The Arlington Nine Against the Alerts.

An Outsider Captures the $44,250 Futurity Stakes.

Canadians Took the Money on the Good Handicap at Detroit—Various Other Events.

The game between the Alerts and Arlington at Tecumseh Park on Saturday afternoon drew a fair-sized crowd, and had not been for the counter-attraction of the circus, no doubt the attendance would have been much larger. It was a benefit game to Mr. George Erwin, the caretaker of the park. At times the playing was very interesting, and again it would be somewhat tame. In spite of the fact that the result was almost a foregone conclusion, the juniors made an excellent showing, as evidenced by the score. Gibbs pitched a fairly good game, striking out the Detroit pitcher twice. Occasionally Pinal was a trifle slow behind the bat, but with a few exceptions did fine work. Coles first base play was very good. Sherear caught the pitcher's box for the Alerts, and worried the juniors with his slow curves, drawing five batters so that they were not privileged to start the sprint around the diamond. However, the veteran's shots were safely reached for six base hits. Burton covered first base in place of Dr. P. B. Wood. Score:

A PITCHER'S LIFE.
The life of a successful pitcher is short, although the greatest have held out a long time. Adonis Terry, of Chicago, is a fitting example for many a twirler. He was the league with such men as Galvin Klee, Welch, Mullane, Carruthers, Clarke, Ramsay and McCormick. All made their last struggle, and have dropped from view since Terry has been pitching. Terry's success shows how a pitcher of the older generation can overcome the new rules with all their handicaps and remain a clever twirler. He recently held Brooklyn down to four hits at Chicago.

FLIES.
"I may be a has-been, but that's better than a never-was," said Arlie Latham.
"Pig" Ward, lately released by Scranton, has been signed by Buckenberger, and will play second base for Toronto.

Pfeffer has made two errors in sixteen games, according to chances. Keeler has made 28 hits, with 27 totals, in eleven games.
Says O. P. Caylor: "Beating the Baltimore team is like killing a cat. In killing a cat it requires more than one whack, and you are never quite sure that the creature is dead after you've left it."

Dahlen, of Chicago, now leads the big league in batting, with Burkett second, and Jennings, of Baltimore, third.

Dan Brourthers says that the pitchers of the Eastern League are harder to hit than those of the National League.
Boston has released Joe Horrington. He lost a number of games for the Beaneaters during his connection with the team.
The Thistle Baseball Club defeated the Petrolia Barrel Company's baseball nine on Saturday afternoon in a very closely contested game, the score being 7 to 3. The Thistles play the London West Stars on the backyards grounds this morning.

LAWN BOWLING.
The London Bowling and Canoe Club will hold their annual meeting on Sept. 7.

ATHLETICS.
DICK JONES' CHALLENGE.
Owing to the statement which Dick Jones has recently heard with regard to his ability as a boxer, through The Advertiser he wishes to say that he is ready and willing to meet Charles Ryan (massively) at any time, and place, for any purpose, suitable to himself. It will be remembered that a few months ago "Ryan" defeated Jones in a ten-round glove contest in the Music Hall for the lightweight championship of the city, and there has been a dispute between the parties ever since.

THE TURF.
THE BIG FUTURITY STAKE.
New York, Aug. 15.—The great Futurity stakes of the Coney Island track, which have been the main attraction of the turf since the renewal has gone into history with an outsider as the winner. At exactly five minutes to five the bugle called the ten contestants to the post, and with little enthusiasm they trotted past the stand up to the chute. After a delay of 25 minutes they were sent away in fair order, with Ogden in the lead and Box second, Panmure third, and Rhodessa fourth. They did not shift in their positions until they were at the quarter pole. Ogden was still in front by a head only, but Tuberville had him well in hand, and was waiting for the final rush. The race was a close one, and only a head in front of Rodermund. Next came the favorite, Ornament, and it seemed that as if the race would be among these four, as the others were practically in the second division, and struggling hard to get up to the flying leaders. The "good thing" Challenger, was fifth, and laboring, while behind him were Bastian, Panmure, Box and Newsgrather, already out of the contest, while Tuberville and a Scottish Chiefman well in hand for the finish.

The speed was quickened a bit now, and as Tuberville urged Ogden a trifle he shot from the lead, and in front of him was the copper and green jacket of Tuberville on the other westerner, Ogden, still leading by half a length. Rodermund had by this time passed Rhodessa, who was trying to get in spite of all that Simms could do. Tuberville was trying his hardest with Scottish Chiefman, and was gaining inch by inch on the filly, who was slipping back slowly but surely.

They were now around the turn, and each boy could see the big purse hanging up at the judges' stand, filling chances for only four of them. The five-eighths was in sight, was passed, and the boys were working hard. Tuberville had him well in hand and was of Ornament, with Sloan unable to do much for his mount, as he was sadly tired, and had worked his passage half in front of Rodermund, with the others absolutely out of it, and all hope gone.

With only a furlong more, Sloan bent again to his work, and seemed to be gaining a trifle on the flying Ogden, when there was a crack in the atmosphere, and Ogden was in the nearly two lengths ahead and all chances had vanished as he slid past the judges' stand with $44,250 as his reward, and Ornament had to be content with second place by half a length and $3,666 66; Rodermund third, with $1,833 33; while the others were away out of it, badly beaten. The best year-old filly was still an open question, but the west had gained all the honors by running first and second. Summary:

Futurity, Futurity course—Ogden, 115 (Tuberville), 6 to 1, and 2 to 1, won; Ornament, 115 (Sloan), 9 to 5 and 4 to 5, second; Rodermund, 115 (Hill), 15 to 1, and 8 to 1, third. Times, 1:10. Scottish Chiefman, Rhodessa, Challenger, Box, Bastian, Panmure and Newsgrather also ran as named.

CONNOISSEUR WON.
Detroit, Aug. 16.—The Canadian horse Connoisseur—Seagram's entry—won the Goodall handicap yesterday, but it was a close call. Connoisseur was racing for life in the stretch, and but for an ill-timed rush by Jockey Thorpe, "Hops" Laidman's Ramiro would have beaten out the millionaire distiller's crack. Thorpe had waited a few seconds too long before going at Ramiro, and as it was over three lengths at the head of the stretch he cut Connoisseur's lead to a head at the finish, both horses about all out, but Connoisseur tiring less. Only six of the 59 nominated in the handicap took the issue, although it had been expected that the field would be a large and impressive one. The race was a mile and a sixteenth, for 3-year-olds and upwards, a sweepstake of $5 each, with $35 additional to stake and $1,000 added. Lobengula and Ramiro opened favorites at 2 to 1 against each of them. Connoisseur was 3 to 1, and was backed at 15 to 5. He won when the stable money began to pour in. D. A. Boyle's Havoc had been liked by one wing of the Canadian players, and was liberally supported on the start, but at the close had gone from 4 to 3 to 1. From 2 to 1 Ramiro went up to 16 to 1, and Lohi carried but "Chieftain."
They were sent away in good time, and Connoisseur took up the running. They were well bunched around the first turn, with Lohi second to the half, where she resigned, and then Lobengula and Havoc tried to get to the Seagram horse. The length of the stretch found Connoisseur a length before Havoc, which horse was two led Lobengula by a head and Ramiro was two lengths back. Thorpe set to work Ramiro, and sent the colt flying down the chute. Shaking off the others, she cut into Connoisseur's lead and Harry Lewis had to ride as best he could to save the money that had gone in on his mount. Every stride found Ramiro nearer, but the distance was too short and Connoisseur lasted just long enough to win by a head. Havoc was killed by the weight, and Lobengula could not stand the final drive.

THE WHEEL.
THE LOUISVILLE RACES.
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 15.—Following are the summaries of the races:
The half mile, L. A. W. won, championship—Tom Butler, Boston; E. C. Bald, Buffalo, 2; Arthur Gardiner, Chicago, 3; Tom Cooper, Detroit, 4. Time, 1:14.
Five mile, L. A. W. national championship—W. E. Becker, Chicago, 1; E. S. Acker, Philadelphia, 2; Nat Butler, Boston, 3. Time, 12:18 2-5. Cooper finished first, but was disqualified.
One mile open, professional—W. Co-burn, St. Louis, 1; F. Hallen, Syracuse, 2; E. C. Bald, Buffalo, 3. Time, 2:13 2-5.
Two mile handicap, professional—W. C. Sanger, scratch, 1; A. D. Kennedy, 2; J. C. Callahan, 3. Time, 4:25 2-5.

CRICKET.
TOO MUCH FOR PITTSBURG.
Toronto, Ont., Aug. 16.—The Home-stead cricketers played the Toronto club Saturday and were defeated. The Pittsburgh players made 88, of which Macpherson had 46 and W. Guest 18. Toronto made 245 for six wickets. Cooper had 102, not out.

Shutting Down.

Several Big Mills Closed—Express Men Strike.

Michigan Car Shops Will Open Again as Soon as Orders Come in.

Detroit, Aug. 16.—The Michigan car department of the Michigan Pen-sinsular Car Company, located on the west side, shut down yesterday for lack of orders, and a large number of men have been temporarily reduced to idleness.
New York, Aug. 16.—Employees of the Adams Express Company in this city and Jersey City to the number of 600 went on strike yesterday. They allege that since President Wilson took charge of the company's affairs in the east wages have been reduced about one-third, and that many old and efficient employees of the company have been discharged for trivial reasons.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—The Indiana bicycle works, employing 1,500 hands, and making and repairing bicycles, closed yesterday after the election. Chas. F. Smith, president of the company, said: "The uncertainty of the future of the company has shut down yesterday after the election. We have half a million dollars out now, and we want to know what we are to realize on that before we put more money at the present value into stock."
Summersworth, N. H., Aug. 15.—Summers 2 and 3 mills of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company shut down last evening, throwing 1,000 hands out of employment.

ENTERPRISING LIBERALS

West Elgin Folks Have a Successful Picnic.

Dutton, Aug. 15.—The Liberals of West Elgin held a most successful and enjoyable picnic at Koehlers' pleasure grounds, near Tyroneville, yesterday. Several thousand persons attended, and a platform meeting against the side of a hill, embowered in Union Jacks, the speech-makers held sway, while far below, on either side of the hill, the cheering of the multitude was heard. Those who were called on by the chairman were Messrs. Jonas Gossnell and Angus Glanders, of Orford; Arch Galbraith, Duntich, A. D. McGugan, and D. Lang, Aldborough; D. Ferguson, Southwold; Colin St. C. Leitch, Dutton; John Heycraft, Duntich; James S. Brerley, St. Thomas; F. Hunt, Southwold; Dr. Cascard, ex-M.P.P.; D. Macneil, M.P.P.; Dr. Thompson, and a curious custom prevailed of presenting each unhappy wretch with a nosegay.
A rather condition of Dowe's gift was that the greatest bell was always to "tinkle" as a passing bell on the occasion of an execution until 10 a.m. of the day after the execution. The story of St. Sepulchre, though somewhat economical, took good care of their bells, for the great bell of 1868 we find that all the broken bell metal was forced to be recast into "three sound and tunable bells," which were to be of equal weight, but of different quantities of metal delivered. The other three bells belonging to the church apparently escaped injury from the fire, for on the 16th of March, 1868, the Mayor ordered a frame to be made to hang the six bells in the steeple.
The tablet recording Dowe's bequest is still in existence, but the instructions are no longer regarded. The Charity Commissioners having taken possession of the funds, which are now applied for the benefit of the Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society. The great bell of St. Sepulchre's has not been tolled since the execution of an execution since August, 1868, when Martin, a Belgian, was hanged for the murder of a fellow-countryman.

ICE FAMINE

At St. Louis—Prices High and the Demand Has Increased.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—An ice famine is imminent in St. Louis. The cold spell which has closed the ice harvest has exhausted the stock in nearly all the local icehouses, and prices have advanced. Jumping the price up to the rate of 5 cents a hundred every time the dealers called upon them for a better price.
Dealers have found it necessary to begin shipping in from northern points and many of them have not been able to supply the demand.
The seriousness of the situation may be imagined from the fact that there has been practically no ice harvested for two years in what is known as the best field.

There has probably never been a time in the history of St. Louis when so much ice has been used in so short a time as within the last fortnight. This was caused by the calls for ice among the suffering poor, to whom it has always been a necessity, and by the forbidden luxury. The small dealers report that the 5 and 10 cent trade increased beyond the possibility of filling the orders, and even those who managed to secure money enough to buy a small piece of ice to cool the parched lips of a suffering patient or over-worked person who by half-famished in a rear room were not always able to get it.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhea, cholera, and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a cure, and even those who should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

A Difficult Question Before the Government.

Cross-Petition Against Mr. W. T. R. Preston—The Post of Deputy Postmaster General.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
Ottawa, Aug. 15.—The Government has before it a difficult question in the matter of private secretaries' salaries. Many holding these positions have left the medical and legal profession to do so, and as they have not passed the examinations required by the Civil Service Act are permitted to draw but $800 per annum. Hitherto the difficulty has been overcome by suspending the operation of the act, but this must be done in the case of each individual private secretary it is objected to. The Government, it is believed, will make such amendments to the Civil Service Act as will permit holders of these positions to be fairly compensated without passing the civil service examinations.

In Osceola Hall, Tuesday night, Edmund Bristol will, on behalf of E. B. Osler, enter a cross-petition against W. T. R. Preston, charging unlawful acts on the part of himself and his agent, and asking that he be disqualified.

The position of Deputy Postmaster-General under Hon. Wm. Mulock will probably go to Daniel Spry, postoffice inspector of the London division, which includes Essex county. Mr. Spry is a prominent Mason and a member of the A. O. U. W. Forty years ago he commanded a postoffice clerk in Toronto.

The lacrosse match between the Shamrocks, of Montreal, and the Tebeles, of this city, played on the corner of this resulted in a victory for the latter by 6 goals to 1. It took one hour and seventeen minutes for the Tebeles to secure their goal. The visitors won the last game by a fluke, the ball rolling between the flags from the thick of a scrimmage.

Accidents and prostrations by the heat called the ambulance out nineteen times yesterday.

ROBERT DOWE'S QUEER IDEA.

He Left $50 for What He Thought the Benefit of Men About to Die.

Pail Mail Gazette.
Less than a decade is wanting to complete three centuries since Robert Dowe, citizen and merchant tailor, by deed of gift conveyed to the Parish of St. Sepulchre the sum of £50. The object of the gift was peculiar, and may best be understood from the words of the deed itself, which recites that the money was given "on condition that the parish of St. Sepulchre should, with the approbation of the Lord Mayor, Bishop of London, hereafter at every session holden for the prisoners in the year, shall about the hour of ten of the clock in the quiet of the night next before every Execution, appoint one to go into Newgate, there to stand as near the window as he can where the condemned prisoners do lie in the Dungeon, with a hand-bell in his hand, and to give notice to the prisoners of the hour of their execution, and shall there give Twelve solemn Towsles with double strokes, and then deliver with a loud and audible voice, with his face toward the prison window, to the end the poor condemned persons may give good heed to a rather long exhortation, which at a later date seems to have been verified as follows:

"All ye that in the condemned hold do lie,
Prepare ye, for tomorrow ye shall die;
Watch all and pray, the hour is drawing near,
That ye before the Almighty must appear;
Examine well yourselves, in time repent;
That ye may not to eternal flames be sent.
And when St. Sepulchre's bell tomorrow tolls,
The Lord above have mercy on your souls.
Past twelve o'clock!"

As the criminals passed by the church on their way to Tyburn, a further admonition was addressed to them, and a curious custom prevailed of presenting each unhappy wretch with a nosegay.
A rather condition of Dowe's gift was that the greatest bell was always to "tinkle" as a passing bell on the occasion of an execution until 10 a.m. of the day after the execution. The story of St. Sepulchre, though somewhat economical, took good care of their bells, for the great bell of 1868 we find that all the broken bell metal was forced to be recast into "three sound and tunable bells," which were to be of equal weight, but of different quantities of metal delivered. SIR WILLIAM NAPIER'S peninsular gold medal for Salamanca, with clasps for Nivelle and Nive, together with his K. C. B. badge and his general's sash were sold at auction in London recently for $1,625. This was the Napier who wrote the history of the peninsular war. A Victoria Cross brought $350. A collection of American Indian chief's medals was sold at the same price; one of 1860, with the Queen's bust and the Prince of Wales's plumes bringing $140, and one of 1840, $160. The Order of the Red Button of China brought $137.

HENRY BREST, through whom the Venus de Milo came into the hands of the French in 1813, has just died, over 100 years old, on the Island of Rhé, where he had married a Greek woman. He happened to be on the spot when the peasants first dug up the statue, and struck by its beauty, the order, and the nature of the secret, notified the French consul and arranged for the delivery of the statue to the crew of the French man-of-war that came to Milo to carry it away.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It cures all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

Fire-Track and Trolley

Come Together With a Terrible Crash.

Every Fireman on the Truck Injured—Two Fatally Crushed.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 16.—At daylight this morning a fire truck No. 6, with a crew consisting of Lieut. Hodden and seven firemen, while responding to an alarm, collided with a trolley car at the corner of Watte avenue and Syracuse street. The truck was stretched across the street car tracks, when the trolley, which was running at full speed, struck it. Every fireman on the truck was injured.

John F. Clarke was pinned under the truck and crushed to death. His lungs were perforated by the rung of a ladder.
Fred Jacky went under the truck and received a concussion of the spine. He cannot recover.
The others injured are: Lieut. Hodden, Michael Rosenberger, John W. Brooks, Nicholas Noeller, Anthony Manhard.

The motor car was smashed to pieces, but the motorman escaped with but slight injuries. Both the motorman and conductor of the car have been arrested. James Cowan, the motorman, is blamed for the accident. He says he heard the fire going, but did not slow up, as he thought he could cross the street ahead of the truck.

Winston, N. C., Aug. 17.—Capt. J. W. Coslin, editor of the Winston Republican, in stepping off a car this afternoon, fell, and his head struck the macadamized pavement, producing a concussion of the brain, and causing death in two hours after the accident. Deceased was 55 years old. He was a gallant soldier during the war, and was promoted to captain of his company.

PRACTICAL ALMSGIVING.

Why Sam Jones Helped a Wealthy Man to Find Heaven.

The following story of a somewhat famous preacher in America is probably true. We hope it is. It indicates the way to heaven in a manner, no sacrament nor creed can hope to rival, says London Light.
"The question, 'Where is heaven?' was put to Sam Jones by one of his wealthy church members in Georgia, whose cotton crop yielded him some $20,000 the last year. 'Where is heaven?' said the rich planter. 'I'll tell you where heaven is,' said Mr. Jones. 'If you will go down to the village and buy $50 worth of groceries, put them in a wagon, and take them to that poor widow on the hillside who has three of her children sick. She is poor, and is a member of the church. Take with you a nurse, and someone to cook their meals. When you get there read the 23rd Psalm and kneel by her side and pray. Then you will find out where heaven is.'"

"Next day as the evangelist was walking through the village, he met the same wealthy planter, his face beaming with joy. He spoke after this manner: 'Mr. Jones, I've found out where heaven is. I went as you directed me. We took up the wagon load of groceries, and the poor widow was completely overcome with joy. She could not express her thankfulness. As I read to her the 23rd Psalm, my heart was filled with thankfulness to God; and, when I prayed, the angels came, and I thought I was nearer to heaven than I ever had been in my life. I left the nurse and cook to her humble dwelling, and promised her she should never suffer so long as I could help her.'"
