WEDDINGS STYLES STORIES

To Wed Edison's Son

Miss Anna Maria Edison, whose engagement to Theodore M. Edison, son of Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, has just been announced. She is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. W. J. V. Osterhout, of Cambridge, Mass.

has left the West for her home in Hamilton, following the annual meeting of the Dominion League in Edmonton.

Mrs. J. M. H. Mills and small son, Beverly, of Brampton, who have been guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carrothers, at their summer home, Inverleith Heights, Port Stanley, have left with Rev. J. M. H. Mills and a party of friends on a motor trip through the Kawartha Lake district.

Mrs. Lottie Garrett gave a delightful party on Wednesday evening at her home in Hale street prior to her departure for England next week. The house was cool and attractive, with many flowers and a color scheme of green and white. Progressive games were played and the evening concluded with refreshments and an hour's dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. A. J. Slack and Mrs. Ralph Millar, were recent visitors at Orendaga Camp, Port Bruce, where they spent the day with their daughters, Miss Mary Watson, Miss Dorothy Slack and Miss Clara Millar, who are attending the Y. W. C. A. camp.

Rev. F. G. Newton and Mrs. Newton, who have been guests with their daughter, Mrs. Mary Newton, at Woodhouse, have returned to St. John's Rectory, Sarnia. They leave on Monday on the St. Lawrence-Saguenay trip, and will spend the balance of August in Montreal, guests with their sons, Fred Newton and Ted Newton.

The Toronto Local Council of Women is giving a dinner at the Kings Edward on August 12, at which the speakers at the League of Nations meeting, to be held during the conference of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, will be guests of honor, with Lady Parsons, J. P., as the chief speaker. Lady Parsons is president of the Women's Engineering Association and is the first woman engineer in her own right in England. Mrs. J. W. Bundy, president of the Toronto council, will preside.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Adams entertained a happy party of 30 friends and relatives this week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyer and their daughter, Genevieve, of Boston, Mass. The house was prettily decorated with gladioli, dahlias and sweet peas, and Mrs. Frank Nopper assisted the hostess.

Miss Davis, who was the first prize winner in the women's first prize contest, was given by Miss Irene Hilbert and refreshments were served later, followed by dancing. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. F. Nopper, Mr. and Mrs. T. Nopper, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Johns, Miss Durrant, Miss T. Timmons, Miss McMartry, Mrs. M. Wilkins, O. Adams and Ernest Johns. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. O'Dell, of Boston, and Miss Janet Spratten, of Toronto.

Dr. J. H. Fisher, for the past two years on the teaching staff of the medical school of the University of Western Ontario, leaves to-day for New York, where he will take post-graduate work.

Mrs. Stanley Coyle, and little son, Donald Walton Coyle, of New York, arrive in town about the middle of August to spend a month with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walton, Ardven Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legg and family, Queen's avenue, accompanied by Mrs. Legg's father, George Walters, and her brother, Jack Walters, are motoring home from Southampton after spending the month of July at their cottage "Tuck-Away."

Mrs. W. H. Lovering, president of the Dominion Catholic Women's League, was recently guest of honor at a smart tea given at Calgary by the C. W. L. subdivision of that city. Mrs. Lovering

Watson, was the guest of honor at a delightful tea given for her by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Thomas Church, Seaforth, prior to her departure. The schoolroom was attractively arranged with many flowers. Short addresses in appreciation of Miss Luke's services and regret at her removal from Seaforth, were made by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Brown, and F. Holmstead, K.C., after which a poem, "Good-bye," addressed to Miss Luke, was read by the author, Miss H. Isabel Graham. During a residence of more than 10 years in Seaforth Miss Luke has been prominently identified with philanthropic and Red Cross work, particularly the latter, and she will be much missed in both the church and in the town.

TEMPO CHOIR
The choir and the U. M. U. M. U. M. class of the North Street Methodist Church, Tempo, met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Orr, a popular bride and groom, to present good wishes, accompanying a handsome clock. The address was read by Rev. and the presentation was made by Mrs. H. Davis. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Orr was Miss Alma Blewett.

BEECHWOOD W. I.
The members of the Beechwood Women's Institute will entertain the grandmothers of the community at their meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John McNaughton. All the women in attendance have been asked to bring a picture of themselves in childhood and the meeting promises to be unusually interesting.

Weddings
Robert-Gallahan
A pretty wedding took place at the Church of Our Saviour, Sombra, on Tuesday morning, when Marie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallahan, was married to Leo Robert-Gallahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robert-Gallahan, all of Sombra. Rev. Father O'Driscoll officiated. The bride was prettily dressed, and wore a Juliet cap of pearls, from which fell a tulle veil. She was attended by Miss Fern Callahan, her sister, groomed in blonde blue crepe with touches of ivory lace. Edwin Roberts was his brother's best man. Following the wedding the bridal party went to the Hotel Washburn, where a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Robert left for Detroit and Buffalo and on their return will reside on the groom's farm, Sombra Township.

Campbell-Eifert
A charming wedding took place at Tavistock at high noon on July 30, when Alma Emma, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Eifert, was married to Hubert R. Campbell, of Hespeler, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. Campbell, of Lashburn, Ireland. The bride's father performed the ceremony and the bride, who was unattended, was prettily groomed in white crepe and wore an embroidered veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. A wedding luncheon was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left in the afternoon on their wedding trip. They will reside in Hespeler.

Finlayson-Patton
The marriage took place in Paris on Tuesday afternoon of Miss Sarah H. Patton to William Finlayson, both of Paris. Rev. J. C. Nicholson performed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jennie Appleby, Banfield street, Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson will reside in Paris.

Weber-Terry
A quiet but smart event took place in St. Mary's Church yesterday morning when Mrs. Christine M. Terry, of this city, was united in marriage to John H. Weber, of Boston, Mass.

USE BOTH SIDES.
When using long-handled brushes and brooms try to use both sides evenly if possible.

USE MILD SOAP.
Use very mild soap when cleaning white woodwork, as strong soap turns it yellow in a short time.

Women of London In the Public Eye

MRS. GORDON WRIGHT, Dominion president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, is a gifted and forceful speaker. Her recent tour of the Province of Saskatchewan in the temperance cause followed a more extensive speaking itinerary last autumn, when, at the urgent request of the Scottish temperance bodies, she visited Scotland, remaining there several weeks and addressing great mass meetings in the leading cities. Mrs. Wright has been a leader in temperance in Canada for a number of years, but her activities are not confined solely to this issue. A vice-president of the London Local Council of Women, she has on a number of occasions represented the council at the meetings of the national council and is a close personal friend of Lady Aberdeen, founder and past president, and of Miss C. E. Carmichael, present national president. An extensive traveler, she has visited many parts of Canada and the motherland, but she has found time to take a deep and active interest in the cause of missions, and for some years has held the presidency of London branch W. M. S. of the Methodist church. A clever housekeeper and an accomplished hostess, she entertains many distinguished folk at her London home. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Wright was Miss Rowell, sister of the Hon. Newton Rowell.

LAWN PARTY IN AID OF BUILDING FUND

Christian Endeavor Societies Arrange Successful Fete

A gratifying sum was added to the building fund of the Church of Christ Disciples last night, when the senior and junior Christian Endeavor societies staged a successful garden party on the lawn of Mr. C. Gould's home in English street.

Decorations, carried out by A. J. Carter and his assistants, were of many colored lights, Japanese lanterns and gay awnings. The stalls had the usual quota of good things and were under the general direction of the social committee, Miss Evelyn Bankes and Alfred Garwood, with Miss Hilda M. Versey in charge of the refreshments. At the ice cream stall Miss Bankes and Mrs. Uren were in command; at the soft drinks counter, Mrs. E. Shaw and Miss Gertrude Bankes; candy, Miss Marion Johnston; popcorn, Frank Ball.

Rev. J. H. Versey was in the chair and E. P. Versey was in charge of the excellent program, which included vocal solos by Reginald Hudson, tenor; piano duet, Little Misses Bartlett; piano duet, Miss Minnie Durrant and Miss Marina Martin; and several numbers by the church quartet.

ADD PEP. A red belt and a red gardenia will put pep into many a nondescript dress that has simple lines and no conflicting color scheme.

Every Summer Day!

HOW luring is this dish to every member of the family—and how good a food it is for them to eat every summer day.

Each grain of Puffed Rice is a light, crisp, flaky morsel with an irresistible, nut-like flavour.

Each grain is a whole kernel of rice—rich in minerals. The milk supplies vitamins. This luscious combination makes a most nutritious food.

Each grain is steam exploded for quick digestion.

Serve as many ways as you can.

Quaker Puffed Wheat—another steam-exploded, whole-grain dainty. Let the children have Puffed Grains at any hour of the day. With milk as the bed-time dish it induces restful sleep.

Keep both on hand in plenty.
