WEEKLY REVIEW.

LONDON, Wednesday, Jan. 7.

Very few changes are to be noted in the genral situation here, both in grain and provisions, noe last weekly review. The new year has the native the usual fashion, light deliveries ad quietness prevailing. The feeting in wheat sems a shade better, but it is not sufficiently rong to create any advance in values. Dur ge the week choice lots of Derocrat were ocsionally taken at 22c, and frequently at 90c arket 90c and 91c and 91 50 to $1.52 were rulg values.

prices firm, closing 2c over last week, $1 to ad $1 20. Barley opened active at from $1 to $1 20. Importations from outside of feed grades made the range here widen, and at the close purchases were made at 95c.

Buckwheat was steady at $1 for ordinary and $1 02 to $1 05 for dry and clean.

Rye closed stronger at $1 to $1 05.

There were moderate receipts of beans. Handpicked sold at $1 25 and unpicked at $1 to $1 15.

to $1 15.

Corn scarce and firm at $1 10 to $1 15.

Butter was plentiful, dull and neglected, best pound rolls bringing ite by the basket, and other kinds were affected the same. Fresh eegs ran away un, sales of baskets being made at 27c, 28c and 30c retail; store lots brought 20 to 28c.

Potatoes higher at 70c to 89c.

Potatoes higher at 70c to 89c.

Potatoes higher at 70c to 89c.

There was a good shipping demand and also a teady draw for local dealers; the close was 5 50 to $5.75 for ordinary and $2.55 for heavy.

Beef was in better demand, and sales ranged 144c to 64c by the carcass.

Tallow steady at $10c for rendered.

Said to be Crazy.

Vm. J. Marshall testified at the Police Court this morning to his father, William's, unsound mental condition. He said the old gentleman, who is a retired railway man and a survivor of the Copetown disaster, has been acting strangely for two or three weeks past, and has been ripping up carpets, smashing things in general and threatening his (the defendant's) wife. Dr.
Smith also considered him to be a little out of his mind and dangerous to others.
The father was committed by the magistrate for trial on a charge of insanity.

Superintendent James Gordon presided and welcomed the large number of friends who attended. After a short congratulatory address by Rev. James Gordon, the superintendent read his report, which showed a total membership of over 150 pupils and 16 teachers, with almost a full attendance every Sunday. Mr. H. E. Nelles, treasurer, read his report, showing the finances to be in a gratifying condition. The following programme was then carried out in a most creditable manner. candies. Questions for a Judge.

To the Editor of the Advertiser:
Would you please answer the following questions:

1. If deputy returning officers distribute blank ballot papers for the election of school trustees to supporters of public schools and to the second of the se pantant that of his friends would this invalidate his election?

The election would hardly be invalidated unless on a recount of the bailots the number of separate school supporters who had voted would equal or outnumber the majority of the successful candidate. Such a state of things would probably cause a new election for public school trustees. The mere fact of a separate school supporter having got hold of the bailot-paper would hardly invalidate the election.

Respecting the second question, such action as indicated would be foolish and most improper, as it would mean the purchase of votes, but it is a question for a judge to decide.

The production of "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," a sensational comedy-drama in five acts, which included in the cast Mr. John L. Sullivan, few a large audience to the Grand last evening. As may be supposed, the chief interest centered in Sullivan. Every time the big fellow appeared on the stage he was greeted with applause, and once made his bow before the curtain. Although John evidently felt mere at home in the sparring match in the last act, when he knocks out the well-known Joe Lannon in the third round, yet it is only justice to say that his deportment was natural—there was no straining after effect. His role as a bluf, honest blacksmith seemed exactly suited to his acquirements. Mr. Duncan B. Harrison's acknowledged ability as an actor was shown to advantage, and the other members of the troupe are rather above the ordinary. Mr. Chas. M. Collins as the villain, Mr. W. P. Sheldon as Attorney MoNab, Mr. R. B. Frisbie as James, the butler, and Miss Grace Ottillie as the chic Nora Daly were all specially deserving of praise.

Death of P. C. Pope.

Last night at 10:45 o'clock, P. C. Pope, the unfortunate victim of Tuesday's runaway, died at the City Hospital. All that medical skill could do for the sufferer was of no avail. The deceased had been a member of the force for about thirteen years and was ever faithful in the discharge of his duty whether his life was endangered or not. When the patrol wagon was first purchased Mr. Pope was placed in charge. He took great pride in keeping the horses in good condition, and although warned time and again of the danger of driving the animals, he always expressed confidence in his ability to pull them up should the occasion demand it. He was about 50 years of age, and leaves a wife and one married daughter. It is likely that an inquest will be held.
