

Germany's Admission to League of Nations Means France's Security

Fuel Shortage in Cape Breton—Thirty Miners Trapped in Illinois Coal Mine.

LITTLE PROGRESS BEING MADE.

SYDNEY, Jan. 25.—The belief is gaining ground in well-informed circles that but little progress is being made toward the settlement of the Nova Scotia coal strike which started on the 16th of the month when the employing company, the British Empire Steel Corporation, made a twenty per cent. cut in wages. The U.M.W. and Besco representatives are still conferring seeking to reach a satisfactory agreement. A fairly acute coal shortage is being experienced in Sydney. In an official letter to Mayor Fitzgerald of Sydney, yesterday, Besco declared it was willing to mine coal at once for Cape Breton requirements. A special meeting of the Sydney City Council will consider the civic fuel question to-night.

or Party has been bitterly aggrieved at what it has considered deliberate hostility and misrepresentation on the part of the majority of the English newspapers.

THE BERLIN AMBASSADORSHIP.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—It is reported Premier MacDonald has offered the appointment of British Ambassador to Berlin, when the Ambassadorship becomes vacant, to the well-known journalist, H. W. Massingham. Massingham was editor of the Nation which was noted for its pacifist attitude during the war and was barred from the foreign mails for a considerable period.

22 DAYS CROSSING THE ATLANTIC

HALIFAX, Jan. 25.—After twenty-two days' passage, during which mountainous seas were encountered, the Anglo-American oil tanker Suwanne, bound from Gt. Britain to New York, arrived in port to-day with her bunkers empty. In need of minor repairs and with her Master, Captain Taylor, suffering from a broken arm. The officer sustained injuries when in mid-ocean a gigantic sea swept the craft.

GREY APPEALS FOR GERMANY'S ADMISSION TO THE LEAGUE.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Viscount Grey of Fallodon, in a speech in the financial heart of London yesterday, declared Europe was going quite certainly in the direction of future war and drifting back into the old race for armaments, and he appealed for the admission of Germany into the League of Nations as a means of procuring for France the security she so much desires.

BRITISH REPRESENTATION ON THE LEAGUE.

GENEVA, Jan. 25.—The expectation is that Viscount Cecil of Chelwood, formerly Lord Robert Cecil, no longer will represent Great Britain on the Council. His absence from participation hereafter will be a great loss. The question of British representation on the Council is regarded as most important and Sir Eric Drummond, Secretary General of the League, is leaving for London to consult with Premier MacDonald.

BLACK HAND AT WORK IN SYRACUSE.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 25.—An explosion, which last night rocked a great part of the city, destroyed five dwellings and wiped out nearly half a city block in Burnet Avenue, was to-night under investigation by the police and district attorney. Property loss was fifty thousand dollars and ten persons were injured, but none seriously. Fire followed and menaced an entire square for an hour after the blast. The popular belief is that the explosion was caused by the work of the Black Hand.

CANADA'S FIRE LOSSES.

TORONTO, Jan. 25.—Fire losses in Canada during the week ended Jan. 23, are estimated at $809,000, compared with $658,000 for the same week last year.

MINERS TRAPPED.

WEST FRANKFORD, Ills., Jan. 25.—Thirty miners are trapped in an east side mine of the Searles Coal Company, six miles south of here, following a gas explosion late to-day. Three miners were taken from the pit badly burned. Two hundred and fifty escaped uninjured.

ANOTHER FEDERAL VICTORY.

DOUGLAS, Arizona, Jan. 25.—Following thirty hours of severe fighting, loyal troops, under command of General Bravo Iguierdo, have recaptured the port of Salina Cruz, and compelled the rebel force holding the fort to embark on the sunboat Progress, according to a message received here by Mexican Consul Rojas.

DAILY NEWS PRAISES NEW GOVT.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The new government received acclamation from the Daily News, Liberal Organ, on its giving to the press an authoritative statement of the proceedings of the first Cabinet Council of the Labor Government. The Daily News expresses appreciation of this in view of the fact that the Lab-

CRAZY SEAMAN SHOT BY POLICE.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25.—Lynan Ben Baba, a Mohammedan seaman, who killed two men Thursday when he ran amuck aboard the freighter Pilar de Larinaga, succumbed to-day to bullet wounds inflicted Exciting Hockey Match.

PLAYED AT CORNER BROOK.

The first real hockey match ever played on the West Coast took place at Corner Brook on Saturday night last, when a team from that place tried conclusions against a sextette from Deer Lake. The match was played in the paper store on an excellent surface. The ice measurement being 220 x 90 feet. The lineup was as follows:—

DEER LAKE	CORNER BROOK
Connelly	Fitzgerald
O'Leary	DEFENCE
Morrison	J. C. Parsons
FORWARDS	J. Wilson
Tommy Winter	A. Martin
Robertson	Ryan
Curtis	Holden
SUBS
Marsel	Goobie
Hammond	Devine

After an exciting battle of sixty minutes play, the Deer Lake team proved the victors by a score of five goals to four.

In the first period the Corner Brook team had matters practically all their own way, having found the net three times to their opponents nil. In the second period, however, the Deer Lake sextette came back strong, and levelled the score. The final session was full of thrills with each team battling hard for the points, but the Deer Lake boys proved themselves masters of the situation, and found the net twice to their opponents once, which gave them the victory by an odd goal.

The boys are said to have put up an excellent brand of hockey. The pace was very fast at times with good stick-handling, and team generalship was a feature. "Plus" Parsons, the veteran, who worked on the defence for the Corner Brook team, displayed his old time form. He was one of the outstanding players on the ice, and lasted the full sixty minutes. Wilson also played well, while Robertson and Morrison, the Canadian players, starred for Deer Lake. Mr. T. W. Tito, a Canadian, refereed the game, with satisfaction to all.

Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid

NOTED STARS TOGETHER IN NO-TABLE DRAMA AT THE MAJESTIC.

Embracing in its cast two notable screen stars like Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, it was to be expected that "Forever," a George Fitzmaurice Paramount picture, in which these artists are co-stars, should score emphatically as it did at the Majestic Theatre last night.

The scenes of "Forever" are laid in France and England in the forties of the last century. Gogo Pasquale, the little son of a chemist, at the latter's death, is adopted by Col. Ibbetson a rake, and takes the name of Peter Ibbetson. Peter grows to manhood amid sordid surroundings in England, goes in for sports and becomes a drifter. He whips a carter for abusing his horse and engages in a professional prize fight.

Peter meets Mimi, his childhood sweetheart and learns that she is now the Duchess of Towers. In the dressing room of Dolores, a dancer, he encounters his uncle who openly asserts that Peter's mother had been his flame and that he (Peter) was his own son. Later that night when Peter goes to Col. Ibbetson's room to demand an explanation, he is attacked by the old man and in defending himself, Peter accidentally kills him. He is tried and sentenced to be hanged, but Mimi, the Duchess of Towers, causes his sentence to be commuted to life imprisonment in an asylum.

In his dreams, Peter sees the Mimi of his childhood, and nightly thereafter he meets his sweetheart in vision. Mimi becomes a widow and the two spend their lives together in dreams. Both grow old, but their dream life continues. Mimi perishes while trying to rescue children from a burning orphanage. Her soul returns to Peter in his cell where he has just died, and the two are reunited in spiritual bonds.

The management of the Majestic regrets the announcement of the failure of Ravin and Kelly the Vaudeville team to connect with the Red Cross steamer, but it is highly probable they will arrive here early the coming week.

Blue Puttee open Sundays 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. Ice Cream, Ice Cream Bricks, Hot Chocolate, Bouillon, Coffee, Tea, Cake, Sandwiches, Toast, High grade Chocolates and Cigarettes. Jan 24, 25, 26.

MINARD'S LINIMENT USED BY PHYSICIANS.

MINARD'S LINIMENT BELIEVED NUNUNGLA.

TRINITY

CHURCH PARADES OF SELF.

On Sunday, Jan. 6th, the Festival of the Epiphany, the members of the Society of the United Fishermen held their annual Church Parade, and attended Divine Service at St. Paul's Church, 3 p.m.

The Festival of Epiphany, so full of brightness, because of the message it brings to us in the Church Year, is also one of the saddest days in the history of Trinity. On that morning, 43 years ago, the S.S. Lora went down in Baccalieu Tickle, and sixty souls passed through the waters into the Paradise of God; two of whom were Rev. Hugh Foster, Incumbent of St. Paul's, and his bride. Because of this, after the opening Epiphany hymn, the congregation stood with bowed heads, while the organist, Miss Cranmer, played "The Dead March in Saul." The service was hearty and devotional in its congregational rendering of the beautiful Evensong of the church. The preacher dealt with the work (and limitations) of all human societies, as compared with that of the one and only one Divine Society—The Holy Catholic Church; and endeavored to show the relative positions of one to the other in the realms of moral and spiritual life. On their way back to the Lodge Room, the members called on their sick and shut-in brethren, just to show them that they were not forgotten, and they appreciated the kind, thoughtful action. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the preacher, together with the assurance that the members of the S.U.F. individually and collectively, would endeavor to mould their lives in accordance with the lessons taught them by the Church, and placed before them by one of her priests, on this occasion of their annual visit to the House of God. So mote it be.

The beautiful, illustrated Parish Almanac for 1924, which has been issued by Rev. E. P. Hiscock, has been given a place in every church home in the parish. It is replete with such thought and illustrations, and teachings, as cannot help to be other than helpfully useful to those who are anxious to live the better life, day by day. Take for instance the two following suggestions in attractive type:—

- (1) "Somewhere, some way, some time each day I'll turn aside and stop and pray. 'That God will make my Church the way Of Blessing unto Men.'"
- (2) "Somewhere, some way, some time each day I'll do some work for Christ and say 'Some word that in His Service may Bring Blessings unto Men.'"

The members of the S.U.F. and their friends held their annual dance in the Parish Hall, on Monday night, Jan. 7th. It was an enjoyable event.

The shutting down of the Bonaville Branch Railway, will tend to make the remainder of the winter and early spring monotonous, but "this also shall pass away."

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS. J.H.—I am glad you liked "The Good Story." Thank you for pointing out to me that the girl's name (in Paddy's Kitchen) was Sarah, and not "Kate," and that Mike married her. I had not gone so far into details as to be very particular. Yes, I knew who Mike was.

M.L.—Yes there were other roads in Trinity that I omitted to mention. "Hill Street" was from Slane's premises around Hor's Nose and "Fish Street" was from the top of Grant's Lane to Fisher's Cove. Probably there were others.

O.P.—Stephen Knight of Shaftsbury, Dorset, England, married Ann, daughter of Stephen and Ann March of Old Perlican in 1792. With this as a starting point you may be able to trace the lineage in which you are interested.

Trinitarian.—The lane that you refer to, that connects Main Street with Church Road, was first known as Gallivan's Lane. One Mr. Gallivan then owned the house and property now belonging to Mr. William White, H.M.C. After Gallivan left it became known as Grant's Lane, after James Grant, who lives opposite the house of the late Dr. White. Since the disappearance of James Grant's house and family, it has become known to some as the Doctor's Hill, though it is still known to many as Grant's Lane.

W. J. L. January 12th, 1924.

Have you a Suit or Overcoat to make? We make a speciality of making up customers own goods at prices that are absolutely the lowest for first class work. FARRELL THE TAILOR, 810 Water St.—nov17,22

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

"Rose of My Heart."

After very careful rehearsing everything is now in readiness for the production of the delightful Irish comedy drama "Rose of My Heart." The play is in the hands of the Holy Cross Dramatic Troupe who so creditably produced "Hickory Farm," in 1922 and the "Deacon," last winter. The troupe has enlisted the services of Miss Molly Moran, whose reputation as an actress is so widespread. She will play the part of "Rose," in her own inimitable way. Another lady, Miss McDonald, is also assisting, and bids fair to become one of our local stars. The play abounds in wit and humor, joy and pathos. It contains a big plot which is not revealed until the last line has been spoken. The proceeds will be devoted to improvements in Holy Cross Schools. Mr. Percy Jardine is directing as well as playing opposite Miss Moran. "Rose of My Heart" is a new play, and was never produced in Newfoundland. With a grand performance, a new stage and a new balcony, the enjoyment as well as the comfort of patrons is assured. Remember dates, Jan. 30th, 31st and February 1st.

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

BUT DID HE KNOW?

There are middle aged matrons were discussing the affairs of a young girl whom all of them knew. This girl is about 23. She has been having a mild affair with a married man whom the first matron characterized as "old enough to be her father." (He would have had to marry at 16 to accomplish the feat, but it sounded well.)

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

We see ourselves altogether too wise. We attribute the wisdom that the young man laboriously learned to the boy at school; the common sense of the woman of 30 to the girl of 20.

Knowledge Just Filters In. We have travelled a long journey, our memories are not so clear cut as we think them. We cannot really tell at just what time we passed each landmark. If we should examine ourselves more closely, we should find that this is true. Now and then our grasp of a great truth dates itself by some event with which it is connected, but most of our knowledge and understanding comes very gradually, filters into our minds instead of bursting upon us like a great lightning bolt.

It is inevitable that youth and age should see things from a different angle. But whereas youth's inability to understand the viewpoint of age has the justification that the young have never been old, the failure of middle age and old age to understand youth has no such excuse.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

When We Weren't Really So Sensible. "I wonder," she said, "if any of us remember exactly when it was that we began to understand things like that? We think we understand when we were Jean's age, but did we? Can you separate all the things you've come to understand in the last 15 or 20 years, and tell exactly when you learned them? Aren't we inclined to credit ourselves with more sense than we really possessed, and to blame the young people of to-day for not being as sensible as we were, when we really weren't as sensible as we think we were? If you know what I mean," she ended in some embarrassment at her own philosophizing and the morass into which it had led her.

I thought I knew what she meant. And I liked the idea. And her for having it.

Isn't that the trouble with a good many of us when we criticize young people? We are impatient with them because they aren't as wise as we used to be at their age when we really don't know how wise we were at that age.

Now Discharging ex S.S. Mons with a full cargo BURNSIDE Scotch Coal. We have been successful in securing our old quality BURNSIDE Coal as sold last Winter.

All small even run of NUT SIZE LUMPS. NO SLACK. NO ROCK. Without question the BEST COAL on the market.

$12.50. North Sydney Screened—Just Arrived $13.50.

Welsh Anthracite (all sizes) in Store and to arrive.

A. H. MURRAY & CO., Limited, Coal Office Phone 1867. Beck's Cove.

Just received another shipment

Stacon Stove Polish 3 cts. per bottle.

Wm. J. Clouston, Ltd. 184 Water Street. Jan 24, 25, 26

Jan 24, 25, 26

For Home-Made Candies

CARNATION Milk adds richness to candies, as it does to other cooking. Use it wherever the recipe calls for milk or cream. It is just pure fresh milk, evaporated to double richness, kept safe by sterilization. It keeps. It is economical because none is wasted. Order several tall (16 oz.) cans or a case of 48 cans from your grocer. Try this recipe and write for the Carnation Recipe Book containing many others.

CARNATION DIVINITY FUDGE—1/4 cup water, 1 tsp. vanilla, 3 cups brown sugar, 1/16 tsp. cream of tartar, 1 cup nuts, 2 tbsp. butter, 1/4 tsp. orange peel, 1/4 cup Carnation Milk. Put sugar, Carnation Milk, water, butter, orange peel and cream of tartar in a stew pan. Stir thoroughly until it begins to boil. Cook until it forms a soft ball when tested in water. Remove from fire; stir vigorously; add vanilla. Arrange half nut meats on a greased pan. Pour over them the fudge.

Produced in Canada by CARNATION MILK PRODUCTS CO., LIMITED. Aylmer, Ontario.

Carnation Milk

Produced in Canada by CARNATION MILK PRODUCTS CO., LIMITED. Aylmer, Ontario.

THE NEWEST

Women's Dress Footwear

Rare creations in Dainty Slippers and Pumps for Evening wear.

Exclusive styles in Black Patent and Kid Leathers, with fancy strap effects.

Other models in Grey Kid and Field Mouse colored Shoes, made in the very latest styles.

Women's Patent One-Strap Slippers, medium rubber heels—$3.50

Women's Patent and Grey 1-Button Shoes. Medium rubber heels; all sizes $3.50

Women's Brown Kid 1-Strap, medium heel, flexible turned sole. Price $3.75

Women's Patent Leather Evening Shoes, extra wide strap, ribbon tie, Louis heel. A very stylish model $4.50

Numerous other styles to choose from.

Blue Puttee open Sundays 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. Ice Cream, Ice Cream Bricks, Hot Chocolate, Bouillon, Coffee, Tea, Cake, Sandwiches, Toast, High grade Chocolates and Cigarettes. Jan 24, 25, 26.

MINARD'S LINIMENT USED BY PHYSICIANS.

MINARD'S LINIMENT BELIEVED NUNUNGLA.

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26

Homemade Cakes in great variety on hand or baked to order, at the Blue Puttee. Phone 1016.—Jan 24, 25, 26