Wilkins will referee, and the kick-off at 5:15 p.m.

The London Garrison team, which have been recently reorganized will play host to the St. John's Rovers and should put up an interesting rame against the St. Thomas team. The game will be played at Carling Height and the kick-off is at 5:30 p.m. A. Noblewill be in charge of the game. The Rovers' line-up is not yet to hand, but reports are that they have a strong side and will give a good account themselves. side and will give a good account of themselves.

The game in St. Thomas is between the United Vets and Westminster Hospital, at the athletic grounds. A. All man will referee, and the kick-off is a 5:30. The hospital has got together a strong side, and hope to open the season with a win, but will find tour opposition when they stack up again the Vets, who have been team-buildin and can be assured will give the western of the western as good run on Saturday.
