Quebec Members are Found Guilty

They Received Money From Detectives in Connection With the Fair Bill.

Quebec, Feb. 12.—Both the Legislative Council and Assembly investigation committees made public their reports to-day, and, as was expected, Messrs. Bevard, Bergeron and Mousseau are found guilty by their colleagues. The reports contain no recommendations to the House, and there was little discussion upon their findings, but it is possible that their consideration may be taken up next Tuesday.

The Assembly committee finds the evidence proved that Mr. Mousseau received from the American detectives, Biddinger and Mahoney, the sum of $4,150 in connection with Bill No. 158 to incorporate the Montreal Fair Association of Canada.

Mr. A. Labelle, the advocate in charge of the Bill, received from the American detectives in connection with this Bill an amount of $1,557.57, but he declares that he neither offered nor promised nor paid anything to any member of the Legislative Assembly. The evidence shows, however, that Mr. Labelle was aware that Mr. Mousseau received one or more sums of money in connection with the Bill with a view to bribery.

The committee says the accusations made against Messrs. Bergeron and Bevard have been justified by the evidence. It has been established that after having in the first place refused, they ended by taking money in connection with Bill No. 158.

A Blow to Fancy Prices.

As revolutionary as wireless telegraphy is the seamless, rivetless, boltless, jointless Steel Vertical Filing Cabinet now on the market. Here is the actual construction of what every designer of steel furniture has dreamed of producing—a solid one-piece cabinet without a break or joint in it. This perfection has been brought about in the "Globe-Wernicke" factories by electric spot-welding of all joining and overlapping surfaces and corners. There's more; the channels that hold the noiseless rolling devices for the drawers are electrically welded solidly to the sides. The more you work these drawers the more perfect is the running. And finally the price—this flawless Steel Cabinet, enduring as Time, is offered by the "Globe-Wernicke Co." at the same price as the highest grade cabinets that are made of wood! Talk with PERCIE JOHNSON about this—the price is going to interest you.

Protestantism.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—It is evident that the one who signs himself "Catholicus Anglicanus" in your issue of the 17th imagined that Protestants do not understand the meaning of that dear term. For the benefit of those such as "Catholicus Anglicanus" I would say that true Protestants advocate those doctrines and practices of early Christianity which are taught in the scriptures and were formed in their purity in the apostolic church. Basing their teaching upon the written Word of God, they reject any additions to it whether ancient or modern.

No matter how many mendacious witnesses are called forth they could not change the false into the true.

"Catholicus Anglicanus" thinks the "Church Anglicana" has nothing in common with Protestantism, then I say we should pity the church.

If I understand this discussion aright, it is a desire on the part of some for church union. Let me here state that any overture emanating from Rome is merely an invitation to Protestants to repudiate their own faith and become Catholics.

However, before Protestants do such a thing as that they will want to see more unity in the Church of Rome.

Yours truly,
READER.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. Myers and family wishes to thank Governor and Mrs. Davidson for kindness to their daughter Mary; also, staff of Government House for sympathizing in the hour of bereavement and for grand flowers to adorn coffin. They also extend thanks to nurses of Cottage Hospital, and all who were so kind to her during her stay there.—adv.

Hr. Grace Notes.

The men hauling ice to-day found the cold so severe that they were forced to discontinue the work owing mostly to the very high wind.

Last night and this morning the wind blew with hurricane force making it almost impossible for people to get about.

Mr. W. J. James, Manager of the Harbour Grace Boot and Shoe Factory, took a run over to the Capital on Monday morning, on a business trip, returning yesterday afternoon.

The British Band dance to be held in the Masonic Hall, last night, had to be postponed owing to the storm.

It will take place to-morrow (Thursday) night.

We regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. George T. Gordon, which took place yesterday afternoon after a long illness. Mrs. Gordon was a daughter of the late Henry Goss of this town, and leaves besides an aged mother (who is not expected to survive her many days) a husband and two children. The deceased was only 39 years of age, and was held in high esteem by all her acquaintances. To the sorrowing husband and other members of the family we tender our deepest sympathy.

Mr. Stephen Andrews, father of Mr. George Andrews, druggist, has been very sick since Friday last, but seems a shade better as we write. Mr. Andrews is over 35 years of age, and up to a few days ago was able to be about town with as firm a step as many 40 years younger. We hope soon to hear of our old friend being out of danger, and wish him a speedy recovery.

The following is a list of the little folks that took part in Saturday afternoon's carnival at the rink here. The costumes were very pretty, and the youthful participants particularly "Mr. Horn from Timbucto," pleased the spectators very much. There were 39 children present, some of the names we could not secure.

STOP COUGHING!

It's quite as foolish as it is annoying to keep on coughing since PHORATONE COUGH MIXTURE is sold all over Newfoundland and is guaranteed to soothe and heal the irritated parts at once, and to rapidly destroy the very cause of this aggravating nuisance. Hundreds of persons are complaining every day about the cough or cold they have had for a long time, and are not able to get rid of it. Don't let a cough or cold hang on day after day and run the risk of catching and developing the "cough" that is not easy to throw off. You will avoid all this worry (about the cough or cold you have) by obtaining PHORATONE COUGH MIXTURE at once.

Price 5 cents a bottle; postage 5 cents extra.

SAILS TO-MORROW.

The S. S. Morwanna sails at noon to-morrow for Halifax and New York taking a considerable freight and the following passengers:— His Grace Archbishop Howley, Rt. Rev. J. March, Very Rev. J. St. John, Rt. Rev. Mons. Reardon, Rt. Rev. Mons. F. D. McCarthy, D. Ryan, wife and child, G. M. and Mrs. Barr, Mr. Somerville, J. J. Tobin, Mrs. S. B. Milley, W. H. Flood, Mrs. H. B. Burt, C. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. C. O'Neill, W. and A. G. Ashbourne, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Darken, Chas. F. Harris and two in staterage.

FIRE ALARMS.

Yesterday afternoon an alarm of fire summoned the Central and Eastern Companies to the residence of Mr. George Morris, Field Street, where a slight blaze was in progress. The fire occurred in the cellar where some water pipes were being thawed, and spreading to the kitchen, the flames were making considerable headway when the firemen arrived. By the aid of the chemical fire was promptly extinguished, but not before a great deal of damage was done to the stock in the shop on the ground floor.

At 11 p.m. a slight fire, caused by a hall stove, occurred in the dwelling on Long's Hill, occupied by D. Thistle. The fire was successfully put out with a few minutes and very little damage was done.

BRILLIANT LECTURE NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

TO KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

The Knights of Columbus and their lady friends were entertained with a brilliant discourse on "Napoleon" by Rev. W. P. Kitchen, Ph.D., at Columbus Hall last night. The reverend lecturer was introduced by Mr. C. P. Oagan, who in doing so said that only in accordance with custom was it necessary to induce one so well known for his oratorical abilities as Rev. Dr. Kitchen. The rev. gentleman began with the birth of this great commander and genius in Corsica, and for over an hour reviewed the different phases of his life up to the close of his earthly career at St. Helena. After dealing with Napoleon's military education, he went on to show the important part he played in the French revolution. Though on the threshold of his military career, he displayed the abilities of a consummate general. His tactics were at all times remarkable for precision of movement and concentration of forces. Following Napoleon's successful career, the rev. lecturer reviewed the events that led to his appointment as First Consul, and later his acceptance of the sceptre and coronation as Emperor of the French. In the battle of Austerlitz the superior genius and masterly tactics of Napoleon were allied into play, and resulted in giving him one of the most brilliant victories recorded in the annals of war. The failure of the Russian expedition brought shadows on the life of the great general, and though he displayed his intrepidity in a marked degree, he was finally compelled to abdicate his throne. The restoration of the Bourbon dynasty saw the fallen emperor at Elba, whence he escaped, and reorganizing his army, met the English at Waterloo, where the closing scene of his military career was enacted. His subsequent imprisonment at St. Helena and his death, attended by the consoling comforts of religion, were vividly described by the lecturer. The lecture was a scholarly and entertaining one and was profusely illustrated with lantern slides. At the close Mr. C. J. Cahill proposed a vote of thanks to the rev. lecturer, and in doing so paid a glowing tribute to Rev. Dr. Kitchen for his eloquent and instructive discourse. The vote was unanimously accorded and the rendition of the National Anthem brought the entertainment to a close.

An Obstinate Case.

"I used to suffer with sore nose, a trouble I found very difficult to deal with for a long time. Ordinary ointments seemed to avail little. The inside of the nose would get somewhat better, and then, at the first cold, it would become as bad as ever."
"Are you all right now, then?"
"Yes, indeed after I had used Zylex a few times, things came easier; and a little perseverance effected a perfect cure. If any symptoms of the trouble appears again, a single application fixes it. Zylex costs 50 cents a box, at your druggist's and you should always have a box at hand. It's useful in all kinds of skin troubles."—Feb 14, eod, tr
