

Supreme Court.

(Before the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Johnson.)

Robert Freeman vs. the Government of Newfoundland and R. B. Job.

This is an action by the plaintiff to have a mining license granted to R. B. Job set aside, and for an order from the Court directing the Department of Agriculture and Mines to issue said license to him (the plaintiff). F. A. Mews for plaintiff opens his case and argues that the onus of proof as to the right to the issue of the license lies on the defendants.

Warren, K.C., for the defendant, R. B. Job, is heard and states he is ready to proceed.

Morison, K.C., Minister of Justice, contends that plaintiff must proceed and prove his case.

The Court holds that the defendant, Job, must begin and prove his case. Warren, K.C., calls Mr. Job, who is sworn and examined.

Mr. R. B. Job was then cross-examined by Mr. Mews.

Thomas J. Thorburn, clerk in the Department of Agriculture and Mines, was called and sworn, examined by Warren, K.C., and cross-examined by Mr. Mews.

The clerk in charge of the Government account in the Bank of Montreal was called by Mr. Mews in order to identify certain deposit slips from the Department of Agriculture and Mines. Mr. Thorburn was recalled and Mr. Mews continued his cross-examination. Mr. Warren re-examined this witness. This closed the case for the defendant, R. B. Job.

Robert Freeman was called by Mr. Mews and sworn and examined by Mr. Mews. At one o'clock he was still in the box.

Blocked Street.

It was almost impossible to get past the Right House on Saturday night. A tremendous crowd of shoppers were attracted to the windows by a shipment of Job Suits which Mr. Devine had just opened and displayed. Unquestionably this is the finest line of linen dresses that ever was shown here. In the selection of the suitings the daintiness of design, the twirling of the trimmings New York has certainly excelled itself. The whole staff was kept busy until a late hour. All should see them and see them quickly as they are going fast.

Beothic Reaches Battle Harbor.

The S. S. Beothic arrived at Battle Harbor at 1.30 p.m. yesterday and Captain Parsons sent the following report to the Reid Company: "Loose slack ice in straits; icebergs numerous; wind west weather fine; passed S. S. Diana at Cape Royal. Several schooners gone north of Battle Harbor."

Vessels Hung Up

Desertion is becoming more and more popular every day. The sch. Nellie Louise, Capt. Burton, was ready for sea, to-day, having all her crew aboard. Just as she was about to let go her lines two members of the crew made their escape and the police are now on their trail.

Coastal Boats.

REID'S STEAMERS. The Argyle arrived at Placentia at 1 p.m. yesterday. The Bruce reached Port aux Basques at 7.05 a.m. yesterday. The Clyde leaves Lewisporte this evening. The Stella Maris left Carbonear at 6 p.m. Saturday. The Home left Laik Hr. at 8 a.m. to-day. The Beothic left Twillingate at 7.15 p.m. yesterday. The Invermore left Port aux Basques at 10.20 p.m. yesterday. The Solway is at Lewisporte.

Fogota From Northward.

The s.s. Fogota, Capt. Baxter Barbour, arrived back from northern ports Saturday at midnight. She made the round trip in quick time and brought along a large freight and as passengers: J. Corbin, Jessie Oke, Joseph Peckford, Rev. E. C. Clinch, E. J. Moran, Eli Morgan, J. Oke, A. Elliott, A. Fitzgerald, F. W. McGinn, M. Moore, R. A. Taylor, W. Goodyear, A. Moore, J. Embrey, D. Eacrett, L. Saunders, Mrs. Wm. Blunden, Mrs. J. Oke, Miss P. Elliott, L. Parsons, S. McGinn, Lena Tulk, C. B. Kean and 20 in steerage.

In consideration of his having paid over £600 in rent during the past fifty-seven years he has resided in his cottage, an old man at Whitesden has been excused by his landlord from further payment of rent for the remainder of his life.

A special from Paris says that a "Matin" article stated that the Paris post office clerks have been subjected to an investigation on charges of laxity in the discharge of their duties. An inspector stated that he found concealed in office desks snails, which the clerks spent their time training to run races.

Flies are so few in Bavaria that they cannot be regarded as a pest. This is said to be due to the extreme cleanliness of Bavarian cities. Court-yards, alleys, vacant lots are all kept clean, and the hallways and entrances to the houses are as fresh as soap and water can make them.

The golden poppy, the State flower of California, is to be planted in the vacant lots of San Francisco by club women, who are preparing their city for the coming world's fair. The waste places of the surrounding hillsides will also be made to glow with the poppies.

Sympathetic women suffragists in New York have founded a society called the Daughters of Liberty, whose members are pledged not to buy English made goods so long as Mrs. Pankhurst and her friends in tribulation are in jail. The Daughters of Liberty who travel to England this summer are also asked to refrain from shopping while there.

Samuel Young, aged 92, M. P. for East Cavan in the House of Commons, made a vigorous speech in favour of Home Rule for Ireland the other day.

He entered Parliament in '72, and works from eight o'clock in the morning until near midnight. He eats, drinks and smokes as it suits him and is seldom ill. Mr. Young is rightly named, notwithstanding his fourscore years and twelve.

There are 300 houses in the town of Spearville, Kan., and in every backyard there is a windmill. There is no central water supply in the town and the only way the citizens can obtain good water is to sink wells to a depth of 200 feet. When a good wind is blowing and all the mills are working a sort of weird murmur is produced, which has become a pleasant music to the inhabitants, for it means a plentiful supply of water for irrigating gardens and spraying lawns.

The Kaiser presided at the launching of the Hamburg-American Company's 50,000 ton steamship, and named it the Imperator. The Germans see in the new giant of the seas a vessel that will bring back to the Fatherland the laurels won by England with the Lusitania, Mauretania, Olympic and Titanic. Controlling Your Horse.

We wish every horse lover who has a horse that pulls, or lolls its tongue, or "slabbers," might know of a simple device that we have used with most gratifying success. A beautiful mare that took hold of the bit so strongly that the pleasure of driving was often spoiled, has been made so easy to handle that now a lady drives her anywhere. We refer to the Little Giant Controller. This invention is simplicity itself. Instead of causing the horse any suffering it relieves the mouth from any pain a bit might inflict. By fit the bit is kept from crowding the tongue back between the jaw-bones and so suppressing circulation until the parts become numb. With this device the pressure is taken from the tongue and the tender gums of the lower jaw. For a hard mouth or a tender mouth it is a marvel of comfort both for horse and driver. We have used it for two years and if we could not replace it would not part with it for fifty times what it cost us.—F. H. R., in Dumb Animals.

Improvements in Gas.

The Old Year is closed, and in looking back, the advocates of Gas have no cause for complaint; indeed, it has been a year of great progress in this industry. Each year householders realize more and more what Gas (intelligently used) can do for them in Cooking, Heating and Lighting. A great improvement in gas appliances is shown in all directions and the growth of knowledge as to how Gas may be used to the best advantage is one of the most satisfactory features of this past year.

Emerald Mine Found in Peru.

San Francisco, Cal., June 5.—C. R. Kehler, a noted mining engineer, who has arrived here from Lima, reports that a Greek tavernkeeper named Kalafatovich has discovered in the little town of Acomayo, in Southern Peru, an emerald mine which bears evidence of having been worked by the ancient Peruvians. Samples of the stones sent to Lima show them to be of the finest quality. Kalafatovich gave an option to a London syndicate, but the Government has asserted its right to take over the mine by paying an equitable price to the discoverer, and to work the mine itself or lease it to private individuals.

Captured.

This forenoon Constable Keeffe arrested a young labourer who was caught looting a business house on Water Street. For some time past Mr. A. Tooton, photographer, had been missing articles from his premises and so frequently that he had to acquaint the owner of the building, Mr. Phillips, who keeps a shop next door. The latter instructed Mr. Tooton to notify the police which he did and all three kept a close watch for the unwelcome visitor. This morning Mr. Phillips caught the culprit red-handed. The culprit gained access to the place through a window at the rear on George Street. He was taken into custody and later handed over to Constable Keeffe who escorted him to the police station. An attempt to burglarize Rankin & Co's. store a few night ago was also mentioned in this column. Deceases leaves a wife, child and parents.

Sudden Death.

Deputy Minister of Justice Hutchings had the following message today from Magistrate Scott, of Twillingate: "Stature Ward, aged 31, married, of Leading Tipples, fitting out for fishery here, died suddenly Saturday evening of hemorrhage. He was working all day, but not hard. Dr. LeDrew was summoned, but although responding promptly was too late. The body was sent home by schooner. Deceases leaves a wife, child and parents."
