RIDGETOWN, July 1.—W. D. Cox, of Leamington, was the winner of the trophy donated by The London Free Press, emblematic of the championship in the first event of Ridgetown's bowling tournament to-day.

Forty rinks from all parts of Western Ontario were present and enjoyed the play on perfect greens. The London rinks all went down early, with the exception of Charlie Laur's Thistles, who lost to Colwell, of Wallaceburg, in the third round.
The second event, for the Laing trophy, has reached the semi-finals, with Maxwell, of St. Thomas, and Powell, Laing and Hoover, of Ridgetown, left in the running. Scores:
W. D. Cox defeated P. Bawden, the local skip, in the finals. FREE PRESS TROPHY.
