

to have a line from you soon. I know I am in the "black books" for not writing, but I hope to make up for past delinquencies in that line. Aunt Mary Jane is pretty well, but not at all strong. She was very ill last winter; indeed, for a time, I almost despaired of her recovery. I suppose you heard that my sister spent the vacations in Halifax. It did her a great deal of good. And now, dear friend, I must say good bye. Hoping to hear from you soon that you are in good health and with the affectionate regards of aunt Mary Jane and myself.

Ever yours sincerely,

W. DALY.

N.B. — I forgot to say how glad I was to hear from Power that you were at Quebec.
