THE THEATRES

EMMA CARUS THE BEST COMEDIENNE EVER SEEN HERE

Broadway Musical Comedy Star Keeps Audience in Up-roar From Start to Finish

All Emma Carus has to do is to walk upon the stage, smile and wink. The audience is with her from the smile. With any kind of stage material she would be successful, her personality alone being sufficient to win her headline position on any vaudeville bill or in any theatre on the continent.

Miss Carus opened a week's engagement at the Empire Theatre Monday, and the personality worked overtime. She did not depend upon the personality, because her songs, character comedy kept the audience in an uproar from start to finish, and it was with difficulty that she finally was able to leave the stage. This comedienne, for the next two years the biggest favorite on Broadway, showed her wonderful versatility by leaving the audience in a roar of laughter, then responding to the encore by singing a serious ballad, and instantly turning the minds of the spectators into a thinking vein. Then she returned to the comedy, and left the stage exulting as the biggest success of her career. Her material is excellent, an Irish song especially pleasing the crowd. Her drawing ability is being illustrated by the fact that at all her performances since she opened Monday afternoon, the theatre has been packed, and the "standing room only" sign hangs out. In the face of the hardest opposition of the season, Miss Carus has been able to establish a new house record for the Empire in the matter of gross receipts.

The difficult art of "putting over" a song was illustrated by the fact that at all her performances since she opened Monday afternoon, the theatre has been packed, and the "standing room only" sign hangs out. In the face of the hardest opposition of the season, Miss Carus has been able to establish a new house record for the Empire in the matter of gross receipts.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The bill that opens with a matinee tomorrow at the Orpheum promises to supply an exceptionally strong line of entertainment, the headline being one that will appeal both to the younger members of the family as well as the older. The bill is headed by the "Elephant Circus," which features Miss Orford's elephants, whose feats are performed as if by the human hand. ### "TIME, PLACE AND GIRL" DELIGHTS AT LYRIC

Newest Musical Comedy Gives Ample Scope for the Clever Company and is Pleasing

"The Time, Place and the Girl" proved a real Lyric yesterday, and good houses enjoyed the piece throughout. The play, which was given in a highly original and novel way, is a comedy of the first order, and all who came and saw were convinced both with the charm of the girls and the good humor that prevailed throughout. Thomas Whiffen, who takes the role of Happy Johnny Montana, was a star member of the original company, and in the present production takes his part with ease and finish. He is well supported throughout, and the singing of Miss Houston and the many members of the chorus of applause. The chorus of attractive girls are nimble on their feet as they are funny in their antics, and the whole blends together in a very pretty piece indeed. In fact, a cleaner and more wholesome and more production could not be got for the money than that at the Lyric this week.

MUSICAL ELEPHANTS

Elephants Play Horse and Do Other Funny Stunts
Yankee Robinson's Musical Elephants which have been playing the big vaudeville houses during the past winter, are making a tremendous hit. The elephants are of a variety of colors, and in fact, the largest performing elephants in the country, and they go through their stunts amazingly.

EDDIE FOY in "Over the River."

WHEN EDDIE FOY, THE FUNMAKER, COMES TO CALGARY

Opens At Grand Monday With the Seven Little Foy's, in "Over the River."

There will be new jokes and laughing catch-phrases entering into everyday conversation after next Monday evening, when irrepressible Eddie Foy and the Seven Little Foy's, in the new musical funmaker, "Over the River," which Werba and Luescher have produced on a big scale, comes to the Grand for three days, starting Monday, June 15.

The spirit of maddest frolic permeates every scene of this production, which comes here direct from its long run on Broadway. Its unconventional appeal is said to be the strong note in its appeal to an audience. "Over the River" is described as not only a great play, but it is a great musical piece filled with tuneful songs that start everyone to humming or whistling the "catchy" melodies. Mr. Foy has been surrounded with a large company well chosen to fill the various amusing roles, and also has a great madcap chorus chosen quite as much for its musical superiority as for its dancing ability.
