

We would an ally be, if Britain shakes:
But freemen we must be in this free age.

Men of Toronto! scattered through the land,
Or settled still within the city's lines,
Your culture show; come forth, and take your stand
For Independence! till it rules and shines.

And now, with earnest, hopeful, warm appeal,
To all Canadians, who their country prize,
We close this effort for Canadian weal;
Unite! Combine! The Nation organize!

Native and foreign-born, combine! unite!
A patriotic stand shall win our claim;
Roll up your numbers for the National fight;
Let "The Dominion" justify its name!
