OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We commend it to all who desire to present a friend with a volume not only very beautiful, but of solid intrinsic value."—Washington Union.

"A perfect treasury of the thoughts and fancies of the best English and American Poets. The paper and printing are beautiful, and the binding rich, elegant, and substantial; the most sensible and attractive of all the elegant Gift books we have seen."—Evening Bulletin.

"It contains the choicest specimens of British and American Literature arranged under their appropriate heads, so that the appearances of nature, the feelings, passions, pursuits of life, all have their separate place, thus enabling the most eminent Poets to speak as it were in their best manner and on their favorite theme. It will meet with a larger sale than any other Gift book published."—Germaniston Telegraph.

"The publishers deserve the thanks of the public for so happy a thought, so well executed. The engravings are by the best artists, and the other portions of the work correspond in elegance."—Public Ledger.

"A more appropriate or valuable Holiday Gift has not yet appeared."—Pa. Inquirer.
 "There is no book of selections so diversified and appropriate, within our knowledge."—Pennsylvanian.

"It is one of the most valuable as well as elegant books ever published in this country."—Godey's Lady's Book.

"Mrs. Hale in this work has fulfilled the highest requisition laid upon modern genius and taste. The extracts are almost numberless—and yet we cannot discover one which does not possess some special beauty.

"It is the most beautiful and the most useful offering ever bestowed on the public.
 "Whatever you purchase, obtain the 'Poet's Offering.' No individual of literary taste will venture to be without it."—The City Item.
