISON.

Charge Against a City Butcher in Police Court.

Outside the purse snatching and jewelry-robbing cases Police Court did not amount to much this morning. Fred J. Porteous was charged with selling venison from his butcher store without the necessary license.

as he thought the boys should not have been shoving in the line up. Alex. Griffin, Burlington street, and Pat Lynch, Napier street, were assessed $5 each for being disorderly. Griffin's offence was one of long standing and was connected with a row at Stuart and James streets some weeks ago. Lynch would not move on when told to by Constable Yaxley last night.

Lacked Courage

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—A well-dressed woman, about 18, was found in a dying condition to-day at the station of the Tsarskoe-Selo Railroad. She confessed to having been selected to execute an important terrorist pact, but her courage failed, and she took poison. The woman has not been identified.

THAW'S SISTER.

Say the Earl of Yarmouth May Ask Divorce From Her.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—That the Earl of Yarmouth is preparing to enter suit for divorce from his wife, Alice, sister of Harry K. Thaw, is the word brought from London by Ida Veronica Simonon, the "missing link" in the chain of Thaw trial witnesses, who was supposed to know much about the Thaw family. This bears out the story of some weeks ago, when copies of all records on the Yarmouth wedding here were hastily made and sent to England at the request of barristers there.

STEAMER ASHORE.

New York, Nov. 19.—The steamer Regulus, bound from Louisiana, N. S. for New York, with lumber, came ashore during the night in the fog and ran near the Belleport life saving station, 20 miles east of Fire Island. Capt. Wakeham is in command of the vessel, which has a crew of 18 men.

CAN OF GASOLINE

Used to Set Fire to Government Buildings at Saratoga.

Santiago, Cuba, Nov. 19.—An attempt was made here yesterday to set fire to the Government headquarters. A man entered the Civil Government Department of the palace carrying a large can of gasoline. As he was passing the offices of the governor he threw the can to the floor and then slashing it open with a knife applied a lighted match to the liquid. Flames flared up and the united efforts of the police at the palace, a number of officials and others served eventually to put out the fire. Considerable furniture and draperies were burned and the building itself sustained some damage.

PLAINS OF ABRAHAM

Planning to Make Them a National Park.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 19.—(Special).—Sir Frederick Borden and General Lake returned at noon to-day from their visit to Gettysburg, to where they were invited to look over the National Park. The idea of the visit was to obtain some information which might prove serviceable in carrying out the proposition to make the Plains of Abraham a national park, in this way following the example of the United States which has made some of its battlefields memorial parks. Sir Frederick and General Lake stayed over a day or two in Boston.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Affidavits as to Genuineness of Death of the Duke.

Detective William Huckle is not the only person in Hamilton who knows something about the Druce case, on the outcome of which depends the possession of the estates and the title of the Duke of Portland. Nor are the affidavits which he has drawn up and sworn to the only ones which will be sent to London to be used in the perjury case at the Marylebone Police Court.

J. G. PRITCHETT ON THE STAND.

Practised Ballot Snatching Just Like the Tories.

Taught Deputies to Kiss Their Thumbs When Sworn.

To-day's Evidence in the London Conspiracy Case.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—(Special).—This morning in the London election conspiracy case John G. Pritchett was again on the stand. The counsel for the defence conducted the cross-examination. He admitted that as a worker for the Government then in power he did ballot switching and took false oaths regarding his duty. Nothing new was added to Mr. Pritchett's sworn story, except that Mr. Johnston made numerous moral comments upon his actions. Only one of the defendants, namely, John O'Gorman, figured in the evidence, but the witness also mentioned Alex. Smith, W. T. R. Preston and Vance.

At the opening of the session, Mr. E. F. Johnston began his cross-examination. Mr. Pritchett said that he had been a prominent Liberal and gave a great deal of time to the work.

Were you working on your own account? A—No.

But you considered bribery an old-fashioned method? A—Yes.

The witness said that he had not invented the method for switching ballots, nor had he introduced the scheme into Canada. Mr. John O'Gorman gave him the information which he did not invent. Pritchett said that he did not invent the "slipping of ballots," which he described as the calling of the wrong vote. He learned the switching from O'Gorman in West Huron.

What got you into this class of things? A—Going with party workers. What was your motive? A—For the party.

When pressed further, the witness said that he did his work for the party and for John O'Gorman and his money.

Mr. Johnston then said that he wished to find Pritchett's mental position regarding his acts. The witness admitted that he frequently travelled under the name "John Garrett," but did not regard that as a shady transaction. He also said that he got deputies to kiss their thumb so as to avoid the danger of prosecution.

The counsel for the defense was asking questions as to the old-fashioned methods of bribery, when the witness, who sparred all through the cross-examination, amused the court by the following statement regarding Mr. Johnston's method of questioning:

"Let me make my answers, if you will say that I swore to it?"

Mr. Johnston and Pritchett were discussing the switching of ballots during their meetings at the Walker House. Alex. Smith, the Liberal organizer, knew what they were talking about, so said the witness. He had dealings with Vance and Preston also, though he never corresponded with any of them.

The Crown had a number of witnesses to call who had sold their votes. William Trudell, a moulder, had an interview with Mulloy before the election of 1905, and agreed to vote Liberal for $10. A man by the name of Cox held the cash. Trudell voted Conservative and never received the money.

Judge Wacheater refused to admit as evidence the statement made by Cox when Trudell applied for the cash.

George McCoy had an interview with Mulloy and Collins during the same election. He sold his vote for $10, and Collins afterwards paid him $8, having deducted $2 as an agent's fee.

GROUND TO DEATH.

Thirteen-Year-Old Youth Slips Under Caboose Wheels.

Ithaca, Nov. 19.—Another accident was added to the already long list along the Lehigh Valley's tracks about Ithaca to-day. Marion Trout, an Italian youth, 13 years old, was riding on a caboose near the inlet station about half-past four this afternoon when he slipped and fell beneath the wheels. Surgeon Brown, of the Lehigh at this point, removed his crushed left leg at the knee and put splints on his broken left arm. Trout will not live through the night.

DOINGS AT BRITANNIA.

A large crowd was present last evening at this rink, and a most enjoyable two and a half hours were spent in watching the graceful skaters. The selection of gentlemen to skate for the gold on Friday night were: J. Porter and M. Peters. The judges were G. Beamer, J. Lomas and W. Harris.

A $10,000 TIP.

New York, Nov. 19.—A Times cable from London says: Before leaving Windsor Castle yesterday for Highcliff Castle, Emperor William left no less a sum than $10,000 to be divided as tips among the servants at the castle, the gamekeepers and stable attendants. On his previous visit to Windsor in 1891 the imperial tip was only $2,500.

The Man In Overalls

But has Whitney promised to give us that College? If he did, what did he say? Either of the two Tory organs may answer.

No large city in this country or the States, as far as I know, elects its aldermen on the at-large plan. Do you know of any?

That Terminal Station is certainly a credit to the city. Up-to-date in every respect.

The Farrar organ plays the same tune too often. People are getting tired of the continual racket.

Are you buying them? The gamblers shouldn't believe everything they hear. Raids are not usually advertised.

Everything seems to be coming Mr. Sealey's way. Nobody has any kick.

This is fine shopping weather. The only change the City Engineer would suggest in connection with his department is that his salary be increased. (Applause and laughter).

Car's some of my contemporaries boom themselves by offering a gold watch or something to the subscriber who guesses the name of the new detective?

The Spec. might leave Jack Counsell alone until he gets back to earth.

Inspector Hughes says Hamilton should get the Technical College, and I am expected to accept that as evidence that we are to get it.

And who laughed at and hounded Hemphill until he gave up his job? Yes, Zim, is Hamilton's favorite son.

The "Creation" is creating a good deal of talk. Have you heard the chorus? The fact that Ald. Farrar sometimes talks one way and votes another may merely be because of a desire on his part to be a good fellow all round.

I miss my guess if Toronto doesn't try to make Whitney believe that it is in some way different from the other cities—so different that the Legislature should pay the $2,000,000 for the installation of its city power plant.

If it is good to elect the aldermen at large, why not elect the members of Parliament and Legislature by the same plan?

The winter drownings have already begun. Beware of thin ice and boilers.

Talk about weeds, why the bottom of the Coal Oil Inlet is full of them!

Some people think that the west end of the city is dead. But if they went up to the cemetery they would see how fast it is growing.

But when the House meets will Whitney tell MacKay that he talks "trav-dle?"

We shouldn't complain. Hamilton's got a factory inspection.

Yes "The Man in the Moon" should know that it is the same old moon all the same.

The Dundas Star has been under a cloud since Sealey was selected. Doesn't even twinkle.

Did Whitney really promise to give us the College? Honest, now, did he?

SAY THAT ANDERSON ADMITTED SNATCHING

Former Long Distance Runner Committed For Trial on Two Charges This Morning.

Doyle, Young and the Campbells Were Also Committed on Theft Charges.

The charges of housebreaking and theft against Harry Quackenbush, Walter Hildreth, alias Soldier Doyle, George Young, Howard Campbell and John Campbell drew a large crowd this morning, about half of which was all that could be squeezed into the old King William street courtroom.

Robert Nichol, Mountain Top, foreman at the City Quarry, had known Anderson for four or five years. He met him several times in the vicinity of the place where the purse was snatched. Prisoner was committed on this charge also.

The two alleged purse snatchers were also a good drawing card, and the court business spun out for hours. Harry Quackenbush was first indicted, the charge being housebreaking and theft alleged to have taken place on April 11 last. Andrew Linklater was the complainant.

Abraham Davis, the man alleged to have worn the blue and white sweater, and to have been Anderson's pal, was remanded till to-morrow. The police gave as a reason that they were not ready to proceed.

Mrs. Linklater stated that on April 11 she left the house at 2 o'clock and locked it up. When she returned at 6 o'clock the house was topsy turvy and a lot of jewellery missing.

Abraham Davis, the man alleged to have worn the blue and white sweater, and to have been Anderson's pal, was remanded till to-morrow. The police gave as a reason that they were not ready to proceed.

A lot of the missing property was shown to her by Crown Attorney Washington, which she described beforehand and recognized immediately. Her husband corroborated her testimony.

Mrs. Blumenthal, pawnbroker, swore that the rest of the articles came into her possession on April 11, in exchange for 50c. She identified the prisoner as the man who sold them.

Abraham Davis, the man alleged to have worn the blue and white sweater, and to have been Anderson's pal, was remanded till to-morrow. The police gave as a reason that they were not ready to proceed.

Detective John Miller said he had recovered these goods on April 11 last at the place of the above mentioned witnesses.

Abraham Davis, the man alleged to have worn the blue and white sweater, and to have been Anderson's pal, was remanded till to-morrow. The police gave as a reason that they were not ready to proceed.

CONFESSED TO WIDOW HE MURDERED HER HUSBAND.

Braves Scandal to Place Noose Around Neck of Her Husband's Slayer.

Houquiam, Wash., Nov. 19.—That she might bring to justice the murderer of her husband, Mrs. Ethel Todd permitted Ralph Steele, who was arrested yesterday for the homicide, to make love to her until she finally wrung from his lips a confession of his crime, although to do so made her the prey to scandal. This dramatic denouement developed to-day, when the officers divulged a part of the evidence on which they base the charge of murder which they have lodged against Herbert Norman, otherwise known as Ralph Steele.

Steele, who hung around the Todd home all day, and seemed anxious to see the body. From the moment of the discovery of the crime, the officers suspected him because of a story that had floated into town from the logging camps where the men worked.

On the day of the burial of Todd, Steele attended the funeral and viewed the remains without a quiver of a lip. By no act did he betray himself while he was being shadowed by the detectives, and it was not until the police officials publicly exposed the plot that he began to grow careless. That was done to throw him off his guard, and it worked well.

Mrs. Todd then began to play her part. Steele was infatuated with her, and, as soon as he was exonerated, he began to arrange meetings. Posted by the officials, she went to meet him. Signals were arranged, and the clandestine meetings were always held within earshot of Marshal McKenney. It is alleged that Mrs. Todd finally got the confidence of Steele and that he revealed his secret, the revelation being accompanied by tears and protestations of strong love.

Frank Todd was murdered in his own woodshed on the night of August 31st last, by someone familiar with his habits and the surrounding property. When the body was discovered the next morning, a large crowd gathered, among which
