

Weather—Cape de Kennis—Boontje's Point—Low Point—White Point—Sanddown Point—Prosecution of our Voyage to China—Violent Currents—Quantities of Pumice-Stone—Three Islands discovered—Sulphur Island described—Steer for the Bafsee Isles—Fruitless Search for them—The Island of Prata—The Prata Shoal—Some Chinese Fishing-boats seen—The Lema Islands—Signal for a Chinese Pilot—The Grand Ladrone Island —Journals and other Papers of the Officers and Men, relating to the History of the Voyage, delivered up. Page 170

C H A P. IX.

Ignorance of the Chinese Pilot—The Ships approach Macao—Account of the Isle of Potosi—A Chinese Comprador comes on board—Captain King dispatched to Macao to visit the Portuguese Governor—Dependent State of the Portuguese at Macao —Effects of the Intelligence we received respecting European Affairs—Alarms occasioned at Canton —Our Ships anchor in the Tyra—Captain King, his second Lieutenant, &c. proceed to Canton—Basca Tygris—Wampu—A Sampahie, or Chinese Boat, described—Mr. King's Reception at the English Factory at Canton—An Instance of the Suspicious Character of the Chinese—Their Method