CITY POLICE CHANGES.

Some Important Business by the Commissioners.

Detective Phair's Relatives Get $1,170 Benefit-New Revolvers for the Force -Eight-Hour Duty in Winter-P. C. Nickle Made Detective -- Other De-served Promotions -- Mere Pay for of 39 medical men of this city, including the medical officer of the force, Dr. Brown, who gave it as their opinion that long hours of continuous duty, especially in severe weather, was injurious to the health of the men, and suggosted that duties be conducted by reliefs, give time for rest and refreshment between. The present street duty is ten hours in the day and eight hours at night. The chief recommended that day and night actual street duty be eight hours each, conducted in two relays—three and five hours in the day and four and four at night. This would necessitate three additional men on the force.

After discussion the board resolved to increase the force by three men and to adopt the eight-hour scheme from Dec. I to March 31; hours for the remainder of the year to be the same as now.

BETTER PAY FOR OFFICERS.
The chief also said he had made inquiries and found that the constables of London were paid qually as well as in other cities, but the officers were not. It was decided to increase the pay of sergeants and detectives from $60 to $65 a month dating from Nov. 1.

Disped With Her Uncle and Married Here.

Pretty 16-year-old Carrie Pearson, of Minden, Mich., has eloped with her 60-year-old uncle, Herbert Hoskin. Hoskin has lived in the Pearson home for two years past, and with courtly manner and kind ways completely won the affections of his nicce. For weeks past her parents have suspected that the affection was not natural, and had planned to send Carrie to a board sechool next week. She heard of the plan, and the two lovers at once decided to run away. They arrived in Toronto and put up at the St. James' Hotel, where they were found yesterday afternoon by Wm. Pearson, another uncle of the girl. The old gentleman produced a marriage certificate showing that they had been married in this city Thursday, and the pursuer decided to abandon the idea of having Herbert Hoskin arrested for abduction. The trio returned to Michigan on the 6 o'clock C. P. R. express last evening.

Still They Go.

The family of Mr. Theo. Allen, the well-known drygoods merchant, will shortly leave this city to join Mr. Allen in Hartford, Conn., where one of the sons-been living for some years. Mr. Allen's many friends in this city, though sorry to lose his counsel and companionship, will be pleased to know that he has secured a desirable position in one of Hartford's prominent drygoods houses. London is a loser by the departure of Mr. Allen, who was an efficient church and Sunday school worker and an accomplished musician.
