Maclean took him by the throat, and Mr. Livernash came to Ottawa and the senate placed a room in the parliament buildings at his disposal until he had succeeded in killing the bill at the instance of the Alaska Transportation Company, whose agent he was. Mr. Cowan paid a warm tri-bute to the government for the expedition with which the Canadian contingents had been dispatched, and congratulated the members of the various corps for the endurance and heroism they had displayed. The rousing cheers which greeted his denunciation of the efforts of Sir Charles Tupper and his party to stir up strife between the provinces by the policy of duplicity which they were pursuing in reference to the question of Canada's relation to the empire, indicated that the convention was in hearty accord with him. Mr. W. H. Taylor, M.P.P., also spoke briefly, and then one of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions held in the riding dispersed with the determination to give a practical illustra-tion of the motto, "What We Have We'll Hold."
