RALPH SMITH'S VIEW

Bring Over British People Instead of Orientals

Windsor, March 22.—Ralph Smith, M. P., before the Windsor Literary and Scientific Association on "Pro-Port Relations of Labor and Capital," declared that the proposition to bring Oriental people to Canada to work up on railways in the Northwest, he said, was a mistake. He said that it was practical by feeding thousands of its own people in the British Isles, who would be glad of a chance to earn their living in Canada, and if help is needed in the labor market we should bring in the country people of our own blood, not those whom we cannot assimilate.
