THE CHARLOTTETOWN HERALD

WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1896.

WEEKS & CO.

May 26, 1896.

Have drawn hundreds of new customers to the People's apparently in his usual health when he left the house to go to the field to plough. He was upwards of 60 years of age, and leaves a wife and family and many relatives to mourn.—Ex. Cellent majesty, and we are protect to bear testimony that in the highest position in this Province you have manifested your characteristic zeal and brought to bear your well-known talent and energy for the bettering of all there a the community. You will selling rapidly our new stock pants for $1.00, we have every price you can name, and so

English and American make is filling up daily, and such bargains. This department is an eye-opener, no one can, and no one will attempt to undersell us. We are the all men, at all times. No party triumph, do not see on the counter, why it is no o worldly consideration, no ties of trouble to show goods." But what a ssociation can excuse an act of in- terrible and, indeed, ridiculous spec-† C. O'BRIEN, Rome, May 6th., 1896.

lew

an-

ess

ng

and

and

sum-

as

the

the

re

in

cus-

com-

UR-

and

our

don't

A Curitus Melange (Mail and Empire.)

At Westmount, near, Montreal, the other day, Mr. Laurier declared that as soon as he reached office he would despatch a commission to England to get preferential trade. Speaking at tion on the tariff question is almost as Valleyfield two weeks before this the ridiculous as that upon the school queshon. gentleman asserted that what he is after is unrestricted reciprocity, and in mind the Liberal leaders say their that immediately he becomes Premier party has done wrong in Manitoba, and ton to get it. When at Winnipeg Mr. Laurier announced that free trade is so as to raise a revenue. Dealing with ac element of nonsense in the trade and They will keep, however. the tariff issue at Montreal soon after school positions there is a serious side the tariff issue at Montreal soon after this, the leader asserted that he would our chances as regards our industries a revenue tariff, and raw material, such Langelier, who (see Toronto Globe) as coal and iron, would be made free. Mr. Longley, one of the Nova Scotia leaders, or in disaster to the country. revenue tariff. Sir Oliver Mowat has I trust, Sir, you were mistaken in read all the various statements, and he supposing any Catholics in Halifax tells Mr. Laurier that, of course, protec-"lent countenance to an appeal to anti- tion is wrong, but he is glad to know Catholic prejudice." Some of them, that that gentleman is not going to be indeed, may dislike the present Govern- revolutionary in his fiscal reforms. ment, and might on a question of trade Everything is to be done gradually unor other policy, bitterly oppose it; but til finally the goal is reached, raw ma- the Gloucester schooner result limit while fishing within the three-mile limit in common with their non-Catholic terial, which, as we know, comes large- Monday, off Escombe, and brought her fellow-citizens who are not blinded by ly from the United States, being refanaticism, they will surely be on the lieved of taxation as a preliminary side of justice, even should they doubt move. Mr. G. W. Ross asserts that we the motive of the Government in acting justly. We are to look at acts, not the United States, and that we discrim-

French Ministers, Messre. Angers, Taillon and Desjardins, all of whom are running in counties represented in the last Parlia-ment by Grits. Desjardins stands in Richelieu, Taillon in Veroheres and Cham-bly, and Angers in Quebec centre. WE regret to hear that Mr. Nell Mo-Callum, one of the most respected residents of Brackley Point Road, died quite sudden ly Monday afternoon whilst ploughing in one of his fields. Mr. McCallum was apparently in his usual health when he left the house to go to the field to plough. many important material interests as a consequence entrasted to your care. We need only refer to the services rendered on important missions to Washington and London, not to speak of inter-provincial delegations in colonial days. To know that those important matters were in your charge was to engender the utmost confidence here, where you were best known, that our every interest would be safely guarded. To-day, then, besides our feelings to-wards you personally, we, as becomes loyal subjects, sainte you as the fitting representative of our Queen's most ex-cellent majesty, and we are proud to bear testimony that in the highest

