"Every man his own policeman," was the principle which operated successfully for Mr. George W. Chapman, of 43 Stanley street, Saturday evening, when he succeeded in ejecting a tough-looking character from the city The "ejectee" was about the rough est looking "box" that ever slipped off the brake rods. Thick-set and slouchy

the man left the freight that evidently brought him near the Wortley road bridge, and proceeded to ask for as sistance at a number of Stanley street houses. Those who gazed upon him were not disposed to offer him the guest room, and when he arrived at B. Clarke, Rev. Mr. Harrison, Rev. the home of Mr. Chapman and made his plea, he was closely questioned. Mr. Chapman was asked to take the ness of character of Mrs. Hague, which man in for the night. He said that had won for her so many friends, not he had hurt his foot. Evangelist T. L. Belcher preached Sunday evening in the York Street Mission on "The Dying Grain of Wheat," or "Death Through Life." Life, another name for love, prompted Christ to sacrifice Himself for others. The seeming death of the grain of wheat was really the beginning of a greater life. The Christian must die to his own strength, mental, moral and spiritual, before he can succeed in God. The attendance was very large.

Mr. R. Morris, of St. George, Ont., is visiting his son, Major Morris, commander of the Western Ontario district of the Salvation Army. PEOPLE'S SERVICE

Held in the King Stret Presbyterian

A special young people's service was held this evening in the Dundas Street | held in King Street Presbyterian Christian Church, Miss Hall, Christ- Church on Sunday evening, Sunday an Endeavor secretary for Ontario, being Young People's Day throughout will give an address, and Rev. W. R. all the Presbyterian churches in the mented for the occasion, and Mrs. Wyatt, soloist of the Colborne Street The Boy Scouts of the First Metn- Methodist Church, assisted. The Scripture readings, consisting of five passages from different chapters in the Bible, were read by five of the young people of the church. Rev. Mr. McIntosh gave a brief address, in which he dealt with the great work being undertaken by the Presbyterian churches this year in the evangelizing of Korea. He explained how Korea had been a hermit ountry for hundreds of years, practically having no intercourse with the outside world, and how in the last 25 years it has just been opened up, and efforts made to Christianize it. In this great work, the Presbyterians were playing an important part, and many missionaries were being sent out each year. The young people should be especially interested in the work, and in raising money for these missions.

should do all in their power to assist Miss E. Hall, secretary of the Chris tian Endeavor Society of Ontario and Quebec, also addressed the congregation. She made an urgent appeal to the young people to help in the splendid fight that was being waged in Korea for Christ, and impressed upon them the necessity of being missionaries themselves and doing good in Canada. The young people of Canada are cold toward missions and missionary enterprises, and they are apparently satisfied with doing only a little to further this great work. This was not the proper missionary spirit, and Miss Hall appealed to the young people, and all those who are interested in church work, to get into closer touch with the work. Special anthems were rendered

CHICKEN STEALING

Matter Is Likely To Be Aired in the Police Court. A case of chicken stealing which will ikely be aired in the police court took place in the vicinity of Nelson and Maitland streets on Saturday evening. It seems a Hebrew lady, who resides in that vicinity, has a large number of hens. On Saturday evening a raid was made on the hen coop, and seven of the who took the hens were apparently out after a meal, for they adjourned to a house in the vicinity and made preparations to cook the stolen hens. In the meantime, the theft was discovered. and the owner of the pullets, together with several friends, went to the house where the feast was being prepared, and demanded the poultry. When they were not forthcoming, the police were notified, and a couple of constables were soon on the scene. The hens had been devoured in the meantime, and the only thing the police could do was to take the names of those who presided at the banquet. The owner of the hens was advised to make a complaint, but she went home to think it over. It was thought that the case would be up in the police court this morning, but the lady has not lodged the complaint as yet. The police have the names of the guilty parties, and it is likely they will
