Crowded House Greets Amateur Contest

Twelve Performers Take Part at the Crescent.

Last night's Amateur Contest at Crescent Theatre was greeted by the usual packed house. Apparently each contest at this popular house is a greater success than the last, and last evening no less than twelve performers came forward and each turn was given a big reception and judging from the applause Dan Delmar had a rather tedious job discerning the prize winners. The first prize was, however, awarded Michael Woodland for his splendid rendition of a descriptive ballad. Miss Linegar received the second prize for her Accordeon selections. Little Micky Michael carried off third prize. Among the contestants were several good dancers all under sixteen years of age.
Dolly Moore and Jimmie Clayton in their classy dancing act nearly brought down the house. Patrons of this theatre are indeed enjoying a rare treat of entertainment in these acts and a tumultuous reception is accorded them upon each appearance.
"Brass," the big motion picture attraction, is a film that the public will remember for a long time to come as it contains a real moral and an interesting story.
