A ROYAL salute was fired from Fort Edward on Monday at noon in honor of the Queen's Birthday. All hail to the "Sea King's Daughter."

JOHN A. McCarthy was sentenced at Amherst on Friday to fifteen years in Dorchester Penitentiary for manslaughter, by Judge Morse, for being the cause of the death of Charles McCauley at Peggish, on October 31st, Hallow E'en.

THE schooner Jas. W., of Prince Edward Island from Barbados for Charlottetown during heavy weather lost the mast overboard and was obliged to put back. The mate's name was Neil McCauley. He was a son of the late Capt. Donald Neil Marchion of Point Prim and a cousin of Capt. Marchion of the James W.

WHILE Mr. William Delaney, of North Tigon, was engaged in chopping in the woods on Thursday, a tree lodged the butt coming back taking him on the leg, breaking it and mangle the limb terribly between the ankle and knee. He was conveyed to his home by a companion who fortunately happened to be with him and the limb was set by Dr. Robertson of Crapaud. He is reported to be doing very well, but it will be some time before he will be able to move about.

Mrs. Capt. Finlayson, of Summerside, on Thursday morning received the sad news that her husband Capt. Finlayson first officer of the barque Stillwater was drowned at sea during a heavy storm on a voyage from Puget Sound to East London, South Africa, which occupied 125 days. No particulars have been received. The blow is a heavy one to Mrs. Finlayson, she having only a year ago buried her eldest daughter. Capt. Finlayson was a native of Point Prim and was about 50 years of age. He had purposed spending Christmas at home with his wife and only daughter.

FROM Mr. John McEachern, Insurance Agent, Queen Street, we have received the first calendar for 1902. One is issued by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York and has engraved upon it a fac-simile of a life insurance policy as issued by that company. The other is issued by the Royal Life Insurance Co. of Liverpool and contains a splendid engraving in colors of a blue-jacket reclining on a gun, upon which are engraved the letters "H. M. S. Royal." In the background two big warships loom up, and underneath is the company's well-known motto, "We Hold These Safe." Many thanks.

MR. A. Callaghan of the Registry office shipped to Ottawa on Friday twenty-four samples of sugar beet for analysis to Prof. Shutt of the Experimental Farm. The vegetables were grown on different parts of the Island, and were splendid specimens, some of them measuring 15 inches in length and 14 in circumference. If the analysis shows the beets to be rich in sugar, it will settle the question as to whether our Island soil is adapted to the growing of the sugar beet or not. The Patriot states that if the result is satisfactory a wealthy company has expressed its willingness to erect a factory in this Province, which will give employment to about 300 men.

A DREADFUL accident occurred at Southport on Thanksgiving Day, by which George Bowdridge, aged 18 years, son of Capt. S. Bowdridge, of the schooner Merion, of Sydney, lost his life. The schooner was loading produce for Gloucester Bay, and the captain's two sons, George and Thomas were employed at the work. A load of pressed hay arrived at the wharf and George climbed on the truck to assist in unloading it. In some way he slipped and fell to the wharf, displacing several bundles of hay, one of which struck him just below the head on the base of the neck, rupturing a blood vessel, causing almost instantaneous death. The boy's father is deeply grief-stricken over the terrible accident and called for Sydney the following day with the boy's body on board.

NEWS reached Montreal on Thursday from Gilmour and Houston's lumber camp at Bark Lake, on the Gatineau, of the awful death of a lumberman named Edward Connor, 18 years of age. Connor came into camp as usual on Tuesday evening, leaving his axe standing by the stump of the last tree he had felled. During the course of the evening he came to the conclusion that the axe required grinding, and accompanied by another man set out to fetch it. A short distance from the spot where Connor had left the axe his companion concluded not to go any further, agreeing to wait until Connor returned. The latter had been gone but a short time when the companion heard the howling of wolves. In dismay he set started on the run for the camp, forgetting all about Connor. When he reached the camp, some distance off, a number of men started out to look for Connor. They were too late. A lot of bones scattered around, rage which had once formed his clothing and his boots were all that remained of the young man.

MANY fatal accidents occurred in the Provinces on Thanksgiving Day and probably none more and occurred than the one by which Percy Van der Stede, 15 years of age, son of Mr. Robert Van der Stede, Tax Collector of this City, lost his life. The morning a party of five left Charlottetown in a sailboat to spend the day shooting at McNally's Island, East River. After landing on the island the members of the party took different directions, Percy and his cousin Willie, a youth of 18 years, remaining together. Soon a covey of partridges were started and Percy fired, but missed. Willie who was about fifteen feet behind him, hurriedly raised his gun to fire when the hammer unexpectedly dropped and Percy received the charge in the back of the head. The cries of Willie for assistance soon brought the other members of the party to the scene and when it arrived they found the unfortunate lad lying on the ground partially conscious. On seeing his father who was one of the party, the dying boy said, "Hold your hands tightly on my head," and on doing so, the boy turned over on his side and the terrible nature of the wound was then revealed. A stretcher was hastily constructed and he was carried to the boat, a distance of about a mile. After about an hour's sail Mount Stewart was reached and the unfortunate lad conveyed to the office of Mr. S. C. Clarke, where he died about five minutes after his arrival. The remains were brought to the city by the evening train and his funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, being very largely attended. A father, mother, two brothers and one sister are left to mourn his untimely end.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

THERE are over thirty cases of smallpox at present in Montreal.

DALHOUSIE College defeated Sydney at football on Thanksgiving 17 to 0.

THREE little girls, the daughters of Mrs. Lillian Lafford, were drowned in the pond at St. Peter's, C. B., on Sunday. They were sliding when the ice gave way.

JEREMIAH Collins, while under the influence of liquor, fell from a bridge 30 feet high in St. John, N. B. on Monday evening striking his head on a rail. Death ensued after a few hours.

CAPT. Bernier has gone to Europe to the interests of his North Pole expedition. He has raised $20,000 and the federal government has promised him $30,000 if he raises an equal amount.

THE Hartford Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has withdrawn from Sydney, owing to the great liability of risks in the town. It will likely resume when the town provides an adequate fire service.

A TERRIBLE accident occurred at Parrboro, N. S., on Friday. A young man named Anderson, son of Robert Anderson, pilot, was jammed between two vessels at the coal wharf, while lowering a small boat and both hips broken.

AN agreement has been reached between Denmark and the United States for the sale of the Danish West Indies. The treaty will probably be signed this week at Washington. The price agreed upon is between four and five million dollars.

MONTREAL has another civil scandal. At the council meeting on Monday a letter was read from Henri Lemire, notary public, charging Sanitary Engineer Dove with paying several thousand dollars for appointment to his position. The letter was accompanied by a sworn statement.

OTTAWA COLLEGE won the football championship of Canada on Saturday, defeating the Toronto Argonauts 18 to 3, in the play-off of the previous Saturday's tie. Two thousand people saw the game, which was a splendid exhibition, far from being as one-sided as the score would indicate, ten of the college points being due to goal kicks.

JAMES SPICER shot and killed John Spicer at Spencer's Island, near Parrboro, N. S., on Saturday. He then came back and told what he had done, stating that the shooting was in self defence, as John had threatened him with an axe. The two men have had frequent quarrels and James' story is generally believed. Both have families. They are not related to each other.

HON. Geo. E. Foster spoke on prohibition at the temperance meeting in Massey hall Friday. Speaking of the recent decision he said that what politicians would do time would tell. It would show the metal of which temperance men were made. If they secured prohibition and did not enforce it they could bid good-bye to prohibition for many years. That was the position which confronted the temperance people.

THANKSGIVING DAY was a day of accidents. A man named Dunham was accidentally shot in the arm at Westport, near Dorchester, N. B., while out hunting. The arm had to be amputated. While rabbit shooting at Chatham, N. B., Arthur Williamson was also shot in the arm by a companion. John McRae, a prominent citizen of Ottawa, while cleaning a pistol accidentally shot and killed himself, the bullet entering his chin.

THE Montreal Times says: A commercial man, who travels through four provinces, and who has just returned from a trip to P. E. Island, says there are more intoxicated people to be seen on the streets of Charlottetown than any town or city that he visits. He says it was especially disgraceful to see the depravity among boys in this respect. Charlottetown evidently wants more legislation. It only has the Scotch Act and the prohibition law in force, there at the present time.

A FATAL shooting accident, somewhat similar to that in which Percy Van der Stede lost his life occurred at Halifax on the day previous. Stephen Doyle, caretaker of Mount Olivet Cemetery was doing his usual work about the cemetery when his cousin, David Kline, came along with a gun in his hand looking for partridges and stopped to chat with Doyle. The latter had seen some partridges and offered to point out where they had alighted to Kline. The two were started off for the place, with Doyle a few feet in advance, when Kline's foot caught in a root and he tripped; the weapon exploded the shot striking Doyle in the hip and entering the abdomen, so that he died shortly afterwards.

ANOTHER case of smallpox is reported from Georgetown on board the schooner Robt Hood, Capt. Malone, of Gloucester. The sick man is being attended by the schooner's cook. The malady is a mild form. The vessel has moved out to the quarantine ground and will remain there until further notice. The captain is unwilling to leave port, and wants the patient landed. He says he is willing to have the vessel land the patient at the Marine Hospital at Keppoch provided the schooner be towed there and back. Three men belonging to Georgetown who were assisting in loading the vessel have been quarantined in their homes there. The Georgetown Board of Health wired to Ottawa for instructions and ordered the vessel and the houses of the three men who had been on board last night to be flagged.

AN Ottawa despatch says: The Government have decided to call the new force for South Africa the Canadian Yeomanry, a name which seems to please nobody. The force will consist of four companies of 141 men each. The term of service is 12 months or the duration of the war. No man under 20 or over 40 will be taken. The standard not to be under 5 feet 6 inches, not to weigh more than 185 lbs., the chest measure not less than 34 inches. Preference will be given to men who have served in South Africa. Recruiting will be carried out at many points in the Northwest and British Columbia. P. E. Island's quota for this force will be twelve men; Lieut.-Col. Moore is the recruiting officer and Major H. D. Johnson medical officer. Halifax sends 38 men, St. John 30 and Fredericton 25. Col. Evans will be in command and Major Macleod second in command. Later advices indicate the same may be changed.
