To 2-1 Victory in the NinthMighty Triple in Last Inning Breaks Tie Caused by Tiger Errors
—Rhoades Hit Hard, But Jennings' Men Score
But Two Runs.

Detroit, Sept. 4.—As a spectacular finish to a baseball game, that of Thursday was all that the most rabid fan could ask. It was a finish that brought the crowd to its feet in a roar of approbation, one to endure the mighty Sam Crawford to his hosts of Detroit admirers. Of the hundreds who called upon Sam to hit a home run in the ninth after Cleveland had tied the score in their half of the innings, not one really expected it probably. When Sam's great swing came around the end of the bleachers the fans went wild. It was not a home run, but it was only because of Crawford's terrific leg, which slowed him up very noticeably. But what Sam lacked in speed, he made up for in power. He threw the plate back a nasty bound, going over Benis' head and then Crawford, who had been held in third, cantered over the plate.

Crowd Chased Him.
And that didn't end the running of the man from Wahoo. The crowd poured upon the field and chased him to the club house, anxious to carry him as the hero of the day.

There was more in that one hit than in all the rest of the game, except possible gloom when successive errors by Mullin and Rossman allowed the Naps to make the score one and one.

"Dusty" Rhoades was never hard for the Tigers to hit. They got at least one safe one in each inning, but they could not work a score across until the fourth. Schmidt drew four wide ones to start things in that period. Coughlin followed with a pretty sacrifice down the first base line. Days fanned and Mullin came through with his second hit of the day. McIntyre put a single to left which scored Schmidt. Schaefer left to Birmingham.

More Action.
Things looked like more action in the fifth, but hope died an untimely death. Crawford singled and went to second on Cobb's hit. Then Rhoades hit to Bradley and Sam took third. Schmidt was busy drawing a base on balls when Ross decided to try for second. Sam was held while the base line eventually being tagged out by Perring. Coughlin ended the inning by fouling to Benis.

Cleveland's only tally happened in the ninth. Lajoie started things by singling to centre. Stovall, attempting to sacrifice, bunted to Mullin. George attempted to catch the Nap leader at second, but threw wide. Benis followed with another bunt. Rossman gathered it in and made a back hand toss to Downs, who was covering first. The ball came within about ten feet of Jerry, and the bases were full. Turner went in to bat for Birmingham, but only fanned. Perring was there, however, with a long sacrifice fly to Crawford and the score was tied. Rhoades was easy for Downs and Rossman.

Lots of Ginger.
But best of all, the team looked right. Cobb was full of life and ginger again, while Crawford's presence in the game spoke for itself. Sam got three hits, while Cobb, Rossman and Mullin garnered two each. Downs and Schmidt were the only ones who failed to touch Rhoades. Mullin was there all the way, showing well in the box as well as at bat.

Flick won the hearts of the crowd by a classy double play in the seventh. Rossman singled to centre and was sacrificed to second by Schmidt. Capt. Bill followed with a long drive to right, Flick fell as he came up with Birmingham and the runner ran. He had caught it before going down, however, and a toss to Lajoie retired the Tigers. Jo-Jo Keenan a Rival of Cy Young

The Toronto Star hands the following bouquets to Jo-Jo Keenan, the speedy London thrower, now playing with the Toronto Eastern League team:

"Old Cy" Young, of the Boston Americans, who is looked upon as the one ancient landmark in baseball, has a rival in Jo Keenan, shortstop of the Toronto team. Since Keenan's name has appeared in the Toronto line-up there has been much speculation as to who the new man is. When Larry Schaffy, the Toronto manager, was asked as to the identity of his new shortstop, he replied:

"Oh, that's Kid Keenan. We picked him up in the International League."

In applying "Kid" to Keenan, Schaffy made no mistake, as Keenan hopped around the diamond like a two-year-old, which was a surprising fact, when it is known that Keenan has been playing ball for more than thirty years. Keenan hails from western New York, and is forty-eight years old. He started playing on independent teams when about eighteen years of age. Twenty years ago he was one of the stars in the semi-professional class in the metropolitan district, when he played on the Senators, Flushing, Ridgewood, and other old-time teams of the metropolis. Fifteen years ago he played second base for the famous Plainfield Crescents, along with Billy Keeler, Tuck Turner, Frank Bonner, and others, who joined big league company later on. After the Crescents disbanded Keenan retraced his steps to Western New York, where he gained fame playing on the Hornellville and Corning independent teams.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BOBBY KERR FOR LONDON. Such was the announcement made last night at a meeting of the Western Fair Athletic committee. The blonde Hamilton spruifer will be pitted to either compete or give an exhibition against time at the Western Fair athletic meet on Sept. 14, and it is confidently expected that he will accept.

IN ADDITION to thirty-two medals the fair committee will donate a number of handsome cups, the latter now being on exhibition in Gillespie's window. An innovation that will prove popular is to present the winners of the medals their prizes at the time as soon as they finish. The cups will be presented later.

THE COVER of the Maple Leaf Club, Toronto, quelling tournament programme contains a full-length portrait of Bob Callender, champion quilter of Canada. The cut is labelled "Bob in Action," and shows the great quilter preparing to deliver one of his famous "peavies." The quilter tournament begins on the 10th and runs to the 12th. Local quilters will compete.

THE TOURNAMENT will be held at Kew Beach. The officers in charge will be President W. H. Lewis, Treasurer D. Leslie; Secretary W. T. Sargent, Chairman S. Smith, Vice-Chairman C. Ellis.

MR. MAT BROWN, the local quilter, is requested to call at or telephone the Advertising sporting department.

SCHAEFER, OF HALIFAX, who recently beat the pistol and Bobby Kerr in a 100-yard dash, refused to again meet his Boblets after the latter had remained over in Halifax for four days for another meeting. This is poor sportsmanship, and the meeting will be set down as a 20-minute chase.

MONTREAL HAS BEGUN morning practice. This would indicate that the easterners intend to come prepared to take another strong Interoceanic lock when the senior finals roll around again. And with Pete Flett to help out, it looks as though old Hamilton would get another much-needed bumping. This is not a prediction. It is a wish.

THE HAMILTON SPEC'S juvenile harpoon thrower has developed into a humorist of the Podunk variety. His latest fling is to "beat" London. How beautiful this world is. The London "Tiger" has maintained silence for two whole days. Welcome relief.

WOODSTOCK has lately become most precocious. Today the London rinks will attempt to properly subdue the Baby City trundlers in their own back lot.

ACTION IN BUENOS is promised in tomorrow's big battle between the

LATEST RUGBY GOSSIP

London has nothing to lose and everything to win by placing a strong Interoceanic team on the gridiron this season. Judging by the enthusiasm displayed the turn out at next Tuesday night's practice will be the best in years.

The O. R. F. U. has given up the idea of trying to have a senior series, and it is likely that if the Interoceanic decides to have an intermediate and junior series, the O. R. F. U. will decide to drop its intermediate and junior series also.

"The T. A. A. C. people went down on their marrow bones before the C. A. A. U., and now having been duly washed, desire to tell that body to go chase itself around the block. As the poet says:

"How sharper than the serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child."

To have a thankless child."—Toronto Telegram.

Now that the C. A. A. U. has looked with favor on the Interoceanic Union it is probable that London will cast its lot in with that organization. At a recent meeting if the C. A. A. U. the following resolution was adopted:

"That the application of athletes desirous of competing in the Interoceanic Rugby Football Union be granted, provided that the Interoceanic Union's definition of an amateur be maintained, and that the constitution be strictly enforced."

In order to clear up a common misunderstanding about the principles of the Interoceanic Union, it was made plain that the amateur definition of the footballers is identical with that of the C. A. A. U. and distinctly prohibits the looseness that is the essential principle of the federation.

The action of the C. A. A. U. in recognizing the Interoceanic Union will simplify matters a great deal, and several local players who had objected to playing on these grounds will now turn out. His parents' consent is all that blocks Gordon Southern now—Hamilton Spectator.

Kingston Whig: Nothing as yet has been heard about a senior, junior or intermediate Rugby team this season, and it is drawing quite close to the time for the players to get moving in that direction. There are loads of good material in the city just waiting anxiously for the chance to get out and do something in the football line.

Nearly all the seniors of last year are in the city. Crawford, Laird, Birch, Crozier, Mooney, Bearance, Moxley, Comeau, Holder, Roberts, Madden and many others are still here, Potts being about the only absentee. From these men a first-class team could be chosen, and if they start to work early enough they may amount to something before the season is over. The same management that has taken the team and also taken a junior team for the O. R. F. U. There are lots of players for both, and if the same management has both it makes it far better and not quite so expensive as if they were single.

Why should the Tigers favor the Argonauts? The reason is that the Argonauts are wanting admission to the Interoceanic Union. Hamilton is anxious to beat the best Toronto can produce. Let the Toronto A. C. W. H. Gladish, the secretary of the Toronto City Rugby League, and has therefore had experience in the game. Gladish was formerly secretary of the Toronto City Rugby League, and has therefore had experience in the game. Gladish was formerly secretary of the Toronto City Rugby League, and has therefore had experience in the game.

ATHLETES WISHING to enter at the Western Fair events should have their entries in Mr. Hunt's hands before or on Thursday, Sept. 10, at that hour. Entries must be registered in the C. A. A. U. Registration can be made at the London T. M. C. A.

THREE O'CLOCK is the time set for the fracas in the East End tomorrow, and the players should be ready to jump in at the battle at that hour. Fans are also requested to remember that the collection will be a silver one, not by baseballs, bats, etc., or pay off the umpires.

ONE OF THE STRATHROY baseball teams is in for a rough time at Labor Day, when the fast Greys, of the Springfield League, invade that town. The Greys are one of the fastest aggregations of ballplayers that ever held Manager King, of the street railway, up for free transportation to Springfield, and they would win the riverside raglan this year out for one thing—there wasn't any offered.

LOST—One Mt. Linda baseball team. Supposed to have struck for the tall uncut area press time yesterday. Finder will please notify this office and receive a press ticket to the ball game.

They Take Double From Boston, Making It Twice in a Week.

Boston, Sept. 3.—New York repeated its feat of Tuesday by winning two games from Boston today, the first 6 to 0 and the second 5 to 5, before a small crowd. Both games were hard fought but the timely hitting of the visitors enabled them to win. There were some spectacular plays made by each team, the New York men having four double plays to their credit in the first contest and Boston one.

McGinnity pitched the first game for the visitors and his good work with men on bases was a feature. In the second game New York found Dornier easy and he was taken out in the third. Chappelle, who succeeded him, pitched well and was taken out in the eighth to call Bates to bat when it looked as though Boston had a chance to tie the score. Ames was invincible up to the seventh, but three hits and a base on balls off him in that inning caused his retirement. Mathewson went in to save the game, but after the visitors had scored three runs in the ninth through Ferguson's wildness, Taylor was substituted.

HEFFERN GETS A GRAND RECEPTION

Cape Town, Sept. 3.—Heffern, the ex-Canadian who led the Olympic Marathoners to within two miles of home, where Dorando passed him, and who finished just behind J. J. Hayes, was given a great reception here on his arrival last night. The cabinet ministers attended the banquet in his honor.

Changes on the moon's surface, especially near the crater Linnaeus, are now recognized by Pickering, Barnard and others. It is concluded that the diminution of a white patch must be a melting of hoar frost or sunrise and that the deposition and melting of frost must be taking place in other parts of the moon.

Stanfield's Underwear

(Chapter 1)

A Talk by the Maker to the Wearer.

The Wool

Stanfield's Underwear is made of the best wool that grows on the best wool-bearing sheep in the world—the long, silky-fibred Nova Scotia wool.

The founder of the Stanfield mills did more than anyone else to develop the wool industry throughout the Maritime Provinces. For half a century, the farmers of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island have saved their best wool for the Stanfields—first for C. E. Stanfield and now for his sons, John and Frank, the President and Treasurer of Stanfields Limited.

The wear of a garment depends on the quality of wool from which it is made. Underwear may be PURE WOOL, and ALL WOOL—and still shrink, ravel and wear out in a single season. Because the underwear is not made of good wool in the first place.

There are seven grades of wool in the fleece when clipped from Nova Scotia sheep. Only the first three grades of this best wool are used in making Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear for men and women.

There are no weak spots in the fibre to break in the garments.

There can be no unraveling, because every stitch is locked.

Garments can't shrink, because of our perfected process of treating the wool BEFORE garments are woven, thus insuring absolutely Unshrinkable Underwear.

In all sizes from 22 to 70 inch chest measure. In three winter weights—RED label for light weight—BLUE label for medium weight—BLACK label for heavy weight.

Your dealer probably has all sizes and weights in stock. If not, he can easily get whatever you wish.
