Thirteenth Month Event

—Only Two Yuletide Days Are Left—

The special offerings are certainly appreciated by the way they have been snapped up! But the opportunities for the last two days—tomorrow (Saturday), and Monday are just as big as they were on the first day of this short but tremendously lucky Thirteenth Month. Some of the things listed here for Saturday may be JUST WHAT YOU WANT, and the prices are so much less than at any other time.

THIRTEENTH MONTH EVENT.

CHECK GINGHAMS, 29c Yard

A special purchase of one thousand yards of fine Gingham and Chambrays. All are selected from the new 1924 spring line. The opportunity to secure this lot ahead of time, and at a price that means a saving of money to you, is the reason for the sale. Buy now for January sewing of house dresses, aprons, rompers, girls' dresses, etc. Note special width, 32 inches. Saturday, 29c yard.

A special feature of this Gingham sale is the new solid color background with checks, as well as popular small checks and solid checks, giving you lots to choose from of the latest Gingham ideas, with plain Chambray to match most of them. Some new colors are listed here in green, yellow, orange, pumpkin, mauve, delph red, sky, alic, pink, also black and white. See window display. Saturday sale. 29c yard

Imported Lingerie Crepes, 29c. The very latest productions of one of the best makers of fine Crepes, all new patterns shown for the first time for Christmas selling, and now offered to you for tomorrow at a clearing price. Very pretty shades of sky, flesh, orchid and yellow backgrounds, as well as white, all with pretty colored—birds and some special figures for children's wear. Buy these for nightgowns and underwear. They wash easily and look dainty made up. About 500 yards only. Saturday sale, 29c yard.

Your Shopping Service

The last bright ribbon and gay little seal has been fixed in its place; and the last belated cards and parcels have been mailed. You have had a few days to recover from the whirlwind shopping of the last few weeks.

But you can't stop shopping because Christmas is over any more than you can stop ordering provisions right after the Christmas dinner. There are the ever-necessary household requirements which may be advantageously purchased during the year-end sales of the "Thirteenth Month."

Many of you are thinking about replenishing the wardrobes of sons and daughters who are home from boarding-school and college. For the well-equipped wardrobe of September has invariably suffered severe ravages by the end of the term. There is a varied assortment of socks and shirts and pajamas and suits; as well as fluffy dance frocks, new silk hose, and smart little dresses for the classroom.

Just a word to our out-of-town customers! For assistance and suggestions in choosing these important new things for your home or your children; for samples and prices of the season's new fabrics; or for information about any of the fascinating things mentioned in our advertising, just write to
