MAYHOOD WILL

SPEAK AT FORUM

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Native Son Will Discuss "Is

Canada a Nation" on

Sunday Afternoon

L. Frederick Mayhood will be the peaker at the Forum on Sunday afteron. He is a young man of the firm of Short, Ross, Selwood and Maylood. He has the student's tastes and turn of mind that delays opinion until investigation has been made. Mr. May-hood was a Calgary boy, passing through the public and high schools of this city. Later the took his arts and law course in Ann Ambor university. While a student there he was president of the Cosmopolitan club, composed of students of foreign birth from many different nations: a good training for citizen of this country, destined to be the home of people from the varied na-tionalities of Europe and Asia.

The speaker will discuss the ques-on: "Is Canada a Nation?" Himself a young Canadian of two or three generations, blending in his veins the British strains, English, Scotch and Irish, his western training leaving aim untramelled by tradition, his student stastes inclining him to thoughtful study. Mr. Mayfood should give his audience something worth their careful consideration. His address should provoke thought and prove a men*al stimulus to the crowd that gathers a
