Theatrical People Here

By the shore train which arrived last night Manager Rosskan and the lady and gentlemen members of the Chicago Stock Co. arrived. Those people came down the shore from Channel on the S. S. Glencoe. Speaking to a Telegram representative on his arrival here last night Mr. Rosskan expressed the pleasure the trip afforded the members of the company. The weather which was calm and beautiful enabled all to be on deck and to take in the coast line scenery with which they were delighted. They also speak highly of the accommodation and attendance on the steamers Bruce and Glencoe. It was Mr. Philip Hanley who while in New York negotiated with Manager Rosskan for the bringing of this excellent theatrical combine to St. John's.

A Handsome Present.

Monday morning Conductor John Kelly, of the Reid Nfld. Co., was the recipient of a handsome solid gold watch chain and pendant from Mr. W. H. Taylor, who recently arrived from London. Conductor Kelly is very popular with all who travel over the railway, and Mr. Taylor's present was a reminder to the conductor for his geniality and kindness to the donor. Mr. Kelly is delighted with this handsome present.

Banking Schooner Lost

We learn from Mr. Lake, who arrived here by last night's train from Fortune Bay, that one of the bankers of Stone's Cove while running from that harbor a couple of days ago went ashore at Brunette Island and became a total wreck. She had 400 qts. of fish on board after coming off the Banks, and this will be likely lost also. We hear that the vessel is insured but the fish, of course, is not. The accident happened during a dense fog. The captain and crew saved all their effects.

Furious Driving.

It would be no harm if the police in the West End would watch some of the cabs who drive to the railway station. Last night one of them with several men on board, who sang to the top of their voices, drove down the Promenade at breakneck speed turned short and dashed for the railway station at a furious rate. Several narrowly escaped being run over and those in the cab should be prosecuted for furious driving.

College Cricket.

St. Bonaventure's team won the match with the Methodist College team last evening by thirteen runs. They have now two points against four held by Bishop Field. In the first innings St. Bon's made 40 runs and in the second 41, whilst their opponents made 18 and 69 in their first and second innings respectively. The individual scores were small in the first innings; but in the second Fenwick and Hayward each did "good work, making 15 and 16 respectively. The wicket keeping of J. Fox and the bowling of Kenally and Knight were favorably commented on by all the spectators, and afforded great delight to all the St. Bon's boys. The umpires were Rev. M. Fenwick and C. W. Ryan. Next Saturday the Feldians and Methodists will play.

Free Breakfast Table.

England May Abolish All Food Taxes. The London Express professes to believe that it is the intention of the Radicals to abolish all import duties on food. These taxes now produce about $50,000,000 a year, and the Express says the plan is to gradually do away with them, meeting the deficiency in the revenue by further imposts on land, and increases in excise, income tax and death duties. Tea is the principal contributor to the revenue among the necessaries of life, the duties on the favorite English breakfast beverage amounting to $30,000,000 annually, as compared with only $900,000 for coffee.

Desperate Characters.

Mrs. Foley, of Mundy Pond, Sunday morning found that the little store she keeps there had been entered early that morning and all its contents, which included bread, cakes, tea, sugar, butter, etc., and the cash in the till had been cleaned out by some thief who entered by raising the window. The whole of the articles taken, including the cash, was valued at $10. The woman, a widow, slept in the front of the house and the shop is situated in the rear. Mrs. Foley heard a noise during the morning, a woman living in a house nearby, however, was aroused, and looking through her window saw a man's form about half way in through the window of Mr. Kennedy's residence near. She gave the alarm, which Mr. Kennedy heard, and the housebreaker left when he heard the man coming from his room. The marauder was joined by another who was also prowling about there. One of them held a large stone in his hand, and he threatened to brain Kennedy with it should he come out. A neighbor of Mrs. Foley's said she heard a noise about 3 a.m., and this must be the time when the burglary occurred. On the matter being reported to the police Detective Byrne took up the case. He had no proper description of the man except that one was short of stature and the other tall. Monday night a prisoner was brought to the station drunk, and Byrne suspecting something wrong about him went to his boarding house on Stephen Street, found that he was not at home Sunday morning and that later he had brought home some tea, &c., which was identified as Mrs. Foley's goods. Yesterday morning he also arrested on the South Side the pal of the thief, who also resides on Stephen Street. The first man arrested, we learn, has pleaded guilty. Two other men seen loitering about the place were suspected, but on enquiring about them the officer found that they had gone to sea, and this made the task of finding who the real thieves were all the more difficult. Byrne is proving himself a highly efficient and astute officer and is to be complimented on his work of late.

The Preliminaries.

A large gathering witnessed the final preliminaries of the Star-C.C.C. sports last evening at St. George's Field. The Stars won against the Collegians by two goals to one in the second round of the football contest, and the St. Bon's in the same contest by two to one and a corner against the B. I. S. This evening the final will be played by the two winning teams. The Stars also beat the Cadets in the tug of war. The laborers and fishermen who were to take part in this contest did not turn up. They will play off before the regular programme begins this afternoon and the winners will be sent against the Stars. The companies from the C. C. C. were present and practiced their drills and marches to the music of the band. Mr. C. O'N. Coaroy was Judge and Mr. B. Stranger referee.

The 9th of June.

To-morrow is the anniversary of the 9th of June, the day on which in the year 1846 the city of St. John's was wiped out by fire. The fire began in the shop of a cabinet maker, situated just west of Queen Street, and originated from the boiling over of a glue pot on a stove. A gale of westerly wind blew and the fire, which started shortly after 9 o'clock in the morning, soon had the whole city in its embrace. The destruction of the city was complete by an early hour that night. Two soldiers of the regiments then stationed here lost their lives while trying to blow up buildings on Water Street to create fire breaks. The city from Riverhead to Maggoty Cove was destroyed, and old residents of the city can give many thrilling reminiscences of that terrible time.

8720 A PRACTICAL APRON.

A serviceable work apron, such as the one here shown, not only protects the entire dress, but is very becoming as well. It may be made with very little difficulty, and the ease with which it may be slipped on and off is a feature that will recommend it at once to the busy housewife. The bib is cut circular and slips on easily over the head, requiring no pins or buttons to hold it in place. A generous size pocket is a useful addition that will be appreciated by the wearer. Such a garment as this could be successfully made from linen gingham, madras and percale. The medium size will require 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the making. Sizes—Small, Medium and Large. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver.

A committee has been appointed to prepare the programme and great enthusiasm seems to prevail.

Mr. P. Paterson Dead.

His many friends in the city were grieved last evening to hear of the death of Mr. Patrick Patterson, which occurred at Grand Falls yesterday after a protracted illness. Deceased was a baker by trade and had been working in that capacity out there since the works opened. Deceased was a member of the T. A. & B. Stop Cough

Those hard night coughs of the children! What shall you give them? Just what your mother gave you, and just what her mother gave her! In some families, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been the only cough medicine for seventy years. Once in the family, it stays. Keep it on hand.

Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the coughs and colds of children. Do as he says. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding took place at the R. C. Cathedral at 7.30 p.m. yesterday when Capt. H. W. Winsor led to the altar Miss Mary Clare Hurley, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Lannigan, of the Admiral House, this city. The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's Altar. Rev. Monsignor Roche tying the nuptial knot. The bride was assisted by her sisters Miss Anastasia Hurley and Mrs. Haley, while the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Peter Winsor, Jr., and his brother-in-law, Mr. Plus Haley. Mr. Peter Winsor, Sr., gave the bride away. The bride was attired in a handsome costume of white silk with veil and hat to match and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were dressed in blue silk. After the ceremony and as the bridal party came through the Cathedral it was brilliantly illuminated through the kindness of Sacristan Clancy, who turned on the electric current for the occasion. A reception was later held at the residence of the bride's mother at the Beach, many friends of the happy pair spending a very pleasant evening. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold bracelet, and to the bridesmaids a pretty golden cross on which the names of each were inscribed. The flower girl, Miss Edith Haley, received a handsome gold locket from the groom also. Many very valuable presents were received by the bride including cheques for $100 each from her mother and step-father, Mr. Lannigan, and $50 from her sister, Miss Hurley. The bride and groom drove to Topsail to spend the honeymoon. The Telegram wishes them every happiness and prosperity.

As Good as Irish Peat.

Messrs. Hughes and Burke, two of the party of peat cutters from Ireland, accompanied by Mr. P. Murphy, Road Inspector, visited the turf beds at the Crooked Pinch, Old Petty Harbor Road, yesterday. They spent several hours there and tested the quality of the peat and sounded for its depth. The Irishmen say that this is the best they have seen yet and excels in quality the peat on the Toboy Road. After going down to a depth of four or five feet and taking up a sample they declared that they had never cut better peat in Ireland.

Another Klondyke Rush

Thousands Again Pouring Into North in Search of Gold. Seattle, Wash., June 1.—Officials of companies operating steamships to Alaska points on the Behring Sea estimate that 15,000 people will leave Seattle for Nome and St. Michael's on the early sailings, drawn to the far north by the reports of rich gold discoveries in the Iditarod gold fields. The first regular line to leave for Nome will sail from Seattle to-morrow, and every berth has been sold weeks in advance. Wealthy men have been compelled to take accommodations in the steerage, and there is a waiting list in the combined capacity of the northbound steamers. So great is the rush to the north that passenger and freight officials of Alaska steamship lines say the movement, which amounts to a stampede, has been equalled but once in the history of the north, and that

A Jockey Killed.

Gravesend, N.Y., June 2.—Jockey Fred Langan, mounted on Stalwort Lad, was instantly killed to-day when his mount fell on the home stretch turn in the closing race. Warwick, well up, stumbled and fell; Muff stumbled over Warwick, immediately following was Langan on Stalwort Lad. He turned a complete somersault over the prostrate forms of the two horses—His mount fell on top of him, killing him instantly.
