He spoke last night of the joy it gave him to point to the splendid record of the Canadian soldiers in South Africa.

The Daily Patriot of Lisbon, Ohio, in a recent issue says of Mr. "Rev. George Fowler begins his third year with the Christian Church under the most favorable auspices. The past two years have been among the best in the long history of the church. The work of last year has developed until the demand comes for a larger seating capacity and a more comfortable and more modern church interior. Plans have been prepared by Mr. Cameron, of Salem, and will be submitted to a meeting of the congregation on Friday evening, at which the soliciting and building committees will be appointed. The Christian Church, never n a better condition than at present, is most aggressive, and must advance and prosperous city. Rev. Fowler, entering on his third year, has bright prospects before him."

CRUSHED UNDER

Terrible Death of G. T. R. Em-

Stepped Off One Engine and Was Struck by Another, and Instantly Killed.

William Taylor, of 114 Wilson avenue, West London, was instantly killed on Saturday afternoon in the Grand Trunk Railway yards here. In descending from an engine he stepped in the way of a shunting yard engine, and was knocked down beneath the wheels.

The accident occurred at a siding near the repair shops between Waterloo and Colborne streets. Taylor, who was em Lodge, and among those who marched were D. D. G. Presidents J. W. Cudliff, of Ingersoll, and A. Flawn, of Beresford Lodge, London. was getting up steam in engine No. 309 for a run out of London. He had appar-A large congregation was present at the church. adjoining track to procure a tool, when yard engine No. 659, with Engineer James Larkin in the cab, struck him. The yard engine was backing, and was so close to Taylor when he descended from engine No. 309, that he had no time to save himself. He was horribly mangled, his head being crushed to a shapeless mass.

The wife of the unfortunate man is prostrated with grief. Two little girls also survive.

The victim of the terrible accident was born in England 38 years ago. He belonged to St. George's Church, West London, and was an industrious and exemplary young man. He had been employed for two years past at the roundhouse, and prior to that time worked at the railway coal chutes in the east end. A brothers is employed on the C. P. R.

The circumstances of the accident were very similar to those surrounding the death of Call Boy Simcoe in the yards a few weeks ago. Coroner MacLaren, after inquiry into the accident, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The remains will be interred tomorrow morning.
