Peter Elson of East Middlesex, regstered a vigorous kick because the Union Jack was not flying from the tower on Monday last, July 2nd, when the seventh regiment of London and G. F. F. G. were on Parliament hill. Hon: Mr. Hyman replied that the flag was always up on holidays and it was on Sunday last, Dominion day. Monday was the second, not the first of July. The minister said instructions to the caretaker were of a general character. Mr. MacDonnell. Toronto mainland. said that the flag should be flying every said that the flag should be flying every day during the season and Mr. Foster strongly endorsed this.

Mr. Foster called attention to the "sad news" from Dawson to the effect that Hatfield the rainmaker, had falled to make good. He read from a Dawson paper a statement by one of the Indian medicine men to the effect that by his magic he was stopping Hatfield's game. He humorously wished to know what the big father of all Indians (Oliver) had to say. Mr. Oliver merely replied that the government believed in home rule. Indians and rainmakers could have it out among themselves.

A Ludicrous Incident

The amendment of Mr. Pringles to permit freight trains to run through to their destination on Sunday was rejected. The bill was then reported. A sprited debate followed but eventually the motion carried by 74 to 42. Five Liberals, Guthrie, Martin, Bourassa, Lavergne and Kennedy, (Westminster), voted with the interiority while three Conservatives, Monk, Perley, and Pauquet with majority. ANAIMO, July 6.—(Special.)—
In line with the general police In line with the general policy adopted by the E. & N. railway to place the road in first class shape work will be commenced in a few days on the reconstruction of the Millstream bridge just outside the city. A party of engineers arrived today and are making a preliminory survey. As proposed now an arch will be placed in the centre of the bridge and it will then be filled in with steam shovels. Specially constructed steam shovels for work of this kind is now enroute to Nanaimo from Calgary. It is estimated that it will take four mouths to complete all the work on the bridge. Railway men expect that, owing to the great scarcity of men that they will have considerable difficulty in obtaining enough labor to push the work. The new bridge probable means an expenditure of $20,000. Work will be started just as soon as men are obtained to go on with it. While naturally reticent about the plans of the company enough was obtained from the engineers to show that the company will do very much development work on the island in the very sear future. Some of the E. & N. land grants will be cleared shortly, contracts practically being already awarded.

Negotiations for Timber

According to a well authenticated report in this city, the Fraser River Sawmills Ltd., of New Westminster, is negotiating with the E. & N. Mr. Bopp has just concluded an exhaustive investigation of conditions in San Francisco, the results of which he has sent to his government. While making no recommendations to the home office, the tenor of the report is unmistakably in favor of the insurance companies carrying out their obligations. The consul would not commit himself on the attitude of Emperor William towards those companies that showed a tendency to shave their claims. The general implication of his remarks, however, were to the effect that the Emperor had practically ordered the companies to settle on a dollar-for-dollar basis.
